Brides-Elect Honored at Showers

Brides-elect are sharing in much of the pre-Christmas entertaining, as many have chosen the holidays for their weddings.

A Surprise Shower
Miss Virginia Riessbeck, who becomes the bride of Ned Burris on December 20, was feted at a surprise party Monday night when Mrs. W. G. Burris entertained at the Paul Burris home on North Summer street. A miscellaneous shower honored the bride-to-be. A dessert supper was served and the table was centered with an arrangement of blue and silver balls in a silver dish, blue tapers and holly.

Honoring Miss Riessbeck were Mesdames Anna Varnes, Everett Price, sr., S. G. Hinkle, jr., Lyman Sundin, jr., Maude Olson, Gerald Shelton, Ethel Sholund, Kay Simmons, Alvin Boyd, C. L. Kilgore, Paul Burris, Miss June Varnes, Miss Cleo Eaton and the hostess.

Parties for Miss Case
Miss Virginia Case, who will become the New Year's day bride of Brady Gallagher, will be honored at two parties this week. Tonight Miss Carolyn Brady will entertain with a dessert supper and kitchen shower at the country home of her parents, the Robert G. Bradys.

Bidden are Mesdames L. M. Case, Robert Gallagher, Robert Brady, T. W. Creech, Carlton J. McLeod, Louis Bonney, Misses Leah Case, Mary McKay, Barbara Bell, Donna Upjohn, Jean Taylor, Lorraine Taylor, Florence Duffy, Margaret Allen, Marianne Low, Margaret Belling and Rita Harr. Earlier in the evening Miss Mary Eyre will be hostess for an informal party at her home for Miss Case, with members of the board of the Knight Memorial Sunday school as guests. Miss Case is a member of the board. A dessert supper will be served with Mrs. Raymond Andrews assisting her sister. The group will make towels for the bride-elect.

Honor Paula Smith
Miss Paula Smith, who will be married the day after Christmas to Robert Sullivan, was honored at a bridal shower when Miss Lucille Albus entertained at her Stayton home.

Honoring Miss Smith were Mesdames Seward Sims, Frank Welton, George Butler, Elmer Fehlen, Jack Sadler, Richard O'Connor, Karl Kreitzer, Joseph Spaniol, Lawrence Smith, J. H. McDaniel, Fred Albus, Inez Keester, Zeda Lisle, Irene Rock, A. N. Arnold and Misses Clara Spaniol, Mary Ann Peabody, Kay Smith, Pat Woods, Tillie Spaniol, Angeline Lambrecht, Josephine Brand and Lucille Albus.

The Women's Missionary meeting of the South Salem Friends church was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Nora Pemberton, 1455 S. Commercial, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Arvilla Mickelson, president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Missionary Union, came from Portland to speak at this meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. Chester A. Downs will be in Portland Thursday night as dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Coffey, former Salem residents. The occasion will celebrate the birthdays of Dr. Coffey and Mrs. Downs.

Holiday Theme At Meeting

A Christmas atmosphere prevailed over the meeting of the Salem Woman's club Saturday afternoon. The club rooms were decorated with the traditional holly and red candles, and under the Christmas tree were many wrapped packages for the Children's Farm home and the Chemawa Indian school.

A group of Christmas songs were sung by Mrs. David Cameron, who was accompanied by Mrs. D. B. Kleihege.

Dr. Ivan Lovell of Willamette university spoke on the "Bill of Rights," which day is nationally commemorated on December 15. A brief history of the tuberculosis Christmas seal was given by Dale Van Cleave of Salem high school. Mrs. Clarence S. Bowes was elected to membership in the club.

A cash contribution was made to the "Christmas Ship" program and the club also voted to assist with the Richmond school lunch program for the balance of the school year.

The tea table which was arranged by Mrs. Harry V. Collins was covered with a green satin cloth centered with a silver bowl of tree ornaments and sprigs of evergreens and holly. Red vial lights were used around the bowl which was flanked with silver candelabras holding red tapers.

Mrs. David Cameron and Mrs. Frank Myers presided at the tea table. Others assisting Mrs. Collins were Mrs. Ralph Moody, Mrs. Oscar Cutler, Mrs. William Leary, Mrs. Claude M. Johns, Mrs. L. O. Clement and Mrs. Ernest Rostel.

Reeses Fete Faculty

Dean and Mrs. Seward P. Reese were hosts for a pre-holiday party Saturday night with members of the Willamette university law school faculty and their wives as guests.

Guests were bidden to dinner at the Lions Den, later returning to the Reese home on North Church street for a Christmas party and singing of carols.

Special guests were Allan Carson, president of the law school alumni, and Mrs. Carson. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jens, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth York, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lockenour, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Urlin S. Page, Quentin Johnstone, and William Winslow.

First Methodist church WSCS will hold its monthly meeting today in the Carrier Room at 1:15 o'clock. A business session and installation of officers by the Rev. Brooks Moore will be followed by the Christmas program at 2 o'clock. The theme will be "For Unto Us a Child is Born."

Mrs. A. A. Schramm will be in charge of the music and Mrs. Herbert Rahe the dramatics. A Christmas tea hour will close the meeting with circle 6 as hostess.

Mrs. Lester Carter will entertain her club at a Christmas party and gift exchange Thursday night at her Park avenue home. A late supper will follow an evening of cards.

Mrs. Daniel Schreiber has invited members of her club to her Independence home tonight for bridge to be followed by a late supper.

