

Miss Shirley Hall Bride Of Robert Warren on Thanksgiving Day

Fuchsia and white were the colors Miss Shirley Hall selected for her marriage Thanksgiving afternoon when she became the bride of Robert C. Warren. The young couple exchanged their vows at the First Congregational church with the Rev. Seth Huntington officiating at the 5 o'clock nuptials. The brunette bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdig Hall and was given in marriage by her father. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Warren.

The altar was banked with arrangements of fuchsia and white chrysanthemums flanked by white tapers. Lighting the candles were Wayne Hall, brother of the bride, and George Hersmann, jr. Clifford Wurm sang "Because" and "At Dawning." Mrs. Lewis Mitchell was the organist.

Of ivory satin was the bridal gown designed with a fitted bodice and nylon net yoke enhanced with a wide lace bertha ruffle. The sleeves were long and pointed and the full skirt ended in a court train. Tiny satin buttons extended down the back to the bustle. Her fingertip length tulle veil cascaded from a Mary Stuart head-dress of satin edged in lace. Her bridal bouquet was of gardenias and satin ribbon.

Preceding the bride to the altar were the Misses Josephine Haury, Nellie Holman, Marilyn Fiohrer and Luella Campbell as bridesmaids and Mrs. Roy Herr as matron of honor. The bridesmaids wore identical frocks of fuchsia taffeta fashioned with low, round necklines edged with wide bertha collars, puffed sleeves and bustles with full skirts. They wore matching heart shaped hats with white tulle trim and bows in back. The honor matron wore a white taffeta gown made with a bustle, full skirt, sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. Her white taffeta hat was trimmed with fuchsia bow and streamers. The girls all carried white muffs adorned with fuchsia roses and pom pom chrysanthemums.

Immediately preceding the bride walked little Barbara Lee Duke of Sacramento niece of the groom, as flower girl. She wore a white ruffled taffeta dress with bustle and carried a basket of fuchsia and white chrysanthemums. John Boomer was the ring bearer.

Attend the Groom
James Edgar of Portland stood with the groom as best man and showing the guests to their seats were James Wenger, Bruce Hamilton and Gerald Comstock of Salem and Harry Edwards of Eugene.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Hall chose a two-piece black silk crepe ensemble with sequin trim, black accessories and off the face hat with gold metallic ornament. Mrs. Warren attended her son's wedding in a black dress with gold trim on the belt and black hat with veiling. Their corsages were of gardenias and Cecile Brunner roses.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fire-place room. Mrs. Alfred C. Welcome, jr., of Burns, twin sister of the bride's mother, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. George A. Noack. Mrs. R. A. Fraser of Albany, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Everett Trent of Dallas poured. At the punch bowl were Mrs. William Porath of Portland, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Duke of Sacramento, sister of the groom. Members of the bridal party assisted in serving. Mrs. Effie Lorenz and Mrs. R. A. Fraser, jr., of Corvallis were in charge of the gifts. Rilma Jean Morris passed the dream cakes.

When the couple left on their honeymoon the bride donned a kelly green suit with brown accessories and hat with cocoa brown feather. Pinned to the shoulder of her suit was a gardenia corsage. Mr. Warren and his bride will be at home in Salem at 1163 South Liberty street.

Mrs. Walter V. Stark (Ramona Badard) who was married on October 26 at the Jason Lee church with a reception following at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stark. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sterling. The couple will live in Salem. (Kennell-Ellis).
