John Cerny, Polk Head Crippled Children Fund

DALLAS — John Cerny has been appointed county chairman of the newly organized Polk county unit of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults. This is the first time a unit has been organized in the county. The purpose is to care for handicapped persons not otherwise provided for and which includes medical care, besides teaching, training for employment and providing special equipment as needed. City states. The organization will cooperate with but not duplicate the work being done by other public and private agencies working along the same line. Funds are realized through contributions to Shares of Happiness and an annual Easter Seal sale held during March.

Silverton Sawmillmen Vote to Join Council

SILVERTON, Jan. 6.—(Special)—Members of the Silverton Lumber and Sawmill Workers union, local 2725, AFL, met in a reorganization session here Monday night and voted to affiliate with the Willamette Valley district council. The union set its regular meeting nights for the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Plans for a collective bargaining election in conjunction with the national labor board were discussed. The election will be held in the near future. The meeting was the second of its kind held in Silverton recently. Presiding were E. Z. Kaufman, local chairman, and George Christensen, temporary secretary. Howard Hayes, Dallas, president of the Willamette District council, was present to aid with the reorganization.
