

SECTION WOMEN'S

A pre-holiday gathering at the Wallace P. Carson home on Leslie street includes Mrs. Carson and her son, Wallace, jr., who are standing on the stairway. At the left is her sister, Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan and at the right her mother, Mrs. E. E. Broga. The McLellans have two children, Sally, who is in Germany with the Red Cross and Daniel McLellan, jr., who lives in Madras. (Kennell-Ellis).

Three generations gather at the North Winter street residence of Mrs. Frank G. Myers. Mrs. Myers is pictured with her daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Claggett, and grandchildren, Patricia, who is eight, and Carolyn, who is eight months old. (Kennell-Ellis).

A threesome at the Joseph M. Devers, jr. home on C street is Mrs. Harry J. Weidmer, who holds her eight months old granddaughter, Paula, and at the right her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Devers. (Kennell-Ellis).

THE FAMILY ALBUM...

By Jeryme English
Statesman-Society Editor

Three generations, and even four, are not uncommon among those gathering for the great family holiday, Thanksgiving. Here we've pictured several three generation families who will be together for the holiday.

The approaching holiday season means many visitors will arrive to be with their families. Mrs. Guy E. Raymond is arriving tonight from her home in Winona, Minn., for an extended visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine. Mr. Raymond will join his wife and family here for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lasater of Walla Walla are arriving in Salem Tuesday to spend the holiday and remainder of the week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Coburn L. Grabenhorst. On Thanksgiving day the two families will join the George Grabenhorst family for a family dinner.

Richard Page is arriving home Wednesday night from his studies at Leland Stanford to spend the holiday week with his parents, Judge and Mrs. E. M. Page. On Saturday Mr. Page and his parents will motor to Eugene for the wedding of Miss Joyce McCracken and Samuel Huston, at which Mr. Page will be an usher. He will return south Sunday.

Ted Baum, a sophomore at Stanford, is also coming home from Palo Alto to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. Weiss Baum.

Virginia Case Sets the Date...

A New Year's day bride will be Miss Virginia Case, who will marry Brady Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher of Salem. The blonde bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Case of Salem. Although the couple have been a steady duo for two years no engagement announcement preceded the news of their approaching marriage.

The ceremony will be quietly solemnized before members of the two families at the Knight Memorial Congregational church at 8 o'clock with a reception following in the fireplace room.

Miss Case and her fiance graduated from Salem high school. She is also a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Delta Gamma. She was a princess in the 1946 May court at Willamette. Miss Case is an active member of the Spinners. Mr. Gallagher attended Willamette university and is now studying at the University of Oregon. His fraternity is Beta Theta Pi. During the war he served in the army for four years. Mr. Gallagher will take his bride to Eugene to live while he is completing his education.

Parties Fete Brides-Elect...

The Thanksgiving week has been chosen by many girls for their weddings. A round of pre-nuptial parties are also being planned in their honor.

Miss Joan Lochead, whose marriage to Hubert Williamson, will be an event of November 29 at St. Paul's Episcopal church, will be honored Wednesday night when Mrs. James M. Clark entertains at her Saginaw street home. A dessert supper will be served by the hostess with a bathroom shower in honor of the bride-to-be following.

Bidden to honor Miss Lochead are Mesdames John S. Lochead, Paul Williamson of Long Beach, Calif., Claude Cooke of Bend, H. T. Eastridge, Orville Eastridge, Edward Salstrom, Jack Buhler of Corvallis, Misses Donna Lochead, Nancy Montgomery, Barbara Crawford, Margaret Newton, Betty Jean Manoles, Patsy Nickens, Patricia Brock, Paulie Wallace, Dolores Clement, Gloria and Barbara McClintock, Suzanne Small, Jane Carson and Harriet Huston.

A Breakfast for Coeds

Miss Jane Walsh has bidden a group of the college set to a ten o'clock breakfast Friday morning at the Jefferson street home of her mother, Mrs. Raymond Walsh, for the pleasure of Miss Lochead. Covers will be placed for the Miss Lochead, Mrs. John S. Lochead, Misses Helen Shepard, Jean Swift, Charlotte Alexander, Jane Carson, Donna Lochead, Betty Manoles, Mariann Croisan, Margie Cooley and the hostess.

Rehearsal Parties

Several rehearsal parties are scheduled for this week. Dr. and Mrs. James L. Sears will entertain informally Tuesday night at their North Winter street home for their daughter, Miss Patricia Sears, and her fiance, James Shaw, jr., following their wedding rehearsal at the First Presbyterian church. Members of the bridal party have been bidden to the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdig Hall will be hosts for a dessert supper at their home Wednesday night in honor of their daughter, Miss Shirley Hall, bride-elect of Robert C. Warren. The couple's marriage will take place Thanksgiving afternoon at the First Congregational church and the party will precede the rehearsal.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Kelney will be hosts at an informal party Thursday night at their Market street home for their daughter, Miss Dorothy Kenney, and Donald Johnson, who will be married Friday at the First Methodist church. Members of the bridal party and the two families have been bidden to the party, which will follow the rehearsal.

