Youths' Case Probed; Judge Halts Parole

Following pleas of guilty to two separate charges of burglary, the cases of Blaine Ogle, 2280 N. Church st., and Erwin Speer, Aumsville, were referred to the state board of parole and probation Monday by Marion County Circuit Judge E. M. Page.

The two are charged jointly with entering the Aumsville Lumber Co. office and the Gentzler garage owned by M. W. Bradley, both at Aumsville, on the night of December 27.

Landon McCracken also pleaded before Judge Page on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses and was sentenced to a year in the county jail. Parole on a former sentence of one year in the county jail, meted out July 30 by the circuit court, was revoked. The old sentence also was for obtaining money by false pretenses, involving a bad check.

McCracken was arrested last week by city police on a charge of cashing a bad check at Hartman Bros. jewelry store.

Ogle is also charged with a third offense, that of concealing, possessing and receiving stolen property. He is free on total bail of $2,750 while Speer is released on $2,000 bail.

Young GOPs Plan Election On February 9

Officers will be nominated and elected by Marion county's Young Republican club at a February 9 meeting, it was decided Monday night when the group met in Salem Chamber of Commerce rooms to hear talks by Robert Elliott, national young republican committeeman, and Sig Unander, state republican committee treasurer, both of Portland.

William C. Dyer, Jack Hay and Orval Hager were appointed a liaison committee between the club and the Marion county republican central committee. The committee's vice president, Helen Ficke, turned over to the club $200 from committee funds for financing the club's program this year.

Elliott reported that Oregon republicans are continuing their efforts for three bonus national convention delegates, so far withheld by an interpretation of the party's policy on bonus delegates. He said the issue may be settled by the national GOP committee at its meeting this month.

Lions to Hear Army Speaker

Lt. Col. Frederick C. Dahlquist, commander of army recruiting in Oregon from Portland, will discuss his experiences with the communist armies in Mongolia in a talk before the Salem Lions club Thursday noon in the Marion hotel.

After the end of the late war, Colonel Dahlquist spent seven months in Mongolia as chairman of a "peace firing" team. During that time he came in contact with and observed the Chinese communist armies.

As a civilian he lived in Portland from 1921 to 1927 when he was in newspaper advertising. He succeeded Lt. Col. Michael C. Mattis recently as Oregon recruiting commander.
