

Willamette Valley Entries Win In Turkey Show at McMinnville

By Lillie L. Madison
Farm Editor, The Statesman
McMINNVILLE, Dec. 6—Willamette valley turkey folk placed well in the sixth annual Pacific Coast Turkey show finished here Friday night. Gath Bros., Turner, took the grand championship in live birds at the exhibit on a 46½-pound adult bronze tom.

Besides winning the championship, Gath Bros. made almost a clean sweep of firsts in the bronze exhibitions. Included were tops in light young toms and light and heavy young hens.

Grand champion dressed bird was exhibited by Loren Johnson of Scappoose. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Schneider, Newberg, held reserve dressed hen, while M. M. Lyons, Portland, exhibited reserve light bird.

Gov. Hall Speaker
Governor John H. Hall was speaker at Friday night's dinner, calling attention to Oregon's leading place nationally in the turkey industry.

Art Kirkham, KOIN, was master of ceremonies. Introduced were E. L. Peterson, state director of agriculture and Earl Newbery, secretary of state.

Special entertainment during the two-day show included afternoon and evening shows by Linfield college and McMinnville high school. Red Dunning and his gang of radio performers, and a daily demonstration in cutting, preparing, cooking and serving turkey by Oregon State college home extension personnel.

Turkey and coffee were served free to the public during the show.

Judging Results
Small type Beltville white—McDowell Turkey farm, Sherwood; adult hen, Harold Schroeder, Melkmoek, N.D.; young tom, adult tom, both to McDowell Turkey farm.

Prize to exhibitor from the greatest distance, Harold Schroeder, Melkmoek, N.D., for an assortment of dressed Beltville whites.

White Hollands—Ivan Elam, Aumsville, all firsts.
Bronze—Gath Bros., Turner, first in light young toms, light and heavy young hens.

Dressed birds, bronze—Light young hen, Gath Bros.; heavy young hen, Wheeler-Pearson, McMinnville; adult hen, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Schneider, Newberg; light young tom, Wheeler-Pearson; heavy young tom, Loren A. Johnson, Scappoose; adult tom, Wheeler-Pearson.

Dressed, other breeds—Young hen, McDowell Turkey farm, Sherwood; adult hen, Harold Schroeder, Melkmoek, N.D.; young tom, adult tom, both to McDowell Turkey farm.

Prize to exhibitor from the greatest distance, Harold Schroeder, Melkmoek, N.D., for an assortment of dressed Beltville whites.

Ban on Exports To Reds Urged

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6—(AP)—An outright embargo on all exports from the United States to Russia was proposed today by Rep. Welch (R-Ohio) as "a last resort if necessary to stop supplying a potential enemy."

Welch is chairman of the house merchant marine committee now investigating soviet use of American-built ships.

"While the president now has the power, under export control laws, to curb the sending of supplies to Russia, he does not seem to be over anxious to use it," Welch told a reporter.

Information obtained by the committee, Welch said, shows that exports of such supplies as farm equipment and industrial machinery continue to leave this country for Russia in large numbers.

Death Claims Mrs. Jess, 80

Mrs. Louise Jess, 2420 Lee st., died in a local hospital Saturday following a short illness at the age of 80 years.

She was born in Germany Oct. 20, 1867, and had lived in the Salem area for the past 30 years. She was a member of the German Lutheran church.

Surviving is a cousin, John Bauer of Oregon City and other relatives living in North Dakota and Canada. Announcement of services will be made later by the W. T. Rigdon company.

Tug Cleared of Wreck Blame

PORTLAND, Dec. 6—(AP)—The Portland Tug & Barge Co. was cleared of blame today for the wrecking of two barges at the mouth of the Columbia river last January.

Federal Judge Claude McCulloch said accidental fouling of a towing line caused the barges, laden with lumber for Hawaii, to go ashore.

Tug Captain Louis A. Horne also was absolved of blame. McCulloch said Horne, a graduate of Chemawa Indian school, had been a "main target" of attorneys who contended he was not competent by training or experience.

