Honoring Mrs. Norton were Mesdames Betty Hamilton, Esther Goodwin, Alice Jonas, Mary Sue Flanning, Dorothy O'Mara, Gertrude DeGuire, Fern Connor, Misses Louise Pettit, Connie Smart, Dollie Stroschien, Bersadis Exes, Beverly and Phyllis Plant, Dorothy Anderson, Pauline Craven, Rosemary Pryor and the hostesses.

Garden Club Show Is of Interest

Attracting a number of Salem people to Portland Friday and Saturday will be the Portland Garden club's Thanksgiving and Christmas flower show, which will be held at the home of the late Miss Mary F. Failing in Dunthorpe. The affair is slated from one to five o'clock Friday afternoon and from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Saturday. Tea will be served each afternoon.

Among features of the show will be unusual table decorations, mantle arrangements, a Victorian Christmas tree, dish gardens, a table of gifts for birds with Christmas trees made up especially for birds. There will be a number of unusual ideas on decorating the Christmas tree. Small potted plants and bags containing bulbs for planting will be on sale, as well as many other items suitable for gifts.

Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Edith Schryver, both members of the Portland Garden club, will go down today to arrange their exhibits. Miss Lord will enter a Madonna arrangement and Miss Schryver will exhibit several wreaths.

Among others who are planning to attend the two-day show are Mrs. Chester Cox, Miss Mabel P. Robertson, Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Mrs. William J. Busick, Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mrs. Stuart Compton, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mrs. E. M. Page, Miss Dorthea Steusloff, Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny, Mrs. Lewis Judson, Mrs. Charles Cole, Mrs. R. E. Cartwright, Mrs. Lee Canfield and Mrs. R. M. Fitzmaurice.

Visiting in Salem this week are Mrs. Ronald Gemmell and daughter, Creagh, of San Francisco, who are guests of Mr. Gemmell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gemmell. The Gemmells formerly resided here and before returning south will visit in McMinnville with friends.
