

City News Briefs

TAYTON STORE FILES
Sandberg's Grocery and Confectionery, at Stayton, is named in an assumed business name certificate filed with the Marion county clerk Monday by W. V. Sandberg and Edna Sandberg, both of Stayton.

New light fixtures give added cheer. Shop our fixtures on third floor. You'll be pleased with the new designs. Elfstrom's.

FIXTURE CO. LISTED
Commercial Fixture Co., 2115 N. 34th st., is the assumed business name filed with the Marion county clerk Monday by Herbert O. Lechner and Nicholas S. Shewzyk.

MAY HAUL LOGS
Permits to haul logs over certain county and market roads were granted Monday by Marion county court to A. M. Dennison, route 8, and F. A. Dugger, 1185 E. Rural st., both of Salem, and to John Jacobson of Silverton and E. G. Fuson, Aumsville.

SALEM STUDENT ELECTED
Robert Over, son of Mrs. Mary E. Burt, 1064 Oak st., was elected to the advisory board of the University theatre on the University of Oregon campus last week. He is a senior speech and drama major.

BASEMENT FLOODED? Do this week's wash at the "Lauderette" 20 Bendix, dryers, extractors & ironers. Phone 24555.

BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED
Terminal Ice & Cold Storage Co. was issued a city building permit Monday for wrecking a house and garage at 271 D st. at an estimated $50 cost. Luis Cass was authorized to alter an apartment house at 419 S. 19th st. at $200 and H. L. Gillette to alter a house at 10 Beech ave., $800.

Pin-up Lamps in quality finish. Only $2.75. Elfstrom's Light Fixture Dept. third floor.

RATED IN ROTC
Two Salem sophomores at University of Oregon who received staff sergeant ratings in the reserve officer training corps there recently are David Cromwell, son of Mrs. Effie Blower, 1610 N. 17th st., and Dewey Rand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Rand, 585 N. Summer st.

HARRY SCOTT ELECTED
Harry Scott, head of Scott's Cycle shop in Salem, is president of the Oregon Harley-Davidson Dealers association for 1948 as a result of an association meeting in Portland Sunday. The association will meet in Salem this spring.

LEGION COMMITTEE NAMED
Mildred Christensen and Chester Fritz are co-chairmen of arrangements for a district meeting of the American Legion and auxiliary in Salem Legion hall Saturday. They are commanders of Legion posts 148 and 136 respectively. Other committeemen are: program — Frank Cross, Charles Creighton and Susan Faherty; banquet — Ken Potts, Harriet Belcher, Bertha Pranger, Harrison Elgin, Walt Wood and Harry Martens; welcoming — Bert Walker, Joseph Felton, Sam Harbison and Albert Shoemaker; tickets — Fred Remington; auxiliary arrangements — Mrs. Harold Streeter and Mrs. Harlan Judd.

TOWNSENDITES TO MEET
S. F. Thatcher has called a meeting of Townsend Victory club 17 for 8 o'clock tonight at the home of Mrs. Olive Raddaway, 1421 N. Church st.

FLAT RECORDED
A plat of Bower subdivision near Turner north city limits was recorded Monday in the office of Marion County Recorder Herman Lanke by Henry Bower and Nellie Bower, both of Turner, and by a number of other property owners of the subdivision.

DRIVERS FINED
Fines totaling $70 were meted out in Marion county district court Monday to two Salem men charged by state police with reckless driving. Police said the two were apprehended Sunday evening while racing their cars along North High and Broadway streets. James Gilbert Taylor, 300 Culver lane, was fined $30 and court costs, while Carl William Weidner, 945 Tamarack st., was fined $40 and costs. Driver's licenses of both were suspended for 90 days.

GRAND JURY MEETS
Marion county grand jury convened Monday in the court house and was in session all day but did not report any findings. It will remain in session until Thursday, or longer if necessary, according to the district attorney's office.

LICENSED TO MARRY
A. R. Stone of Salem and Floesia R. Stone of Portland were issued a marriage license at Vancouver, Wash. Other licenses went to Daniel Potter, Silverton, and Patricia McKellop, Scotts Mills, and to Lyle Meisch, Hubbard, and Selma Dunn, Canby.

KIWANIS LUNCHEON OFF
Because Salem Kiwanis club will hold ladies night and installation of officers Thursday night, the organization has canceled its luncheon meeting which ordinarily would occur today noon.

