Stewarts to Give Swedish Party

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stewart are to be hosts on Friday night at a Scandinavian party, serving lute-fish and other Swedish dishes at dinner. Invited are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Severin, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Foss, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wing.

Nuptials Are Performed

At an impressive double ring ceremony held in the First Methodist church at 3 p.m. November 29 Miss Ellen Garner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Garner of Woodburn, became the bride of Vincent Brus, Salem. The Rev. Brooks Moore performed the rites.

The alter was banked with white chrysanthemums. Lighting the tapers were Barbara Jean Russ and Shirley Rockefeller who wore white and blue sheer formal. Miss Billie Oliver sang, accompanied by Dick Louthan.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was of white taffeta designed with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and low waistline from which was gathered the full skirt. The sweetheart neckline was enhanced with a single strand of pearls. Her fingertip veil fell from a pleated coronet encircled by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink roses centered with lavender orchids.

Miss Margaret Garner was her sister's only bridesmaid. She wore a short sleeved pink taffeta dress matching that of the bride's. Her nosegay was of bouvardia centered with pink carnations. The ring bearer was Jimmy Haynes. Robert Garner of Portland, brother of the bride, was the groom's best man and the ushers were Richard Lalli, Beaverton, Victor Brugia, Hillsboro, and Brad Miller, Gervais.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Garner chose a black silk suit trimmed in aqua with black sequins. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the Carrier room. Mrs. J. L. Lalli, Mrs. J. Brugia and Miss Helen Rinando, aunts of the bride, cut the cake and poured. Serving were Florence Cross, Mary Lou Haynes and Blanch Munson. Mary Turner and Florence Becker were in charge of gifts and Cleone Kaplinger passed the guest book and dream cakes.

After a short trip down the California coast, Mr. and Mrs. Brus will be at home at 600 Union, Salem. For traveling, the bride wore a black suit with white accessories over which she wore a fur coat.

Coming from Oregon City to spend the weekend in Salem will be Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Curry, who will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Ellis. On Sunday the two couples will motor to Eugene to visit with another former Salem couple, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt.

Three Injured In Collision Near Lebanon

LEBANON—Jim Greer, 36, Mrs. Lucille Cogdill, both of Sweet Home, and Mrs. A. B. Nothiger, 40, of Foster were treated for injuries received Sunday when cars driven by Greer and Nothiger collided head on on the Cascadia bridge.

Nothiger's car was being towed by a truck driven by Tom Hufford when the low line snapped. The Nothiger car careened into the other traffic lane and collided with the Greer car.

Greer had four upper front teeth knocked out and in addition suffered head and face injuries. He was the most seriously injured of the group.

The accident victims were brought to Lebanon for medical care by Robert Dargatz, Oregon State college student who was returning to college after the vacation.
