

Miss Joan Randall Is Engaged

One of the first engagements to be revealed during the holiday season was made known Saturday afternoon when Miss Joan Randall told a group of her friends of her betrothal to James Richard Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips. The pretty bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Bessie H. Randall and L. E. Randall.

The romantic news was announced at a smorgasbord luncheon for which Miss Randall's sister, Mrs. John Johnson, was hostess at her Fairmount Hill home. Shortly after the guests arrived they found individual Christmas packages under a large decorated tree in the living room. In each was a pink and blue sachet adorned with painted flowers and bearing the names of the engaged duo. Simultaneously arrived a box of flowers with the engagement ring for the bride-to-be.

The buffet luncheon table was centered with a silver Christmas tree decorated with faint and pink lights with pink candles flanking the tree.

Bidden to the announcement party were Miss Randall, Mesdames Bessie Randall, William L. Phillips, B. M. Randall, W. E. Hutchens, William L. Phillips, Jr., Daryl Jones, Courtney Jones, Edward Salstrom, Ernest Hobbs, Bud Coons, Misses Barbara Sundet, Dolores Clement, Patricia Brock, Midge Newton, Gloria Myers, Miriam Schellenberger, Doris Dixon, Joan Fitzmaurice, Betty Jean Manoles, Patricia Africa, Joan Adolph, Gwen Rust, Rita Harr, Meta Woodruff, Gloria and Barbara McClintock, Harriet Huston, Jane Carson, Suzanne Small, Peggy Sears, Patricia Nickens, Madeleine Keene of Corvallis, Mariann Croisan, Sally Meulter of Klamath Falls.

Miss Randall and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school and both attended the University of Oregon. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and his fraternity is Phi Delta Theta. Mr. Phillips is now attending Willamette university and during the war he served in the army.

The Spinners will hold a special meeting on Monday night at the home of Miss Joan Beakey at 8 o'clock.