In the living room the Fairmount Hill home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard C. Marshall are Mrs. Walter T. Stoltz, left, with her daughter, Mrs. Marshall, and two granddaughters, Julia, a first grader at McKinley, and Martha, a sophomore at Salem high school. (Kennell-Ellis).

Dance Time...

A gala event for members of the junior high school set will be the informal dancing party for which Virginia Eyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eyre will be hostess Tuesday night. The Thanksgiving party will be held at the Mayflower hall from 8 to 11 o'clock with 60 guests bidden.

The hall will be festive with arrangements of corn stalks, pumpkins, crepe paper streamers and autumn leaves and flowers. Assisting at the refreshment table will be Jean Spaulding and Elizabeth Shafer. Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shafer and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding.

Bidden are the Misses Roberta Boyer, Janice Sellar, Gail Lochead, Kay Perrin, Pat Ruth, Jackie Baldwin, Othelene Lee, Carolyn Deckerbach, Marcia Webb, Jean Smith, Greta Ann Schreengost, Barbara Wagness, Jan Faulger, Sandra Nordyke, Marjorie Little, Beverly Kayser, Joan Neal, Joyce Casper, Doris Helen Spaulding, Joan Wenger, Valgene Garsnell, Barbara Withrow, Darlene Johnson, Donna Phelps, Clarice and Claudia Waters, Barbara Franzwa, Marcia Maple, Julia Miller, Patsy Snider, Otis Greve.

John and James Humphrey, Kelly Conover, Richard Davies, Donald White, Harland Brock, Steve Merchant, Michael Deeney, Joan Perry, David Blackmere, Harry Hendrickson, Wallace Carson, Sonny Walker, Bill Walker, Frank Panonpus, John and James Humphrey, vid Rhoten, Buz Coval, Jack Beakey, Elmer Burger, Jeff Walton, Bruce Burns, Linn Davies, Bob Mapes, Allan Graham, Tracy Gilman, Jim Follston, Jack Cobb, Elmer Say, Laurie Walker, Bob Luther, Peter Loder.

Gertrude Mishler to Wed...

The engagement of Miss Gertrude Mishler, formerly of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mishler, to Stuart T. McAlister, of Washington, D. C., son of Mrs. Daisy B. McAlister of Parsons, Kans., was told at a dinner party Thursday night at the Golden Pheasant. The news was told on scrolls attached to rosebuds at the places. Small chrysanthemums in autumn shades were used as the decoration for the table.

Miss Mishler is here visiting her parents, and will return to Washington D. C., where she is employed, after Thanksgiving. She is administrative assistant to the director of maintenance and engineering of the Capital Airlines in Washington, D. C. She is a graduate of Albany schools and attended Oregon State college.

Mr. McAlister is director of properties with the same company. He is a graduate in law of the Washburn college in Kansas.

The wedding will be sometime after the first of the year. Attending the party were Mrs. William Saunders, Mrs. C. B. Stanley, Mrs. Clyde Curdy, Mrs. Emma Vesper, Mrs. Thomas Kenagy, Mrs. Edward Hansen, Mrs. John Herrick, Mrs. Bertha Ganong, Miss Alene Phillips, Salem, Mrs. Max Rohabaugh, Mrs. J. G. Buchanan, Miss Norma Buchanan, Mrs. Don Peebler, Mrs. Thomas Buchanan, all of Albany, Mrs. Mike Trapman and Mrs. Carl Horten, Portland, Mrs. Bill Bryant and Mrs. O. Hammond, Corvallis.

A frequent foursome at the Dean Ellis home on Leffell's street includes Mrs. Hal Wiley, who has recently moved back to Salem from Jefferson, her two grandchildren, John, who is two, and Diane, who was six Saturday, and her daughter, Mrs. Dean Ellis. (Kennell-Ellis).

Bridal Party Selected...

December brides-elect are now revealing plans for their weddings. Miss Bettie Burks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burks, will be married on December 4 to Lon J. Spady, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Spady of Dallas. The rites will be solemnized at the First Evangelical United Brethren church. The Rev. Wilmer Brown, assisted by the Rev. Elmer of Dallas will officiate at the 8 o'clock ceremony.

Miss Helen Tims of Portland will sing and William Fawk will be the organist. Candle lighters will be Miss Claudine Barkhuff and Mrs. Earl Gum.

Mrs. William E. Burks, jr. of Portland, will be the honor matron for her sister-in-law. Bridesmaids will be Misses Betty Sedar, and Patricia Tiller, Jacqueline Wren and Marilyn Bauman of Portland. Shirley Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stokes, will be flower girl.

Melvin Spady of Dallas will be his brother's best man and ushers include William E. Burks, jr., Portland, Jesse Payne, Dallas, Elmer Able and Robert Price. A reception will follow in the church parlors.