AIR RESERVE CALLED
Col. Chester McCarthy, wing commander of the Air Reserve association of Oregon, will explain plans for allocation of training airplanes in a talk before Salem's new-formed air reserve chapter Wednesday at 8 p. m. in Legion hall.

JAYCEES TO HEAR JONES
Robert L. Jones, assistant publisher of the Capital Journal, will address the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce at a meeting in the Marion hotel today at noon. He will be introduced by Bob Gormsen, program chairman.

PHALANX MEET READIED
Permanent organization of a local unit of the Phalanx club, YMCA service group for men 18 to 25 years of age, is expected to be completed at a meeting January 20. Charles Chittick is temporary chairman.

SAYRE TO COMPETE
Robert Sayre, student head of this year's twice-victorious Willamette university forensic squad, will journey today to Covallis to compete in the state after-dinner contest on the Oregon State college campus. The subject for the contest will be "Inventions."

TRAILER FIRE PUT OUT
Salem firemen Monday afternoon extinguished a gas stove fire which had called them to a trailer house at 21st and State streets. They reported little damage to the trailer. Firemen also were called Sunday night to the Rialto cafe on downtown State street where an electric motor fire was put out without damage to the building.

ELECTRICAL WIRING
The Model Electric Shop, Ph. 2-1526, 900 S. Comm'l. St. Electrical wiring of all types.

FARRISH WILL SPEAK
Philip H. Parrish, editor of the Oregonian, will speak on "Agriculture in Germany Today" at Salem Rotary club's meeting Wednesday noon in the Marion hotel. Parrish recently returned from a trip to the war-devastated countries of Europe. This is the annual farmers' day program when members bring farmer friends from the Salem trading area as guests.

THE NEW NIGHT BEAM
The new Night Beam adjustable Bed Lamps. Walnut grain finish. $3.60. Light Fixture Dept. third floor. Elfstrom's.

DRIVERS FINED
Fines totaling $70 were meted out in Marion county district court Monday to two Salem men charged by state police with reckless driving. Police said the two were apprehended Sunday evening while racing their cars along North High and Broadway streets. James Gilbert Taylor, 300 Culver lane, was fined $30 and court costs, while Carl William Weidner, 945 Tamarack st., was fined $40 and costs. Driver's licenses of both were suspended for 90 days.

MRS. BUNNELL TO PORTLAND
Mrs. Ruby Bunnell, executive secretary of the Marion county health association, today will attend a meeting in Portland of the Oregon Congress of Parent-Teachers association board of directors. Mrs. Bunnell is its state health chairman. Mrs. Bunnell and Mrs. Dora Morely, chairman of the family relations study group, sponsored by the local health association, will outline the study program to the Mothers' club at Salem Heights school at 1 p. m. Thursday.

JAYCEES TO HEAR JONES
Robert L. Jones, assistant publisher of the Capital Journal, will address the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce at a meeting in the Marion hotel today at noon. He will be introduced by Bob Gormsen, program chairman.

PHALANX MEET READIED
Permanent organization of a local unit of the Phalanx club, YMCA service group for men 18 to 25 years of age, is expected to be completed at a meeting January 20. Charles Chittick is temporary chairman.

SAYRE TO COMPETE
Robert Sayre, student head of this year's twice-victorious Willamette university forensic squad, will journey today to Covallis to compete in the state after-dinner contest on the Oregon State college campus. The subject for the contest will be "Inventions."

EMIGH TO SPEAK
George Emigh, business manager of the Salem Senators baseball team, will discuss the Senators' 1948 diamond prospects in a speech before the Salem Exchange club at the Salem hotel Wednesday noon. Emigh is expected to reveal the identity of Salem's 1948 manager and will tell about how much help he expects from Portland in the coming campaign.

JOHNS-MANVILLE SHINGLES
Immediate application by expert workmen. Nothing down, 3 years to pay. Free estimates. Phone 4642. Mathis Bros., 164 S. Com'l.

CONFERENCE SLATED
A conference for executive secretaries of nine county chapters of the American Red Cross in this district will be held Wednesday in Salem with the Marion county chapter as host. The conference will be served at noon at the Marion hotel, followed by a session in the chamber of commerce. Richard Gordon, area disaster relief director, is among speakers on the program.

INCOME TAX SERVICE
J. W. Coburn, 1570 Market. Ph. 2-6569.

