Winners Come From Behind for Decision (Continued from Page 18)

only when the Orange goal line was reached.

Jake Leicht shifted the surge into high with a twisting 20-yard sparkler around the Beaver left flank, bringing the ball to the Beaver 43. On the next play truly fine passer Van Brocklin dropped back and shot a long pitch far to the southeast corner of the field. His favorite catcher, End Don Garza had sauntered beyond Beaver defender Don Campbell but missed a touchdown when the ball slipped off his finger tips.

Van Brocklin, not to be denied, followed up by hitting End Larry Stoeven on the Beaver 26 for a 14-yard gain, and then found Garza waiting on the left flank for 11 more to the OSC 15. He tried another to Stoeven on the goal line, but this time Dick Gray in the last split-second and with a headlong dive managed to bat the ball out of Stoeven's waiting hands.

The hard-working Beavers, fighting to keep off what seemed to be an inevitable Oregon touchdown, smeared Van Brocklin for a 14-yard loss while he was trying to pass — only the second time this season in 195 pass attempts that the brilliant Oregon back has been kept from getting his pass away, mind you — and Oregon had to kick.

Back they came after Leicht had returned Don Mast's boot to the 49, and in six plays were on the Beaver 20. Bell's 13-yard sprint around left end was the key play. The Beavers later yielded another first down on the 1 1/2, but on the next play Bell again fumbled and this time Big Bill Austin of Oregon State glommed the ball. As there were but a few seconds left in the half the Beavers hung onto the ball.

They came back red hot. Starting from their 20 OSC went to the 41 in three plays, Gray's 13-yard rip around left end the touch-off. Then Gray made his electrifying serve to Laidlaw and OSC had six points.

The Beavers followed right up by starting off on another drive after Bob Koch had fumbled the ensuing kickoff on his own 30. Mast's fourth-down pass landed in the end zone however.

Van Brocklin went to the pass weapon again, but Dick Twenge gladdened the Beavers, and almost wrecked the shivering Duck hearts as he intercepted one on the Oregon 36. Two first downs brought OSC to the Duck 15 and had everyone in the arena convinced a smashing upset was at hand.

But Mr. Bell, the gent who wore the dunce's bonnet because of his fumbles in the first half, then took over. He intercepted a Gray pass on the one yard line and returned it to the 22. He hadn't even got his breath when Van Brocklin pitched him a lateral from the "T" and he swept around the Beaver right wing. Some fine blocking gave Bell his start and some equally fine feinting took care of the rest of it as he streaked southward down the east sideline. Don Mast gave hot pursuit all the way but there was no catching this talented 195-pounder. He too dove the last few yards into the end zone and a great cheer went up from those who had but a few moments earlier feared the worst had befallen them.

When Jake Leicht split the up-rights with a placement for a 7-6 lead the first cheer wasn't even a close relation to the one which then denoted the sunny but crispy come.

Oregon had one more fumble to make late in the period, again recovered by OSC on the Oregon 27, but dug in and shook off the Beaver threat when Leicht intercepted another Gray pass on the five.

Still unwhipped, the Beavers started from the Oregon 47 after the punt by Van Brocklin and got down to the 16 before Dick Twenge, trying for two yards on a fourth down, failed to gain. Both Garza and DeWayne Johnson made the tackle on Dick and it might well have been the key tackle of the day.

Oregon then took over and it was the jackrabbitish Leicht who started the Ducks toward their final touchdown. He merely nabbed a Beaver punt on the Oregon 37 and scooted it back 24 yards to the Beaver 39. Four plays took the Ducks to the 24 and there Van Brocklin pitched and End Darrel Robinson caught, in the Orange end zone. Campbell had Robinson well covered at the goal line but just as he went up to bat down the pass he slipped and fell. Robinson then had only to catch the toss, which he did with pleasure. Leicht again kicked true and with only 5:04 left it was apparent that the best team on the field today was to win.

The Ducks had much the better of the going statistically, but such doesn't mean much when these two rivals get together. In winning, the Ducks galloped

Padres Sign Negro Player

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Nov. 22 — (AP) — Johnny Ritchey, 23-year-old development of San Diego high school and state college, today became the first negro to fix his signature to a Pacific Coast league contract when he signed with the San Diego Padres as a catcher, breaking down another barrier between the Negro and organized baseball.

Ritchey, 171-pound youngest son of a well-known San Diego athletic family, told newsmen he was "happy at this opportunity."

Starr disclosed the Padres had scouted Ritchey during the 1947 season when Ritchey was a 369 hitter with the Chicago Giants of the American Negro League.

