

Miss Bettie Burks a Bride

Before a setting of pink and white chrysanthemums and woodwardia fern at the First Evangelical United Brethren church Thursday night, Miss Bettie Sue Burks and Lon J. Spady exchanged their marriage vows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burk and was given in marriage by her father. The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Spady of Dallas.

At 8 o'clock the Rev. Wilmer Brown, assisted by the Rev. Elmer of Dallas, performed the ceremony. Miss Helen Tins of Portland was the soloist and William Fawk was the organist. Lighting the tapers before the bridal party entered were Miss Claudine Barkhuff and Mrs. Earl Gum, who wore aqua and rose taffeta dresses fashioned with bustles. They wore matching mitts and flower head-dresses.

Of white slipper satin was the bridal gown which was enhanced with Carrick Marcross heirloom lace, which had been imported from Ireland. The lace adorned the yoke on the fitted bodice and formed a panel in front on the full skirt, which ended in a train. The long sleeves were made with a medallion lace insertion. The sweetheart neckline was outlined in seed pearls and satin buttons extended from the neckline to the bustle in back. Her train length tulle veil was bordered in lace and fell from a Mary Stuart head-dress of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and bouvardia centered with a white orchid.

The bridesmaids all wore identical frocks of taffeta fashioned with drop shoulderlines edged with berthas, full skirts and bustles. Their Mary Stuart hats with streamers were of taffeta to match their dresses and they wore long mitts. The girls carried fan shaped bouquets of white chrysanthemums centered with clusters of roses and bouvardia. Mrs. William E. Burks, Jr., of Portland, the honor matron for her sister-in-law, wore mist pink taffeta, and bridesmaids were Miss Betty Sedar and Miss Jacqueline Wren, who wore deep aqua taffeta, and Miss Patricia Tiller and Miss Marilyn Bauman of Portland, whose frocks were of dusty rose. Shirley Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stokes, was flower girl and wore a deep blue taffeta dress fashioned similar to the bridesmaids. She wore a matching bonnet and mitts.

Greet Guests at Reception
Melvin Spady of Dallas was his brother's best man and ushers were William E. Burks, Jr., of Portland, Jesse Payne, Dallas, Elmer Able, Robert Price and Wendell Currie.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Burks chose a wine crepe gown trimmed with matching beading, black hat with feather trim and black accessories. Mrs. Spady attended her son's marriage in a two piece black ensemble with black and gray hat and accessories. Their corsages were of orchids.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors. Mrs. Ida Wren of Portland cut the cake and Mrs. Edwin Miner presided at the coffee urn. At the punch bowl were Miss Doris Soderquist and Miss Hilda Maurer, Miss Eloise Bowman and Mrs. Wallace Pfeifer were in charge of the gifts and Mrs. Earl Groh passed the guest book. Assisting were Misses Joan Gore, Alyce Allison and Shirley Re-millard.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride donned a Kelly green silk crepe gown with draped skirt, brown accessories, brown hat with green feather trim and a Russian pony coat. Mr. Spady and his bride will live in Salem at 818 N. Liberty st.

Miss Titus Weds At Home Rites

TURNER—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus, "Firlands," was the setting for the marriage of their daughter Miss Eleanor Alice Titus to Joseph Lewis Harter, son of Mrs. Cora Harter, Friday, November 21. The 8 o'clock ceremony was performed by Rev. Freedman Yardley before members of the family.

For her wedding the bride chose a white satin gown with net skirt and finger tip veil. She carried a white Bible marked with gardenias and white satin streamers with pink roses. For something old she wore a pin of her grandmother that had been given to her as an engagement present sixty-one years ago. Her father gave her in marriage.

The matron of honor was Mrs. George Ray, sister of the groom, who wore a blue silk gown. Her corsage was pink roses and carnations. Glenn Titus, brother of the bride was best man.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. France Fry, cousin of the bride, lighted the tapers and Miss Eileen Rakowsky sang, accompanied by Mrs. Verna Harmon.

Mrs. Raymond Titus wore a silk flowered dress for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Cora Harter wore a brown crepe dress. Each wore a corsage of pink carnations. A reception followed with the groom's mother serving the cake, Mrs. Glenn Titus poured and Mrs.

Miss Janell Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson of Silver-ton, whose engagement to Daryl Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson of Salem, has been revealed. Both are employed in Salem. No wedding date has been set. (Jesten-Miller).

Miss Rena Skaggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Skaggs, whose engagement to Robert R. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Yakima, has been revealed. The wedding is planned for next summer. Miss Skaggs and her fiance are juniors at Oregon State college. (Hise studio, Corvallis).

John Ahlman cut the ices. Mrs. Glenn Titus was in charge of the gifts and Mrs. Richard Mitchell passed the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a navy blue suit with black and red accessories. Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Cloverdale.

Mrs. David Cameron and Mrs. Estill Brunk were in Portland on Wednesday to attend the monthly meeting of Nydia Temple, Daughters of the Nile.

Mrs. Custer Ross will entertain members of her club at a dessert supper and afternoon of contract bridge today at her home on Cross street.
