PARRISH JUNIOR HIGH Agency Formed

A new service to Parrish students is an employment agency set up to aid those who are interested in finding jobs. Harriet Hiday and Don Case will be chairman of the service. Calls received through the office will be turned over to them and they in turn will distribute the jobs.

Triad Members Chosen

Alice Raussen, Pat Wagner, Jean Turnbull, Helen Germain, Kay Ferrin, Carol Woodroffe, Carolyn Messmer, Alice Waters, Janet Kufner, Janet Wiley, Pat Hall and Wilman Blue were chosen for the treble triad from those who auditioned. Miss Gretchen Kreamer serves as the adviser for the group.

Committee Members

Bill Cranor, chairman, Patsy Pease, Mary Lou Zumwalt, and Gary Ferguson make up the building committee at Parrish. This group inspects the halls and checks for open lockers and damage or misuse of school property.

JRC Projects

The Junior Red Cross council has made 250 nut cups for the Veterans' hospital in Roseburg. Serving on the committee were Clea Martin, Lois Hall and Roger Weaver. The group has had 1,000 menu covers made from a linoleum block print made by Loyal Howard, a student from Mrs. Francis Walker's art class.

Another set of 330 handmade menu covers were presented by students from Mr. Robert Voigt's art classes. These menu covers will go to the navy ships and the navy hospitals for their Christmas tables.