Date Set For December Nuptials

Invitations have been received in the capital to the marriage of Miss Betty Louise Sinkola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sinkola of Hoquiam, Wash., and Winsor P. Acton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Acton of Salem, which will be an event of Saturday, December 27.

The ceremony will take place at Trinity Episcopal church in Hoquiam at 8 o'clock with a reception following at the Sinkola home.

Mr. and Mrs. Acton, their daughters, Jane and Margaret, and Mrs. Acton's mother, Mrs. J. H. Phillips, will leave the day after Christmas for Hoquiam to attend the rites.

Mrs. Sinkola and her fiancé attended Willamette university and are members of Alpha Chi Omega and Kappa Gamma Rho respectively. The couple will live at State College, Pennsylvania, where he has a teaching fellowship in chemistry at Pennsylvania State college. Mr. Acton will arrive home from the east on December 23.

Rites Read At Church

The First Congregational church was the scene of a lovely winter wedding on Sunday, December 14 when Miss Eunice Massee, daughter of Mrs. Frank A. Massee, became the bride of Homer Davis of Gervais. The Rev. Seth Huntington officiated at the 3 o'clock nuptials. Mrs. T. C. Mason was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist.

For her wedding the bride chose an aqua afternoon dress enhanced with sequins and matching halo hat of net and sequins with shoulder length veil. She carried a white Bible marked with the sister's name.

Miss Mary Massee was her sister's only attendant and wore a pearl grey dress with gold nail-head trim, matching hat with fuchsia trim and corsage of roses. Sanford Davis stood with the groom as best man. Ushers were the bride's two brothers, Calvin and Truman Massee.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Harvey E. Tobie cut the cake and Miss Marjorie Smith presided at the punch bowl. Miss Elva Smith served the coffee.

The newlyweds have gone south on a motor trip to Arizona on their honeymoon. After January 5 they will be at home on a ranch near Gervais. The bride is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Mu Phi Epsilon. She took graduate work this fall at Oregon State college.

Mrs. Roland Mersereaux will entertain members of her club at a dessert luncheon and afternoon of bridge today at her North 20th street home.

Mrs. Frederick Lamport presided at luncheon Monday afternoon at her Ben Loman park home for members of the Travel Study club.

Mrs. Robert M. Gatke was a luncheon hostess Tuesday afternoon at her Richmond avenue home for members of the Modern Drama class.

Visitation Night At Stayton

A group of Salem folk motored to Stayton to attend the visitation night of district No. 20, Veterans of Foreign Wars, with San-tiam post and auxiliary being hosts. Following short meetings, a Christmas party with a gift exchange, dancing a late supper was enjoyed.

Those attending from Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. James Beall, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Covil Case, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Redfern, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Simpson, Mrs. Leon Hansen, Mrs. Clarence Forbis, Mrs. Clarence Crowley, Mrs. Mei Clemens, Mrs. Axel Jacobsen, Mrs. Adam Kerber, Mrs. J. H. Lucas, Mrs. Ivel Hale, Mrs. Mae Wilder, Mrs. Margaret Hunt, Mrs. Willie Boone, Mrs. Lucille Crowe, Mrs. Irene Hensell and Mrs. Eva Tucker.

Salem Man Will Wed Easterner

Mr. and Mrs. George Bell of Forest Hills, N. Y., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Cadet-Midshipman George Seymour Frum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Frum of Salem.

Miss Bell was graduated from Forest Hills high school and attended Queens college during which time she became a member of Beta Sigma Omicron sorority.

Mr. Frum is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Willamette university. They will be married next September in Forest Hills.

Parties Fill Yuletide Calendar

The holiday social whirl is just around the corner with each day's mail bringing invitations.

Clever holiday cards have been sent by Mr. and Mrs. James J. Walton and son, Jeff, to an at home for which they will be hosts on Tuesday, December 23 at the Walton residence on Fairmount Hill. Bidden to the Christmas party are Jeff's junior high school friends and their parents, with calling hours from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Chandler Brown will preside at the punch bowl the first hour with her daughter, Vivienne, assisting. Mrs. Frank Deckebach will pour the last hour and her daughter, Carolyn, will assist.

Holiday at Home
Invitations have also been received from Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks to their annual holiday at home, which will be an event of Monday, December 22. Their friends have been asked to call between 5 and 8 o'clock at their Fairmount Hill residence.

A Christmas Tea
Mrs. Wayne Hadley will be hostess for an informal Christmas tea on Friday afternoon at her Saginaw street home for the pleasure of a group of matrons, who are friends of her mother, Mrs. Douglas McKay. Twenty-five have been invited to call between 3 and 4 o'clock.

Mrs. E. M. Page will preside at the tea and assisting will be Mrs. Douglas McKay and her coed daughter, Miss Mary Lou McKay, who will be home from Oregon State college for the holidays.

Zontians "Dress" For Evening

Salem Zonta club members attended a "dress up" party at the Percy Kelly home on Saturday, for which Miss Dorothy Cornelius was hostess. Members came attired in costumes and appropriate games were arranged by the committee in charge. Gifts for poor families which the club will aid were brought and placed under the tree.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. R. W. Land and Mrs. Harry Scott for funniest costumes, Mrs. E. O. Schucking and Mrs. W. E. Smith and Miss Lena Belle Tartar for the best characterizations, and to Hazel Roenicke and Maxine Buren for prettiest costumes.

Mrs. Edward Serx has invited members of her club to luncheon and bridge Thursday afternoon at her Albany home.
