

Rites Take Place in Dallas

Of interest to the many Salem and Dallas friends of the bride is the marriage of Miss Mary Lou Kreson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Kreson of Dallas, to Carter E. Gilleland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Gilleland of Portland, which was an event of New Year's Day. The ceremony took place at the Presbyterian church in Dallas with the Rev. Earl Benbow officiating at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Donald C. Robinson was the organist and Miss Florene Inglis the soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome satin gown of blush pink. The fitted bodice was of French imported lace over satin with lace petals outlining the square neckline, the waistline and the long sleeves. The full skirt terminated in a train. Her short veil was of blush pink illusion and cascaded from the crown of her hair. She carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid.

Miss Jane Kreson was her sister's only attendant and wore a petal blue taffeta frock fashioned with bateau neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt with bouffant puffers. She wore a coronet of flowers in her hair and carried a pastel nosegay.

Keith Miller was best man and ushers were Russell Frame, Norman Corbin, James Street and George Herrmann.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kreson wore a black crepe gown with pink beaded bodice made with long sleeves. The groom's mother chose a grey crepe gown for the nuptials.

A wedding reception was held in the chamber of commerce rooms in Dallas. Presiding at the bride's table were Mesdames Oscar Hayter, James A. Inglis, Lyman L. McCarty and Donald C. Roberts of Salem. Mrs. J. B. Eakin cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Cecil E. Dunn greeted the guests. Serving were the Misses Florence Gilliland, Shirley Phelps, Janice Beharrell, Edith Tuttle and Florence Inglis and Mrs. Keith Miller.

The newlyweds have gone south on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit with matching hat and accessories, pink blouse and a short pink coat. Mr. Gilleland and his bride will live in Los Angeles where both will continue with their studies at the University of Southern California.

Couple Will Wed Today

At a quiet ceremony this morning at 9 o'clock at the Shipley street home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Utley and Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, the marriage of their cousin, Mrs. Ralph N. Allen, to Garfield Anderson will be solemnized. The Rev. Louis Kirby will officiate at the rites.

The couple will be unattended. Following the nuptials a wedding breakfast will be served with a cake centering the table.

Mr. Anderson and his bride will go south on their wedding trip. They will return to reside in Salem temporarily before going to San Francisco to make their home.

Salem Woman's club literature group will meet Monday at the clubhouse at 1:30 p.m. for coffee, followed by a program at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Harold Rosebraugh reviewing several biographies.

Lansing Neighbors Garden club held its Christmas party December 27 at the home of Ben Rathjen. The January meeting will be with Mrs. Sherman Rehm, 65 Lansing avenue, January 22.

Family Returns to "Home Cooking" After Holidays; Desserts Favored

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Women's Editor

Now that the holidays are over we can turn to regular family cooking, and for the sort of company where one wants to prepare things new and interesting, but not too rich and intricate.

Here are several old recipes which make good desserts for either family or company that includes good friends.

Four eggs can make mighty good eating.

LEMON BLITZ TORTE
1/2 cup butter
3/4 cup powdered sugar
4 egg yolks
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
3 tablespoons milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
Cream butter and sugar, add beaten egg yolks. Sift flour and baking powder and add to creamed mixture alternately with milk. Spread into 2 layer pans and cover with following mixture:
4 egg whites
1 cup sugar
1/4 lb. chopped almonds
Bake 35 minutes at 350 degrees. Fill with lemon filling.

Now that marshmallows are now available, one might try this recipe:

MARSHMALLOW MERINGUE
1/4 pound marshmallows
1 tablespoon milk
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup sugar
Cook marshmallows with milk

Miss Magee A Bride

UNIONVALE — The altar and sanctuary of the First Evangelical United Brethren church in Salem was beautifully decorated with white Christmas trees, silvered holly and candelabra when Miss Jeanne Louise Magee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Magee of Dayton, and the Rev. E. Clark Robb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Robb of Salem, exchanged their vows.

The double ring ceremony was performed Tuesday, December 30, at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Wilmer Brown, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Robert Wagner, pastor of the First Evangelical United Brethren church in Portland. William Fawk was the organist.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Barbara Magee of Scotts Mills, Miss Rose Marie Lorenzen of Dayton, Miss Gladys Guidi of Portland and Miss Pauline Herigstad of Silverton. All wore pastel blue gowns. Herbert Anderson was soloist. Following the exchange of vows, George Milan sang.

The bride, entering on the arm of her father, wore a white slipper gown fashioned with fitted bodice, lace yoke and tiny satin buttons extending to the waist in back, the long full skirt ending in a train. The full length sleeves were pointed at the wrist and fastened with tiny satin buttons. She wore a fine and white, borrowed from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Magee, which was edged in lace and fell from a beaded tiara. She carried a white Bible with a spray of orchids.

Mrs. Wilmer Bohn, sister of the groom, was matron of honor and wore a pastel blue crepe gown trimmed with white net and fashioned with a full skirt, fitted bodice and short sleeves. She wore a white bandeau in her hair and matching net mitts. Her bouquet was a nosegay of blue and white carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Magee of Corvallis, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Willard Fisher of McMinnville, Mrs. John Richardson of McMinnville and Miss Myrtle Rockhill of Dayton. They wore matching dresses of white sharkskin trimmed with blue net, fashioned identical to that of the honor attendant's. They wore blue bandeaus in their hair and matching net mitts. Each carried nosegays of white and blue carnations. Mark of Anderson of Salem was ringbearer and his sister, Karen and vanilla until melted. Remove saucepan from heat, mix stiffly beaten egg whites, salt and sugar and fold into cooked mixture. Pile on pie, place under broiler 3 inches from heat for 30 seconds. Orange cake pudding is not too rich, but has been considered an excellent dessert for many a year:

ORANGE CAKE PUDDING
Juice 1 orange
Juice 1/2 lemon
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1/2 cup fat
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon soda in
1 cup sour milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 cups flour
1 cup ground raisins
Grated rind of lemon and orange
Mix all except juice and sugar. Bake and while hot pour juice and sugar over.

Miss Case a New Year's Bride

A New Year's bride was Miss Virginia Case, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Case, whose marriage to Brady Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher, took place at the Knight Memorial church at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Lewis White officiated before the altar banked with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and tapers. Ronald Craven was the soloist with Mrs. Craven the organist.

Mr. Case escorted his daughter down the aisle and gave her in marriage. For her wedding she wore a becoming white faille gown fashioned with a semi-boop skirt caught up at one side with a large bow. The fitted bodice was designed with buttons down the front, a round collar and long sleeves. Her fingertip length tulle veil was caught at the back of her hair with a faille bow. She carried a colonial nosegay of white chrysanthemums, roses, narcissus and carnations.

Mrs. Gordon Reed came from Manhattan Beach, Calif., to be her sister's only attendant. She wore a sky blue taffeta frock made with a gathered skirt and off shoulder bodice with no sleeves. She carried a colonial nosegay of pink roses, heather and narcissus and wore a wreath of the same flowers in her hair.

Robert Gallagher was his brother's best man and seating the guests were Richard Gallagher, also a brother, and Robert Newgent.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Case selected a gold floor length gown and corsage of brown orchids. Mrs. Gallagher wore a forest green dress with green orchid corsage for her son's marriage.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Mrs. William Dart of Portland, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. T. W. Creech cut the cake. Miss Leah Jube Case, sister of the bride, passed the guest book. Serving were Mrs. Edward Peterson of Corvallis and Mrs. Clyde Jantze of Oakland, Calif.

After a wedding trip to Vancouver, B. C. and other Canadian points the couple will be at home in Eugene at 727 E. Broadway. For traveling the bride donned a plum suit with cutaway jacket adorned with silver buttons. She wore a black top coat, grey fur hat and grey shoes.
