SPORTSLIGHTNER

sail into each other Saturday for the last time, a majority of the listening faithful will be hoping "that those Irishers knock hallelujah out of them West Pointers for those awful lickings Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis gave 'em in those two war years." And chances are the South Benders will depart the Cadets from all the prestige they gained in those years. At least they're picked to splatter Army all over Indiana. Dame, not Army? The Irish have in 1905. ficers, most of them written by county rivals. subway alumni. This fact is given Over the route Eugene has won as one reason why the Irish-Cadet 22 times to Salem's 15. series is being brought to a close. Hauk's team likely will line up That and the other fact that as follows for the finale: Endsneither school has anything in Lowell Spagle and Bill Rock. common. West Point feels that it Tackles- Wally Nelson and Ralph is training its men for only one Morgali; Guards-Ray Cummings reason - to enter the military and Bud Barnholdt. Center-Bob service when they finish, Foot- Seamster. Quarterback - Jerry ball is incidental. On the other Taylor. Halbacks — Mike Glenn hand at Notre Dame football is and Deen Paulus. Fullback—Carlooked upon as a means to an end los Houck.

JOHNNY LEWIS

Yes, many will be they who will Saturday hope that Notre Dame mangles Army. But as a member of them we hope just as Double Mainer hard that the Cadets have enough left to make for the gosh-dangdest upset this season.

Leo Says He's the Boss Leo (The Lion) Turner has professed a strong fondness to do some splattering himself in his the Coast lightheavy mat cham-10-rounder with Joey Albina at pionship, will highlight next Tuesthe armory next Wednesday night. day night's wrestling card at the After all, Albina still claims the armory, Matchmaker Elton Owen state middleweight championship announced last night. The title tussle will be a rematch actually, hetween Milt Olson and Billy Hixthese parts. No one has ever beat on, the pair who this week swiped the undocile darky for it, he vows. the show in their 20-minute preknow they can't get them by get- weeks ago. ting licked in Salem. The one big to spot Kahut the 15 or 20 addi- Tuesday's card. tional pounds "if only I can get one more try at him." Kahut, you'll recall, went twice to 10round draws with Turner and then Commish Lists in a 15-master finally got a TKO over the negro in the 15th.

The Kahut-Turner mix likely never will occur. In fact you might not see the Woodburn farmer boy do any more fighting at all in Portland. It seems his ticket holders. Joe Waterman and Jack Capri by name, are fussin' and feudin' with Tex Salkeld. And the rotund Texan is in command of all professional boxing in Portland. Tex says he will gladly book Kahut in Portland with a sizeable opponent, but-!

Not to the Brownies! Heaven forbid' One of the later rumors emerging from eastern hot stove leagues involves a swap between the Yankees and St. Louis Browns. It isn't so bad until you see the name "Bill Bevens" mixed up in it. That would be the end for sure. . . . The annual Heisman trophy award will be made early in December in New York City for the 13th time, and it's a good bet this Bob Chappuis of Michigan and not Johnny Lujack of Notre Dame will be "it." . . . The biggest prep footballer in the state? Don Vandervort has him at Chemawa, one "Bear" Lopez. The kid weighed 325 at the start of the season but has dwindled down to a mere 295.... J. Lillie has been asking questions on the ins and outs of Southern Oregon's annual "Pear Bowl" party Thanksgiving day. Could be the Bearcats are being considered by Al Simpson's Raiders? . . . Johnny Lewis already is sorting out the WU cagers for his first whack at the head coaching chore and would most certainly like to find one or two lads who would have to stoop to pass beneath a six-foot two-inch ceil-Ditto for Slats Gill at OSC, although Slats isn't quite so bad off. . . .

Mill City Downs Jefferson 6 to 0

JEFFERSON, Nov. 6 .- (Special) The Mill City Timberwolves won the battle for second place in the final Marion County B league football standings here today with a 6-0 win over Jefferson. Clyde Richard passed to Lou Verveck for the touchdown.

Prep District Races Nearing Finish Line

District high school football reaches its climax this weekend and on Armistice day in a round of games that could decide titles in five of Oregon's eight zones. With. The Dalles already the until Nov. 21. champion in district 1, only two districts may be left to settle affairs after Armistice day. St. Helens, one of the two remaining unbeaten and untied class A teams, heads the east in the weekend presentation, playing Scappose. An expected win will cinch the district 7 title for St. Helens. In district 6 the two leaders, Newberg and Hillsboro, will play weekend games—New-berg against Tillamook and Hillsboro vs. Beaverton - but the race will not end at least until next weekend and possibly not

In important district 5 games this weekend, once - beaten Milwaukie will travel to Oregon City and once - beaten Molalla will play Sandy. In district 3 Grants Pass will try to keep its title hopes alive with a victory over Roseburg Friday night. The crucial game of the district will come Armistice day, however, with the leader, Marshfield, playing North Bend. Marshfield could sew up the title then with a win.

In Portland, Jefferson plays Franklin and Grant meets Washington. Both Jefferson and Grant need victories. A loss would eliminate either team. Other important games come Armistice day. In district 2 it will be Klamath riving in time for a brief warmneed victories to stay in the race. In district 4, Corvallis plays at cide the district crown.

Viks, Eugene in 38th Go Tonight; Bearcats Taper Drills for Linfield

Haukmen Picked To Nab Victory

They can't cop the Big Six title or a district berth in the state playoffs with a win, but Salem high's Vikings can write off the current football campaign as successful in their 38th annual clash with the Eugene Axemen at Eugene tonight. The Civic stadium game, to close Salem's season, starts at eight o'clock. It will mark But did you know that most of the renewal of one of the most anthe splattering in this 34-year cient athletic rivalries in the state rivalry has been done by Notre prep ranks, one that started back won 22 times to Army's seven, Coach Harold Hauk's band, and four games have ended in spearheaded by the fullbacking of ties. True, Army was loaded with Carlos Houck, will enter the tilt wartime material in 1944 and '45 the favored eleven. Salem's record when the 59-0 and 45-0 wallop- for the season is much better than ings were dished out by Blanch- that possessed by Hank Kuchera's ard, Davis and the rest of the club. Eugene has held a monopoly talented Cadets who found that on wins the past five years, an in war more than in peace the item expressed quite impressively chance to become an army officer to his team by Hauk this week. is indeed attractive. Those wal- The last time a Salem team downlopings have been costly to West ed Eugene was in 1941. Since then Point, however, for over 5000 vi- the Viks have been able to score cious letters have reached its of- but 19 points against the Lane

Set at Armory

A double main event, one for season-starting party it's a dandy. wrestlers. Hixon holds the lightpurses obtainable in Portland and Gray Mask in California a few Kahut the Oregon heavyweight olds is one of the more popular who doesn't fight in Oregon any gladiators in these parts. The 20-

Lucky Hunters

from a list of 1215 applicants of play. for special elk hunting tags. Inwere the following. Vern Day, Martin, St. Paul; Glenn Larsen, halftime. Brownsville; Mile Rash, Corvallis; A. M. Ropp, Albany; Paul N. Reynolds, Idanha; James A. Pop Warner Due Swan, Mill City; Norman Stauf-

SNOW REPORT PORTLAND, Nov. 6-(AP)-Thirty inches of snow at Government Camp and 40 inches at Timberline on Mount Hood were report-the year in which the accordion since his retirement from active is reputed to have been invented. coaching in 1940.

snowing.

In Finale

men. Houck is one of the scorers in the Big Six race.

