

Miss Jean Hanson a Bride

The First Christian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Jean Hanson, daughter of Mrs. Charles Hanson of Silverton, to Kenneth Erb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Erb of Albany, on Saturday night at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating.

The altar was decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums and greens flanked by tapers. Miss Marcella Schwartz and Mrs. W. C. Knedler in pink and blue marquisette frocks lighted the candles. Mrs. Albert Rosenahl sang and Miss Jessica Kinsey was the organist.

Robert Hanson gave his sister in marriage. Her gown was of ivory satin designed with a sweetheart neckline edged in beading, a full bustle skirt terminating in a train, long sleeves and buttons down the waist in back. Her train length tulle veil, which belonged to the groom's sister, Mrs. Edwin McKee, cascaded from a Juliet cap of net edged with lace. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Preceding the bride to the altar were her three sisters, Miss Bernice Hanson as maid of honor, and Misses Karla Jane and Mary Anne Hanson, bridesmaids. They wore identical styled frocks of brocade taffeta fashioned with high necklines with collars, short, gathered sleeves, long waistlines and full skirts. The honor maid wore orchid and carried a colonial nosegay of violets and white pompon chrysanthemums, while the bridesmaids wore aqua and carried nosegays of pink pompoms and narcissus.

Brother Is Best Man
Richard Erb stood with his brother as best man and ushers were Thurston Gilchrist, Larry Roth, Melvin Stenberg and Creighton Fye.

Mrs. Hanson wore a black crepe afternoon dress for the nuptials with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Erb's gown was of teal blue crepe with black accessories and she wore a corsage of red roses.

The reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Ed Reeser cut the cake and Mrs. Hans Hagedorn presided at the coffee urn. Mrs. Harry Logan was at the punch bowl and serving were Miss Pauline Girod, Mrs. Marvin Hageman and Mrs. Delton Moen, who passed the guest book.

The newlyweds have gone north to Seattle on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride wore a brown crepe dress with brown accessories and dusty rose top coat. Mr. Erb and his bride will live in Toledo, where he is in business.

Date Set for Wedding

Sunday, January 18 has been set as the date for the marriage of Miss Elaine Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Winkle of Portland, formerly of Salem, to Donald F. Dill, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dill of Salem.

The nuptials will be solemnized at St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church at 3 o'clock with a reception following in the church parlors. The Rev. M. A. Getzlander will officiate.

The couple will make their home in Salem following their marriage. Their engagement was announced in November.

At Home Planned By Judsons

Invitations are in the mail to 50 friends of the William E. Judsons for an at home New Year's day at their Jefferson street residence. The occasion will celebrate their eleventh wedding anniversary.

Assisting the hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Terry Randall and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kuhn of Vancouver, Wash. The rooms will be decorated with holiday colors. Hours for the party are from four p. m. through the evening.

A musical Tea Today at Teeds

Mrs. James I. Teed will be hostess for a musical tea this afternoon at her South 21st street home for six of her advanced students and their parents. At the tea hour Mrs. Andrew Baker will pour and the girls will assist. The table will be centered with a miniature Christmas tree flanked by alter lights.

Playing on the program will be Gary Lewis, Billy Drakeley, Sandra Johnson, Beverly Salisbury, Joan Gilbert and LaVon Ford.

Barhams Hosts To Children

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Barham are holiday hosts to their sons and families at their home on Park Lane. Guests are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barham (Hulda Braun) and Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Barham all of Oakland. Charles Barham was recently discharged from the hospital following surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barham had their family at home for Christmas dinner too. Present for the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Philip McHarness of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Justis of Astoria, Paul, Walter and George Barham and their families.