The judge in clearing Horne cited a Shanghai newspaper clipping, introduced as evidence, which called a previous trans-Pacific barge haul in which Horne took part "one of the greatest feats in maritime history."

Grain Market Results Split

CHICAGO, Dec. 6—(AP)—A two-way market developed on the board of trade today, wheat making small gains while corn suffered small losses. Oats compromised with some contracts ending higher and others ending lower.

Prices started higher as some buying was attracted into the pits by yesterday's sharp break. Around mid-way in the short session fairly heavy selling developed through commission houses, with an eastern house liquidating corn. Prices then rallied prior to the close.

Wheat finished ¼ to 2 cents higher, December $3.01¼ - 3.02, corn was ½-2½ lower, December $2.52, oats were 1¼ lower to ¾ higher, December $1.22, and soybeans were 2 to 3 cents lower, March $3.80.

During the mid-session selling wave three dollar wheat disappeared from the boards when the December contract dropped to $2.99. At that point it was down 21¼ cents from the high made late last week.

Initiation Rites Slated Today By Local Lodge

Annual initiation ceremonies of the Salem council, Knights of Columbus, will take place today in an all-day program at St. Joseph's hall.

Approximately 40 candidates will be initiated into knighthood, the majority of them from the Salem council and others from councils in Corvallis, McMinnville, Oregon City, Portland and Astoria.

The day's activities will begin when candidates and member knights meet at the 8 o'clock mass at St. Joseph's Catholic church. Both groups will be served breakfast in St. Joseph's grade school cafeteria.

Initiation ceremonies will start at 12:30 and will be followed by a buffet lunch in the council's Commercial street clubrooms for knights and their ladies. Al Kramer, grand knight of the local council, has general direction of the program assisted by Don Tunge, council activities chairman.

Forger Given 2 Years in Pen

Edward B. Rouslang, Gary, Ind., pleaded guilty in Marion county circuit court Saturday to a charge of forgery and was sentenced by Judge E. M. Page to two years in Oregon state prison.

Application for parole by LeRoy James Sauer, 1311 N. 4th st., now serving a six-months county jail sentence on a charge of issuing a check with insufficient funds, was continued by Judge Page. Because Sauer stated that he was ill, Page held off a parole decision until the prisoner could be examined by a physician.

Rouslang was arrested here November 6 and Sauer was sentenced October 21, both charged with passing false checks to local merchants.

Recoveries in Stock Market

NEW YORK, Dec. 6—(AP)—The stock market today stepped out of another depressing week with mild recoveries appearing here and there although many leaders continued their decline.

Timid buying cropped up in the final session on the idea Friday's sharpest break since last May had been overcome.

Throughout the week year-end tax selling was an important handicap. Bearishness regarding possible deflation steps which may be taken by Washington, in addition to disturbing situations in France, Italy and the Palestine.

Roger Fenton, the first war photographer, made his own wet plates in the field, usually with whites of eggs as fixatives.

Leslie School To Present Three-Act Play

"Galahad Jones," a three-act play by Boyce Loving, will be presented by the students of Leslie junior high school, under the direction of Eleanor Roberts, Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Leslie auditorium.

The lead part of Galahad, the boy who becomes so saturated with chivalry after reading some King Arthur tales that he imagines himself a modern-day knight, is played by Wallace Carson, Jr.

Other prominent parts are played by Norma Hamilton, who is Miriam, Galahad's fair lady; John Baisden, who is Olaf, the gangster truck driver; Pat McGuire, the maid; Bruce Goldblatt and Marilyn Foxley, Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

Other parts are taken by Norman Lee, Dorothy Swigart, Lynn Davis, Patricia Deeney, Michael Deaney, Jean Brown, Barbara Blake and John Templeton.

The dress rehearsal for the play will be presented for students on Tuesday afternoon. The play is the fifth major production to be offered by Leslie students in as many years, following such well-received plays as "Mr. Justice Jimmy," "The Saturday Evening Ghost," "What a Life" and "Hokey for Youth."