NEGRO PLAYER HONORED

SEWANE, Tenn., Nov. 22 — (AP) The University of the South and its alumni today honored Willie Six, an ailing negro who tended its athletes for 39 years. Willie was given a $2,500 purse, a plaque and more than 100 congratulatory letters at half-time ceremonies of the homecoming game today with Hampden-Sydney of Virginia.

their streak to six straight and finished up the season tied with California for second place in the Coast conference. . . . The last time a Webfoot team beat OSC was in 1940 by a 20-0 count, and before then it was in 1935, by 13-0. . . . The wagering zanies took a beating on this one, for most were yielding 12 and 13 to OSC faithful. . . . Beaver chances not too good in the first place with so many players banged up with wounds, were considerably worse early in the game when Don Samuel, their No. 1 back had to leave with a severe shoulder hurt. . . . an airplane showered the stadium with orange-colored "beat Oregon" pamphlets just as the combined bands were rendering the National Anthem, and for awhile it looked as if that would be just what would happen. . . . It was a great day for the Oregon rooters, too. They failed to tear down the Beaver goal post — Heaven knows they tried — but they did manage to undress a few unfortunate OSC rooters.

six more tallies in the dying seconds of the half as he took a hand-off and raced 42 yards around the left flank in what was the longest scamper of the evening. Rader's boot was again blocked and it was 25-0 at the intermission gun.

The Willamettes predominated just as greatly in the second leg of the tussle. They racked up touchdown No. 5 two minutes into the third period when the fleet Lorenz intercepted a Missionary aerial on the enemy 24 and romped across. Blocked again was Rader's attempted conversion. The fourth canto saw the conference champs pocket another when the red-hot Burleigh once more faded from the Whitman 29, fixed his sights and shot one true to Lorenz in the end zone. That touchdown had been set up after a 24-yard loss from the same Burleigh to Dean Nice. Slanchik kicked the point.

The deluge of points ended late in the fourth when Keith Sperry intercepted a pass and reached the Whit eight. From there Halback Johnny Slanchik plunged through center for the score and Dick Fitchall converted.

The Lillies amassed 359 yards from rushing and passes, though strangely enough, they accumulated but five first downs. The visitors got but 63 yards on the ground and in the air. . . . Willamette's five graduating seniors — Tackle Bob Donovan, End Bill Rader, Fullback Al Wickert and Tackle Hank Ecolini and Quarter Earl Hampton were feted with floral horseshoes by Phi Delta Theta fraternity at appropriate ceremonies. . . .

remains to be voted by the conference Monday, but off today's clincher the vote is merely a formality.

Today's battle was an action-filled contest from start to finish — and some of the lads on the field carried the battle on with fists after it officially finished. But no damage was done and the melee was quickly broken up.

Troy, apparently hoping to play things safe and hold back for their traditional game with Notre Dame, soon found out the thrice-wounded Bruins were fired for combat today. The Troys running game was virtually bottled up by an heroic Bruin line, but a couple of sharp passers — George Murphy and his sophomore understudy Jim (Mystic) Powers, spelled the difference — and won the game.

The giant Trojan line, drawing praise from Notre Dame Coach Frank Leahy who was scouting the game, kept the rival array of backs in hand until the closing minutes of the game. UCLA didn't get past the Southern Cal 40 until the fourth quarter.

Albany to Get Playoff Game

PORTLAND, Nov. 22 — (AP) Jefferson of Portland and Albany drew an extra edge today toward their bids for the state prep gridiron title, as their home fields were selected for semi-final games. The Oregon High School Activities association chose the setting today for the semi-final classics. Jefferson will play Hillsboro at Multnomah stadium here. Albany will host The Dalles. The kick-off in both contests will come at 3 p. m. next Friday, November 28.

'Bama in Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22 — (AP) — Alabama's Crimson Tide, which marched to a 41-12 win over the Tigers of Louisiana State university today, will be the host team in the Sugar Bowl here on Jan. 1. The midwinter sports association, in announcing the selection of Alabama, said the tide had accepted the invitation. An opponent will be selected Nov. 29. The Tide will be making its second appearance in the Sugar Bowl in the last four years. On Jan. 1, 1945, Alabama bowed to Duke university 23 to 26. Alabama's whirlwind finish included the following wins: 26 to 0 over Duquesne; 10 to 0 over Tennessee; 17 to 7 over Georgia; 13 to 0 over Kentucky; 14 to 7 over Georgia Tech, and 41 to 12 over Louisiana State.