Leslie Golds

Coach Harry Mohr's Leslie And any way you look at the lim excursion. Both are expert Golds last night provided the biggest upset of the current Junior Both want the more sugary heavy belt since his win over the High football season by administering a 13-6 defeat to the previously unbeated Bob Metzger Keene, Stiner The second main event will pit Parrish Cards and knocking them scrap Turner wants most of all, Joe Dorsetti against Dave Reynolds from a first place tie with the however, is another date with Joe and will be a 45-minute tiff. Reyn- Parrish Grays who managed to remain unbeaten and unscored upon in an afternoon game with more. The Lion Man is willing minute prelims will round out West Salem. The Grays won that one in a walk 35-0. Vern Klein romped 25 yards for the first Golds score in the second quarter and Bert Harp converted. Moments later after recovering a fumble on the Parrish seven Morris Irish scored to make it 13-0. Parrish got six in the third canto when Deb Davis ran 31 The State Game commission yards but was held four times by yesterday named the lucky 100 the inspired Leslies within the 10 hunters whose names were drawn yard line in the last six minutes Scoring for the Grays: Buzz Cocluded in the 100 from this area valt two touchdowns, Dick Howard two and Don Peterson one. Silverton; Gilbert Belknap, Jef- Conversions, two by Howard and ferson; Cecil Belt, Yamhill; Z. F. one by Covalt. It was 26-0 at

fer, Hubbard; Tom Baldwin, Hubbard; Mary Finlay, Jeffer- For Grid Award

NEW YORK, Nov. 7-(AP)-Glenn S. (Pop) Warner, football coaching genius for nearly half a century, will receive the New York Touchdown club award for outstanding controbutions to the ed today by the Mount Hood na- game at the club's annual bantional forest. Moreover, it is still quet, Nov. 19, it was announced today. Warner, who devised the single and double wing systems of football offense, as well as many The concertina was invented in other gridiron innovations, has 1829 by Sir Charles Wheatstone- been living in Palo Alto, Calif.,

Abneys to Fight on Card

Salem's fighting Abney brothers, middleweight Dick and lightweight Dean, both of them guilty of providing some slam-bang battles last season here, will be on the Leo (The Lion) Turner-Joey Albina inaugural next Wednesday night at the armory, Matchmaker Tex Salkeld announced last night. Their opponents have not yet been named by Salkeld, but Dick will appear in the six-round semifinal and Dean, who started his pro career last winter and who has been stealing most of the shows he has appeared in around the state since, will biff in the top four-rounder. Two more fourrounders will complete Salkeld's first offering of the season.

If both Abneys have retained ager Sam Duncan assures that of 284, four under par. both have improved greatly since last season, the action in both feature prelims will be assured. Meanwhile Salkeld reassures that the Turner-Albina 10rounder "will be quite a fight." It seems Turner is downright serious about how totally mis-taken Albina is in claiming the Oregon middleweight title and aims to show the former Portland shipyarder just who still is boss in the 160-pound division. Even though Turner hasn't fought here in over three years, local faithfuls need not be reminded that when the negro sharpie has his mind set on accomplishing something in the ring he is very apt to be anything but disappointing.

their ability to slug, and Man-

Lillie's Leaders Favored Saturday

Headman Jerry Lillie last night egan applying the finishing touches to the weekly drills for his Willamette Bearcats who Satday night clash with the Linfield Wildcats at McMinnville in their Northwest conference football annual. The Bearcats, expected to be at full strength for the strugbe at full strength for the struggle, will also be the favored out-fit. They will be in quest of their sixth straight voctory and if they tie for the loop championship.

pointing for this game, have lost but one conference tilt this season. But their overall record is on the spotty side. They were drubbed 39-6 by the Southern Oregon Red Raiders week before last. but bounced back to knock over Whitman 26-6

Starting for the Bearcats Saturday likely will be Bill Reder and hiko and Bob Denovan at tackles. Art Beddoe and Jim Fitzgerald at guards, Chuck Patterson at center, Bobby Douglas at quarter, Bill Ewaliko, Keith Sperry or Al Minn at halves and either Al Wickert or Bob Warren at full.

