Sugar Saver
Fruit Cake Statistics Told, Recipe Corrected, Shortbread Rule Given

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

We never know what fate has in store for us, this time it stored the 2 cups sugar which should have been included in the recipe for fruit cake Friday morning, and which didn't get into the story published in the Statesman. Anyway, you may add two cups sugar to the recipe for "Rich Fruit Cake."

Incidentally, we made it on Thursday night. Having forgotten during the war years details of how much the recipe makes we kept books and now have a few statistics to offer.

The recipe made three good sized loaf cakes, weighing slightly over 2 1/2 pounds uncooked, and under two pounds when cooked. Forgetting to buy the grape-juice, and stubbornly refusing to wait another night to mix up the cake, we used peach and apricot juice, which of course gives just as good flavor but produces a cake lighter in color. This reminds us that in the old days, when we made a second batch, we used to replace all the dark fruits with light raisins and other light colored fruits, and used less spices and a light colored fruit juice, which produced a very attractive light cake.

Our fruit cake this year cost us a little under 50 cents per pound, allowing ample cost for materials. We substituted vegetable shortening for the butter because we couldn't see that dearer-than-gold butter flavor would be missed with all the rich fruit flavors. This is

Rites Read At Couple's New Home

Miss Edna Schofield, daughter of Mrs. Beatrice M. Schofield, became the bride of Earl K. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt O. Morgan, at a quiet double ring ceremony Friday night at the newly completed home of the couple on East Madrona avenue. The Rev. Orville Jenkins of the First Church of the Nazarene officiated at the 6:30 o'clock nuptials before a large corner window in the living room. Baskets of white and orchid chrysanthemums banked the window on either side. Stanley Schofield gave his sister in marriage. For her wedding she wore a blue-grey dressmaker suit. The jacket was fashioned with a single pleated peplum in back and crescent shape flap pockets. She wore a fuchsia blouse and brown accessories. Pinned to her suit was an orchid corsage.

Miss Betty Schofield was her sister's only attendant and wore a pearl grey suit with corsage of gardenias and pink carnations. Kenneth Satrom stood with the groom as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Schofield wore a light blue dress with black sequin trim and black accessories. Mrs. Morgan attended her son's marriage in a navy blue crepe gown with black accessories. Their corsages were gardenias and pink carnations.

A reception was held between 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock to which additional guests were bidden. Mrs. Charles Winter, sister of the bride, came north from Los Angeles for the rites and cut the cake. At the punch bowl were Miss Helen Jean Gilbert, Mrs. Clarence Cox and Miss Sarah Craven. Mrs. Lawrence Hereford passed the guest book and at the gift table were Mrs. Wesley Wilson and Mrs. Orland Cox. Mingling with the guests were Murray and Donald Schofield, brothers of the bride. The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon in Washington and on their return will be at home at their new residence.

A Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Douglas Chambers will be a party hostess Monday night when she entertains a group of matrons at her Court street home. A dessert supper at 8 o'clock will be followed by an evening of contract bridge. Holiday decorations will be used about the rooms.

Mrs. Shephard New Chairman

Camp Fire leaders and guardians met Wednesday at the First Presbyterian church for a covered dish luncheon. New officers elected include Mrs. Lyle Shephard, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Steele, vice-chairman; Mrs. Dayl Burres, secretary; and Mrs. P. C. Anderson, treasurer.

The outgoing officers are Mrs. George Hewitt, chairman; Mrs. Shubard, vice-chairman; Mrs. Paul Holloway, secretary; and Mrs. L. W. Megguier, treasurer.

The Camp Fire Christmas radio program will be over KOCO on December 20 at 1:30 p.m. The meeting was concluded with a Christmas council fire conducted by Mrs. George Bagnall and Miss Barton.

SCOTCH SHORTBREAD
1 pound butter
1/2 cup sugar
8 cups flour
Have butter at room temperature, add sugar, work in sugar with hands. This hand working seems necessary as the moisture warmth makes flour and butter combine more readily. Divide into quarters and pat to 1/4 inch thickness, cutting into fancy shapes. Bake at 300 degrees to dry out but not brown.

In case you are the sanitary type and refuse to put hands into butter, better make another type cookie.
