S. Sgt. Marcus P. Sanford, Co. E, 186th infantry regiment, La-Grande, Friday was declared winner of the two month recruiting contest conducted by the Oregon National Guard. The an-nouncement was made by Gov. John H. Hall.

Sanford wins an airplane trip to Washington, D. C., and will attend the Army-Navy football game at Philadelphia as a guest of the Department of Army. Adjutant General Thomas E.

Rilea said 723 new guardsmen were enlisted in the Oregon national guard during the contest which ended November 16. The state recruiting goal was 1,591.

"Oregon's enthusiastic cooperation in this campaign has given valuable impetus to the national defense program and is entirely worthy of the gallant 70-year history of the Oregon National Guard," Rilea said.