Wolves Clash

MONMOUTH, Nov. 6-(Special) -Coach Bill McArthur's Oregon Carlos (Cub) Houck, top offensive urday play the Lewis & Clark College of Education Wolves Satthreat for the Vikings will be at Pioneers in a 2 p.m. game in fullback tonight in Eugene when Portland at Jefferson high school Salem closes out her season in field. The Wolves, plagued with the 38th meeting with the Axe- injuries lately, are worrying Mc-Arthur for a starting lineup. On the wounded list are Fullbacks the wounded list are Fullbacks
Bill Byers and Bob McKeever and Clemo Seeking Ends Curly Mattison and Bruce

The team is anxious to regain the win column after its heartbreaking 6-0 loss to Eastern Oregon last week. The Wolves Jaynext Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

To Talk Here

Oregon State Director of Athletics Spec Keene, Head Football Coach Lon Stiner and Bas-ketball Boss Slats Gill will this Gervais Cougars morning be honored guests of the Salem Breakfast club during their regular gathering at 7:30 o'clock at Marion hotel. years a Salem resident, and the popular Stiner and Gill will address the group. A large turnout of Salem businessmen and club members is expected.

Club President Harry Collins will be toastmaster and the proceeding will be aired over station KOCO direct at 8 a.m. The breakfast is open to the public.

DiMag Examination Set NEW YORK, Nov. 6-(A)-Joe

Dimaggio, New York Yankee outfielder, will enter Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore on Nov. 9. for an examination to determine if he needs an operation on his right elbow, club officials announced today.

Ironmen Dumped!

PORTLAND, Nov. 6 -(AP)- The Seattle Ironmen dished up a 6 to 3 setback to the Portland Eagles in a Pacific Coast league ice hockey game here tonight,

PINEHURST, N.C., Nov. 6-(AP) -A 74-73 finish today was good enough to clinch for Jimmy Turnesa, Elmsford, N.Y., professional, top money of $1,500 in the 45th north and south open golf tournament with a 72-hole total

The Keglettes swept three from Lutz Florists, games Schatz Furniture took two from Good Housekeeping, Acklin's Bootery downed Alexandria three times and Broadway Beauty Shop took three from Quisenberry's last night in Ladies league bowling at Capitol Alleys. Ann Thrush rolled a 505 series for Broadway, tops for the night, and her 185 single game also was high.

Bevos Halt Drills, Set for Uke Scrap Army Warriors Off

Stiner Lines Up Opening Eleven For Saturday Tilt in Portland

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 6-(A)-Oregon State tapered off for the Saturday gridiror. ray against UCLA with a light workout here today, off for South Bend tonight amidst one of the greatest demonstrations Falls at Bend and Medford at up on Multnomah stadium. The Ashland. Medford and Klamath, game will be the Beavers' first deadlocked for the lead, each on the stadium turf since it was revamped last summer.

The first team today lined up Albany x. a contest that will de- with Bob Grove at left end, Hal Puddy at left tackle, Paul Evensen at left guard, Jim Swar-brick, center; Ray Crane, right guard; Bill Austin, right tackle; Dave Anderson, right end; Don Mast, quarterback; Ken Carpenter, left half; Don Samuel, right half; and Duane Moore, at fullback. Puddy will be game cap-

The favored Bruins are expected to arrive in Portland Friday, also, for a workout at the stadium. There are still a few seats on sale for the important confer-

Ducks Depart

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 6-(AP)-The Oregon Ducks expect to leave get it they will clinch at least a here by plane tomorrow morning tie for the loop championship Coach Wayne Harn's Wildcats, urday football clash against the Washington State Cougars at Pullman, Coach Jim Aiken concluded training with a brisk workout today and named a 37man squad for the trip.
The Ducks have cancelled practice for tomorrow. They will stay in Spokane overnight, continuing to Pullman Saturday morning.

Salem radio station KOCO has booked three important sports broadcasts for the weekend, Al Schuss announced Thursday. At eight o'clock this morning the play-by-play of the Salem Breakfast club gathering at the Marion hotel will be aired and will feature Oregon Staters Spec Keene, Lon Stiner and Slats Gill. Tonight at 7:45 the Salem-Eugene high school game will be carried direct from Eugene, with Schuss at the "mike." On Saturday night Schuss will again bring the account of the Willamette-Linfield game at Mc-Minnyille, starting at 7:45 p.m.

