Granted that Nancy Merki, Lew Beck Larry Jansen, Jake Leicht and Suzanne Zimmerman were worthy of high accolade as the state's "athlete of 1947", as se-lected by the Portland Multno-mah Athletic club. But why the Salem hope and his world series venture didn't rate so much as an honorable mention makes one wonder just who in heck was on the selection committee. Had our man resided in Portland it might have been different. But then Bill is accustomed to the shade. The big town's publicity men have kept him in it many years. And he's the last guy in the world to squawk about it,

A brand new gladiator joins Matchmaker Elton Owen's weekly grappling party tonight at the armory, one Frank Stojack. Now possessor of the belt emblematic of the Coast junior heavy mat title, the former Washington State footballer is said to be a dandy as bicepper. It was just about a dozen years ago that Stojack, on Babe Hollingbery's Cougar elevens, was just as good a grid guard as there was in the land. In 1934 he made a number of All-America teams and in '35 played in the East-West classic. Later came three years in National league pro ranks during which he picked up the handle "Toughie", as he never-seemed to get hurt. All during Stojack's tenure at WSC he held the school's heavyweight wrestling title and not once did he lose a collegiate match. New 33 and coming fast in the mat whiri, Stojack hails from Tacoma

Should Oregon State take two from Idaho to add to the pair captured at Pullman, the Beavers return with four straight wins and their four-games-in-five-nights jaunt to the Palouse passed. If such is to be, look out for Slats Gill again when title time comes. Montgomery s. Richards

Klamath Falls Monty Montgomery, the heavy - fisted lad who slugged Hal Fries out in four heats last week belted himself into a chance for the state's No. 1 featherweight fistic prize, the title. Matchmaker Tex Salkeld announced Monday he had signed the southern Oregon Indian to meet Bobby Richards, state feather titlist, in 15 rounds at the armory Wednesday night, January 21. Richards has held the 126-pound toga since beating such remembered gladiators as Snooks Lacey, Duane Hoag., et al, in bouts of a year and more ago. 8

"I would have put Fries in with Richards for the title had Fries beat the Indian," opined Salkeld. "But since this Montgomery looked so good knocking out Fries I think he's the logical match for Richards."

A quartet of four - rounders will be molded into the prelim card later.

defending champion Oregon State Beavers, 47 to 43, tonight is a hectic

Dan Torrey flipped in two quick field goals to open the second half and even the count at 23-all and a minute later Cliff Crandall notched a long one to give Oregon State a momentary 25 to 24 advantage. Then big Jack Phoenix, Joe Grove and Wendal Christensen teamed to move Idaho ahead 43 to 39 but Jim Catterall and Torrey dropped in close shots to tie the score with three minutes remaining.

Phoenix broke the deadlock with a left handed push shot from the key and with a minute to go, Preston Brimhall connected with a long heave from the corner for the clincher and the Vandals stalled out.

Phoenix, the 6'9" Vandal center, was the big gun in the Idaho attack, collecting 15 points and holding the Beavers' Cliff Cranon the Olympics course, Miller dall to two points in the first half. feels they will have the stamina Torrey led the Beavers with 13, The two teams meet here again

Buckeyes' Overtime Win Rated Top Oddity The decision for Louis over Walcott provoked the most proonged protest of the year. Leo Durocher's case also drew a scattering of votes as the oddest happening. The Pacific Coast league tie between Los Angeles and San Francisco drew support. Frankie Groves, the girl high school football player from Austin. Texas, certainly added a bizarre touch by playing with the boys' team.

Larry MacPhail's emotional farewell, to the accompaniment black eyes and bruised feelings, after his Yankees had won the series certainly was an oddity as was the Southern California drum major who came into the game to kick the extra 1 Day 1 Stop REPAIR SERVICE
