

Seen and Heard ...

By JERYME ENGLISH

HOLIDAY SOCIAL WHIRL ... Lockridge, here from Chicago for the holidays ... They made a smart threesome receiving in the week on Tuesday when Mrs. Albert Gragg and daughter, Carroll Jean, entertained with an at home for the former's daughter, June home a perfect setting for Christmas decorations ... On the white doorway Carroll's red stocking combined with greens and over the entrance fir garlands ... On the table in the hallway ... an old fashioned decorated tree with strings of popcorn and cranberries and candle shaped lights ... Fir garlands tied with red ribbon bows over the mantle ... on the tea table a miniature white tree decorated with tiny red candy canes and underneath small wrapped packages ... encircled with red virgil lights ... many more lights and candles about the rooms ...

Jingle bells ... Mrs. Richard Cooley the cause of much comment with her tiny silver bell earrings, which really jingle when she walks ... Blonde Mrs. Howard Kaffun in black crepe with draped skirt ... One of the new style helmet hats of brown and bronze worn by Mrs. Fred A. Davis, who is excited about moving in February to their new home on North 21st street ... Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer in a becoming deep purple gown and matching coachman's hat with purple feathers ...

TRAVEL NOTES ... Exciting time ahead for Glen and Marjorie Stevens, who leave by train the Sunday after Christmas for a week's skiing and fun at Sun Valley ... They have reservations at Challenger Inn and will be there for the New Year's eve celebration ... The occasion also marks the couple's wedding anniversary ... Accompanying the Stevensons will be the Lloyd Bablers and children, Lloyd, Tommy and Barbara of Portland ...

To the East-West game ... Will go Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer and children, Roberts and Dick ... the George Nelsons ... The Albert Graggs and daughters, Carroll Jean and June, ... and the C. Lester Newmans, who will be joined by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wells of Modesto, Calif. ... Mrs. Newman is already in Modesto and he is joining her there for Christmas ... The Salem families will all be registered at the Chancellor hotel while in San Francisco ... They will also celebrate New Year's eve in the bay city ... The Graggs will fly south, but the others will go by train.

CHRISTMAS DANCE for Town club members a week ago at the Marion hotel ... Gay and festive holiday decorations ... all candle-light ... and in the windows large silver bells, which were lighted ... huge poinsettias, wreaths, fir boughs and red and green crepe paper streamers ... Congratulations to the decorating committee ... with special plaudits to Mrs. Emory Hobbs, the chairman, who looked very Christmasy in her white velvet gown with scalloped sleeves and hemline faced in red velvet ... the skirt caught high at one hip with red feathers ... even red sandals ...

Sister duos ... Outstanding was Mrs. Claybourne Dyer's dramatic one-shoulder gown of gold lace ... Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr., in an off-white crepe gown accented with gold ... The good-looking, brunette Wagner sisters ... Margaret, her usual smart self, in a stunning gown of chartreuse with extra full skirt and low décolleté ... and for contrast American Beauty flowers attached to one shoulder strap ... Anita, (Mrs. Vernon Dyer), in a fetching full skirted grey and shell pink all over print frock ... the low neckline edged in pink male ... and a matching stole ...

Stand-outs ... Noticeable were the many strapless gowns ... Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst's rose taffeta with bustle back and wide panels of moon blue ... Vivacious Mrs. Leon Perry wearing a magnolia green frock banded in rows of black lace ... Mrs. Robert Drager's strapless gown of pink brown crepe with alternate rows of satin ... turquoise feathers at one shoulder ... Dashing plaid taffetas for Mrs. Robert Needham, hers of Christmas red and green ...

of the Lincoln Goodwill club, Dec. 11 for which Mrs. Walter Brog, Mrs. Theo Burns and Mrs. Kenneth Hunt were hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Pat Johnson. Special guests were Mrs. Pete Voth, Mrs. J. E. England and Mrs. Pat Johnson and Mrs. Lester Walling and Jean. The club will send clothing to children of the Corvallis Farm home. Boxes have been sent European countries and a local family is to be remembered with a basket. Mrs. H. D. Burns was nominated to attend the conference concerning the community center which will be held at Zena church January 8. Hostesses from the Goodwill club and five from the Spring Valley Home Missionary society will make arrangements for lunch at the combined meeting of the two clubs to be held at Zena church, Thursday, January 8 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Burns appointed Mrs. Harry Phillips, Mrs. Avait Miller, Mrs. Edward Schlegel, Miss Jeanie Smith and Mrs. Chris Yungen as a committee to function on for the L.G.C. A gift exchange was a feature in which the 18 members and four guests participated.