Fistic Revenge

PORTLAND, Nov. 6-(AP)- Joey Clemo, Portland's shoeshine banvees play Willamette seconds here tamweight, will make a try for revenge against Aurel Toma, the Romanian veteran, in a 10-round bout here tomorrow night. Toma decisioned young Clemo in their last match. Another bantamweight 10 - rounder on the card will pit Tony Olivera against Jackie Turner. One of the prelims features Bunty Andrews, Vancouver, B. C., vs. Hal Fries, Salem, featherweights.

Trounce Chemawa

GERVAIS, Nov. 6 -(Special) The venerable Keene, many The Gervais Cougars brought Yuranek Clings their Marion county B football league season to a successful close To Scoring Lead here today by squashing the Chemawa Indians 42 to 6. The Cougars scored in every period. They finish the season with a 3-won, 3-lost and 1-tied record. The game was the last of the season for Chemawa also.

Duck Pins

Serve-Rite Grocery downed versions in six games and is nine Heider's, 3-1; Kelly Farquhar points up on second-place Paul took four from W. C. Dyer and Jewell of Jiggs Burnett's Bull-Sons; A. B. G. Motors had a 3-1 dogs. In third place is Ray Myers night against R. L. Elfstrom and of Silverton with 36 points and Blue Lake No. 1 swept four from fourth is Jack Cooper, Dallas with Blue Lake No. 2 in B & B Bowl- 25. Both Jack Krieger of Wooding court Commercial league ac- burn and Roy Speights of Moltion last night. Ed Brandle's 213 alla have 24, while Dick Davengame for Blue Lake No. 1 was port of Molalla has 23. Bill Duda high and Bill Wells' 510 series of Mt. Angel, John Wells of Molfor Kelly Farquhar also rated alla and Swede Boedingheimer of

SNAPPER

Baseball Men Next for Red Raiders Sanction Rule ASHLAND, Nov. 6 -(AP)- The

Southern Oregon Red Raiders CINCINNATI, Nov. 6 - (AP) didn't falter at No. 13, but they're tossing salt and crossing fingers Baseball's executive council voted 7 about the 14th game this week- today to recommend to the joint a end. Southern Oregon college, meeting of major league club which notched its 13th straight owners in New York Dec. 11 that victory two weeks ago against the "American Legion rule" be included in "the body of the rules 11 Linfield, will face the stiffest of baseball," and that the clubs be competition of two years against prohibited from "inviting or sug- 12 San Francisco State in the bay gesting" that players report voluntarily for spring training before March 1, the official fixed 14

Academy Team Upsets Dayton WOODBURN, Nov. 6-(Special) Although he was held without point in last week's scoreless

The Salem Academy football 21 team yesterday upset the Dayton Pirates, 14 to 6 in a game at Day- 22 ton. It was Dayton's first loss. A 23 pass, Bob Funk to Don Goertzen scored the first six-pointer for 24 the Academy and Don Shaff bucked the other across after a kick was blocked. Funk counted 26 both conversions.

The Netherlands lost about two 28 million bicycles during World War II and does not expect to 29 have complete replacements until 30

Huge Rally Sends

Blaik Hopes Classic With Irish Not Last; Cadets Now 'Doomed 39'

'Wedey' Plagued With Woes

Herman Wedemeyer, all-American halfback for St. Mary's in 1945

Schipper. (AP Wirephoto).

may be 20 points better than army.

Hurdle of '13' Jinx

city Saturday.

deadlock with Sandy, Woodburn's

Dale Yuranek still leads the individual scoring chase in the Willamette Valley football circuit with 47 points. He has counted seven touchdowns and five con-

Stayton all have 18.

It shouldn't happen to a dog! We'll bet he's saying "These candid camera fiends outa be locked up somewhere." Maybe so, maybe so, but if you are a camera fiend you naturally want the best tools you can get, don't you? Well - - - ?

but this year unable to hit his stride with the Gaels, mostly because of injuries, is shown above having x-rays taken of a shoulder after one of the numerous St. Mary's losses. The technician is Fred

Irish Eye Weather Man

decided weatherman today lurked as the main threats to unbeaten

Notre Dame's march to a sixth straight victory in the "last roun i-up" between the Irish and Army before an expected overflow crowd of 58,000 here Saturday. Long-range forecasts predicted rain for the first South Bend appearance by the proud Cadets from West Poin in a historic 34-year rivalry, but the weatherman won't know for sure until some time Friday whether the Notre Dame stadium will be a fast track or a muddy strip come the Irish-Cadet farewell. If the field is dry, even the gambling boys concede that Notre Dame

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nev. 6 -(P)- Overconfidence and an un-

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 6 -(P)- Army's football warriors took composed chiefly of signal drills, passing, punting and pass defense. in the history of the military academy and Coach Earl Blaik held out The Beavers, will board a bus tomorrow afternoon for Portland, ar- at least a dim ray of hope that Saturday's game will not be the last between the Cadets and Notre

"I've noticed that things go in circles," observed the Army mentor, "I seem to recall that even Army and Navy once had a slight rupture of football relations. But we are playing again now. Anyone who says that the Army-Notre Dame game will never come back is crazy. He simply doesn't know.

Once again Coach Blaik took occasion to avow that he had nothing to do with terminating the long, lustrous gridiron rivalry between the two schools.

"It is presumptuous to assume." he said, "that any coach can dictate the continuance or discontinuance of a series such as this, particularly at a place like the military academy.

Possibly because they realized their team was supposed to be heading for a bad defeat, the cadets tried to outdo themselves in their send-off of the "doomed 39." After a loud rally in the mess hall replete with speeches and cheers, the entire corps accompanied the squad to the train at the foot of the great bluff.

Michigan Vies With Hoosiers

CHICAGO, Nov. 6 -(A) - Michigan's Rose Bowl-bound Wolverines, undefeated and untied, Saturday encounter the first of the three remaining obstacles in their dash down the glory road. The Big Nine pace setters meet Indiana at Ann Arbor before a sellout crowd of 85,938 and if they hurdle the Hoosiers they must defeat Wisconsin the following week and then overpower Ohio State to play out their unbroken victory string.

Elsewhere in the conference Saturday's important battles involve Purdue against Minnesota at Minneapolis, Wisconsin and Iowa and Madison, and Northwestern against Ohio State at

TROJAN STARTERS SET

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6-(AP)-Southern California will start the same eleven men who took the week when the Trojans encounter luckless Stanford here Saturday. This means George Murphy at quarterback, Mickey McCardle and Don Doll as half and Verl Lillywhite at fullback.

Table of Coastal Tides Tides for Taft, Ore., October, 1947. Compiled by U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, Portland, Ore. Nov. HIGH TIDES LOW TIDES

Time 8:31 a.m. 2:28 p.m. 9.08 p.m. 3:29 a.m. 10:18 p.m. 11:03 a.m. 4:56 a.m. 0:13 a.m. 6:11 a.m. 7:16 p.m. 12:07 p.m. 12:39 p.m. 9:17 p.m. :46 p.m. 4:03 p.m. 0:34. a.m. 21:24 a.m. 8:17 a.m. 2:11 a.m. 8:53 p.m.

9:57 p.m.

10:56 p.m. 10:26 a.m.

0:42 a.m.

:32 a.m.

11:37 a.m.

12:16 p.m.

-0.2 2.5

4:56 a.m.

6:54 p.m. 6:18 a.m.

8:27 p.m. ·WAR SURPLUS·

Week-End Specials!!

Here are more of those War Surplus Items at a Fraction of Original Cost. Boot Sox Dress Sox

Asst'd. Colors Wool 6 pair for WAC Raincoats, hood attached GI Dubbin, shoe grease 2 for 15c Ski Pants, Downhill Blankets, O. D., 100% wool Trousers, wool lined bib type

These are just a few of the bargains

we are offering you.

CASCADE MERCANTILE 6 FAIRGROUND RD. & CHURCH ST.