

Salem Man Married Saturday

An out-of-town wedding of interest to the groom's many friends took place in Hoquiam, Wash., on Saturday night which united in marriage Miss Betty Louise Sinkola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Sinkola of Hoquiam, and Winsor Paul Acton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Acton of Salem. The ceremony took place at Trinity Episcopal church at 8 o'clock with the Rev. B. Stanley Moore officiating. Miss Virginia Stimson was the soloist and Mrs. Edward A. Shelley the organist. Lighting the altar tapers were Miss Margaret Acton of Salem, sister of the groom, and Miss Margaret Manners, who wore pastel green dresses.

Of white satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a marquisette yoke edged with a satin ruffle, fitted bodice with satin peplum and full skirt, which ended in a train. Her fingertip length tulle veil was edged in lace and was caught to a pearl trimmed Juliet cap. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid. Mr. Sinkola gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Jane Acton, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor and wore a white silk jersey gown made with cap sleeves and dirndl skirt. She carried a white poinsettia in a nosegay and wore an arrangement of poinsettia leaves in her hair. Bridesmaids were Miss Alice Rose of Salem, Miss Jane Mathers, Portland, Miss Mary Margaret Eck, Hoquiam, and Mrs. Thomas Snelson of Los Angeles, who wore white silk jersey gowns fashioned identical to the honor maid's. They carried red poinsettia nosegays. Marilyn Rottle was flower girl and wore a Kate Greenaway white organdy frock with red velvet ribbon bows in her hair.

Attendants. The groom William C. Burns of Salem was best man for Mr. Acton and ushers were Raymond C. Loter, Portland, Jesse M. Jones, jr., Hood River, Dave Minar, Salem, and Alvin Vernon, Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Sinkola chose a floor length black gown with flame colored sequin trim and bolero for her daughter's nuptials. She wore a black feather hat. Mrs. Acton, who with Mr. Acton, went north for the ceremony, wore a blue velvet gown with black sequin trimmed hat.

A reception was held at the Sinkola home following the rites. Mrs. Michael Manners, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. E. D. Linn cut the cake.

The newly weds will go to Canada on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride donned a wine-berry suit with grey coat, black velvet cloche trimmed with all-weather maple leaves, black accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mr. Acton and his bride will live at State College, Pennsylvania where he has a teaching fellowship in chemistry at Pennsylvania State college.

Engagement Revealed

The Rev. and Mrs. O. Leonard Jones of West Salem are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lovicy Ann Jones, to Robert Addis Lockwood, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Lockwood of Portland. No wedding date has been set.

Don't Look Now...

But... when we drove to Portland Christmas day we noted that while on fog, blanketed roads, drivers were careful and sensible, as soon as the air cleared, they began racing one another. Returning home late at night, we felt no fear though fog was thick, for that ever-gleaming yellow line showed us the way, and other autoists minded their own driving.

To the left... All week we've been wondering if those who put up the Christmas lights on the old tree on the courthouse lawn didn't know there was a town out east of High street. Lights are on the north, west and south sides. They ought to drive out that way sometime, there's a courthouse up that way, several houses and other buildings.

Your Santa is slipping... Story of the week. When the little Salem girl of seven, started asking about Santa, her mother de-cidied now was a good time to break the sad news. "Santa is really the fathers and mothers of all the little children" she said. The little girl much interested, suddenly burst out laughing, "Oh good" said she "I can get lots more out of Daddy than Santa!" and she was probably right.

Street Scene on Christmas Day... Man driving car full of kids and wearing the comfiest looking bright yellow gloves... Great big papa coasting downhill in tiny red wagon with three-year-old passenger sitting behind... Christmas tragedy—all the poor little unwanted fir trees standing cold and forlorn on the vacant corner lots...

Handy Gadget... Cologne or toilet water is such a satisfactory thing to get for Christmas, you can always give it away again next year without fear of it being traced.