KIWANIS TO MEET
The Salem Kiwanis club will hold a round table meeting and luncheon at the Marion hotel at noon today for members who will be unable to attend the organization's installation party Thursday night.

OIL CLOTH FOR SPARKLING CLEAN KITCHENS
Sanitas for the walls and Royal Cloth for tables & counters. See the gay new patterns at Elfstrom's wall paper dept. 340 Court.

MOTHERS DISMISSED
Mrs. Patrick Maler, 1585 Baker st., was dismissed from Salem General hospital Monday with her infant daughter and Mrs. A. W. Buisman, Salem route 2, with her new-born son.

INSURED SAVINGS EARN MORE than two per cent at Salem Federal Savings Association, 390 State st.

BABIES GO HOME
Taking home infant daughters from Salem Memorial hospital over the weekend were Mrs. Allen Schiewe, Stayton, and Mrs. Walter Means, 455 N. 24th st. Mrs. David Riggs, 575 Willow st., and Mrs. Roy Smith, 657 N. Commercial, each left with a new son.

GIRL FOR GENERAL OFFICE WORK
Shorthand & typing. Homer H. Smith Insurance Agency.

FORMER MAYOR VISITS
George Stadelman, former mayor of The Dalles, was a Salem visitor Monday.

LODGE MEETS TONIGHT
Plans for the lutefisk supper slated January 24 will be completed at a meeting of Thor lodge, Sons of Norway, tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Nelson, 856 N. 17th st.

Honor Scouts Plan Dance, Skiing as Spring Activities

Activities including a spring dance, a trip to the beach and a ski expedition were among plans for 1948 laid at the executive board meeting of the Order of the Arrow, Boy Scout honor society, at the Salem scout office Sunday afternoon.

Richard Wyatt of troop 1, Salem, president of the order, will head a committee to consider plans for the senior scout dance in March. Tentative plans were also agreed upon for the skiing trip to Hoodoo bowl above Mehama Friday 14 and 15 and a camp at the Portland council's Camp Merriweather near Hebo on May 15 and 16.

The order accepted the responsibility of being the service patrol at the council scout circus in Salem on May 8 and agreed to participate in the annual work week at Camp Pioneer from June 20-27. Next executive board meeting is slated for January 20.

"I discovered how SMART LOOKING properly fitted GLASSES can be!"

If your eyes need glasses, a surprise awaits you the moment your glasses are fitted. Come in now and have your eyes tested.

Brown's Optical Service
184 N. Liberty St. - 420 Court St.
"JOIN the March of Dims..."

Quality Eyeglasses on Budget Payments

FUNERAL PARKING

The funeral cortege is entirely formed on our premises—each car in its place—before starting to the cemetery.

HOWELL-EDWARDS FUNERAL HOME
145 NORTH CENTER STREET
PHONE...3672

WE make your old radio sing like NEW

IS YOUR RADIO SICK?

When your radio is sick the first need is an honest diagnosis. After that, a complete cure. We have the equipment to do both — promptly, effectively and economically. Call 7981.

WARREN'S RADIO
Packard-Bell, Admiral and Crosley Dealer
2017 Fairgrounds Road

Nothing Down. Pay Monthly Venetian Blinds - ELMER - The Blind Man

1545 Plaza St. W. Salem
Slats in aluminum, steel, wood. Choice of tape colors.
Measured and installed within 30 miles.
Phone 7323
Call Any Time for Free Estimates

AIR RESERVE CALLED
Col. Chester McCarthy, wing commander of the Air Reserve association of Oregon, will explain plans for allocation of training airplanes in a talk before Salem's new-formed air reserve chapter Wednesday at 8 p. m. in Legion hall.

For Rent: 2 BR house with garage and driveway. Ph. 8569.

TOMORROW

Take the Bus!

No parking nightmares like this if you take the bus. Why inconvenience yourself and complicate the city's traffic problem by driving your car unnecessarily when your bus will take you where you want to go in safety, comfort, and on time.

Our city has just grown too fast. We haven't enough parking space to go around. So help your city and help yourself by leaving your parking worries at home.

Tomorrow take the bus.

Check the frequent schedules on the timetables available from all drivers.

Salem City Lines
Serving Salem and Its Suburbs

A GOOD RESOLUTION FOR 1948

to Save part of Every pay check!

of course, in a savings account at the First National Bank of Portland

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION