SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20-(AP) Far western football reaches its seasonal peak this weekend and we flag down the pigskin express to ride with these nifty selections: Southern California's Trojans thunder into the Rose Bowl with a six point margin over the UCLA Bruins. The winning difference is revised downward from earlier estimates to compensate for the "do or die" lift that will prevail on the Bruins' side. Superior passing and quarterbacking will turn the trick for the favored Trojans. California over Stanford by 13 points, another downward revision complimenting the spirit of the eight times defeated Indians. Washington to cap a disappointing season with a win over its bitter rival, Washington State. Should be close, tough game with one-point decision.

Buck Weaver, almost a ruling favorite with the wrestling flock as soon as he made his first appearance here last year, and for the past few months absent from these parts, will be back Tuesday night, Matchmaker Elton Owen yesterday reported the Indiana trickster is coming back for a series of matches in the Northwest and on Tuesday night will team with Georges Dusette, another top favorite in these parts, as members of the "cleanie" team for a tag team main event. Dusette has been missing from this sector lately too.

Just who Weaver and Dusette will collide with in the tag teamer will be made known by Owen later. Two prelims will also be on the 8:30 p.m. card, and will be an-

Preps Set for Playoffs

Klamath Falls and The Dalles will open the annual state high school football playoffs today in the first of a round of games that will cut the field in half. It is an official holiday at The Dalles, and the whole town is expected to turn out for the afternoon encounter in which the undefeated and untied The Dalles team is favored over Klamath Falls. The Dalles defeated Klamath in an earlier game, 26-12.

Three more class "A" quarter-final games will follow at night. At Coos Bay it will be Albany vs. Marshfield, with Albany a slight favorite on comparative scores. At Milwaukie it will be Hillsboro vs. a favored Milwaukie team. Milwaukie won a previous encounter, 20-6. At Portland it will be St. Helens vs. Jefferson of Portland,

The class "B" teams also go into their quarter-finals. Amity and Aumsville will collide at McMinnville tomorrow. Amity is the district 1 and Aumsville the district 2 representative. Other games will see Myrtle Creek of district 4 at Mill City, district 3; Madras of district 6 vs. Henley of district 5 at Klamath Falls, and Union of district 8 at Heppner, district 7. Ducks, Beavers Taper for 51st Mix

By the Associated Press The favored University of Oregon Ducks and injury-ridden Oregon State Beavers Thursday tapered drills for their football gigantic at Eugene Saturday, the 51st meeting between the two rivals. Oregon will go into the game favored by at least one touchdown, possibly more if the Hayward field is dry. The sharp running of Jake Leicht, Bob Koch and George Bell from the T formation and the great passing of Norm Van Broklin is expected to be the difference. The Ducks will go into the fray at full strength and on a five-game winning streak. They haven't defeated an Oregon State team

At Corvallis the Beavers wound up their heavier work and it was announced that three regulars would not see action in the game. They are Ends Dave Center Jim Swarbrick. Veteran guard Ray Crane will act as game captain for the Orangemen. Halfback Ken Carpenter may see little action Saturday also be-during their 26-6 loss at Linfield awhile back, the Whitmans go for the wide-open style of play. They pull spread formations all over the lot, toss many passes and flip numerous laterals. The system has been devised by Dave Strong, the former Tommy Harmon running mate at Michigan who is now grid boss at Whitman. Keeping an alert eye on 6-foot 3-inch end John Stephens, who spears many of the passes thrown by the Whit backfielders is high among Willamette's defensive musts.

has been gobbled up in the draft, wouldn't it be nice if the parent Portlands gave young Bud Peterson an open shot at their shortston hale and their article reveals that Stiner leaves the Beaver quarterbacking up to a paid alumni (hey, that's illegal!), namely Bob Dethman of OSC's 1942 Rose Bowl champs. Dethman parks in the press box every game and via telephone to the bench "calls" the key plays for the Beavers on the field. Upon hearing from, Dethman, Stiner inserts a substitute with the instruction. Which isn't so startling when now calling key plays for his team by being able to send in a sub for every play of the game without the danger of a penalty.

If Jake Leicht is to crack the scoring record this season, he'll have to hurry against OSC tomorrow. Jackrabbit Jake now has seven touchdowns and 11 conversions to lead the PCC pack with 53 points. The record, if Leicht is looking that far ahead, is held by Southern Cal's Orv Mohler (1931) who tallied 14 touchdowns that season . . . Our town Senators, reports Business Boss George Emigh, will not do their spring training in Medford next year. Medford is to have a Class D team of her own in 1948 and the park there will be occupied. As it isn't likely the Solons will follow up the Beavers for training at Riverside, Cal., they might wind up doing the tuneups right here at home where the early spring weather seems to be just about as good as anywhere else . . .

Don't take lightly the report that the WIL will jump from Class B to A in the baseball family, for Emigh admits the step is entirely probable due to the new option rule next season. Moving into Class A would give the WI clubs a $4750 safary limit instead of the present $3600 One other item delivered by the biz boss: Although Kenny Wyatt, Hunk Anderson and Al Spacter have been turned over outright to the locals by the Portlands, all three will be taken to spring training with the varsity. And so far as both Wyatt and Lefty Wandell Mossor are concerned at 1948 Beaver-Salem chattels. They may be sold or swapped to other Coast league teams who have indicated an interest in their lefthanded abilities. Ouch! . . .

Today is the big day for the Portlands too. It's the one during which the Portland city council will at 9:30 a. m. hold a hearing on the Beavers' Vaughn street park mess. Beve Booster Boss Tommy Luke has issued an appeal to all lovers of the Portlands that they be there en masse "to save our ball club." Luke furthers, "I am in a po-sition to know that unless reasonable arrangembents can be made for the ball club to continue on at its present location, there is a strong possibility of Portland and the state losing its Pacific Coast league franchise and all of the national publicity that goes with it to another city." Ouch! . . .

Would Put Boot to Ducks

many of the Beaver hopes for a win Saturday at Eugene when OSC goes against Oregon's Ducks in the big game. Samuel hails from Hood River.
