

Monmouth — Mrs. R. E. Emerson spent the holiday with her nephew, Morris Powell at Newport, going later to Seal Rock for a visit with Mrs. Veronica Daniel.

Slavenska to Dance Here

Mia Slavenska and her troupe of ten dancers will appear as the second program for the winter season for member of the Salem community concert association on Friday, December 12. The entertainment will be at Salem high school auditorium.

"Ballet Variants" will present the beautiful dance star of the motion picture "Ballerina" in her most famous dance roles and several new creations.

Mme. Slavenska was born in Croatia and came to America as the prima ballerina with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. She is known as a choreographer as well as a dancer, and has staged many of the numbers to be given here. Included among Mme. Slavenska's company are George Zoritch, Joey Harris, Lois Elynn, Maria Farra, Claire Field, Ann Barney, Nicky Nadeau and George Ellsworth.

Mme. Slavenska is now the wife of Dr. Kurt Neumann and the mother of a young daughter. She has become an American citizen within the past few years.

Regular meeting of Chadwick Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls will be held Tuesday night at the Masonic temple. The degrees of the order will be conferred and plans made for the Christmas party.

The Music group of American Association of University Women will meet Friday at 1:30 to hear Mozart's symphony No. 40 in G minor from records and a talk on Mia Slavenska, beautiful ballerina who will be in Salem Friday with her own dance troupe "Dance Variants." Members of the Salem Community Concert association will view the program at Salem high school auditorium.
