

Salem Man To Marry In East

The traditional box of chocolates was passed at the Alpha Chi Omega house on the Willamette university campus Tuesday night to announce the coming wedding of Miss Joan Kathan of Rogue River to Charles J. Zerzan, son of Charles J. Zerzan of Salem. Scrolling bearing the names of the couple and the wedding date, February 5 was found inside the box of candy.

Miss Kathan will leave the first of February for Milwaukee, Wis., where the wedding will take place. Mr. Zerzan is attending Marquette University School of Medicine at Milwaukee, where the couple will live.

The bride-elect completed her junior year at Willamette university and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Her fiance attended Willamette prior to entering medical school. He served as president of Phi Delta Theta and is a member of Alpha Phi Omega and Mu Epsilon Delta, medical fraternity. He served in the army for over five years, part of which time was spent in Burma. He was released with the rank of a captain.
