Board in Session

The Salem YWCA had a busy December. It was revealed in monthly reports given by committee at the January meeting of the association board of directors Tuesday.

Appointment of Mrs. Elizabeth Enger of Salem to succeed Mrs. Julia Kotts as housemother at the YW was announced by the personnel committee's co-chairmen, Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson and Mrs. B. F. Williams. Mrs. Kotts resigned recently because of health reasons. Mrs. Enger will be assisted by Miss June Rowland, Willamette university student, who also will live at the YW.

Reporting for the house committee, Mrs. Wallace Carson, stated the housemother's rooms have been redecorated and that the winter street annex of the YW is furnished now, with some girls living there. There are accommodations for a few other business girls between the ages of 18 and 25.

The nominating committee reported there were to be eight persons elected to the board of directors at the January 30 annual meeting, seven to take the regular terms open, one to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Clifford Parker, resigned. Electors of the association will receive their ballots this week along with tickets for the dinner to be served in conjunction with the annual meeting to be held at the First Congregational church, January 30. Also, candidates for the five positions on next year's nominating committee will appear in the notice.

The association now has 309 active members, it was reported by Mrs. W. W. Baum, membership chairman. Mrs. Kenneth York reported the news bulletin will be out to the membership next week.

Mrs. Harold A. Rosebraugh, president, urged support of the town meeting to be sponsored by the YW Thursday night at Waller hall, the panel to take up the subject, "Is it Fun to Live in Salem," the recreation facilities to be discussed.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Younce (Vivian Noth) on the birth of a seven pound, two ounce daughter, Julie Alberta, on Sunday at the Salem General hospital. The little girl has an older brother, Jeffrey, and her grandmothers are Mrs. A. F. Noth of Salem and Mrs. Retta Younce of Portland.

INDEPENDENCE — Ramona Moffit and Rosabell Whalen honored Mrs. Robert Swanson (Donna Traylor) with a shower January 7 at the home of Mrs. Nick Versteeg.

Officers to Be Elected

Mrs. James Hartley has been nominated for president of Toastmistress club and election will be held Wednesday night at the dinner meeting in Nohlger's restaurant. Other nominees are Loretta Frederick, vice president; Helen Simpson, secretary; and Genevieve Morgan, treasurer.

Albany Toastmistress will be guests of the Salem group at the January 28 meeting, a return visit for one Salem woman paid the Albany women last November.

Mrs. R. C. Riley, president, will be toastmistress for the program at this week's meeting.

Tea to Fete Traveler

Invitations are in the mail today to a tea for which Mrs. George Rossman and Mrs. David Eason will be hostesses at the North Capitol street home of Judge and Mrs. Rossman on Friday afternoon, January 23.

The tea is being arranged for the pleasure of Mrs. Custer Ross who is leaving in mid-February for an extended trip to China and the Orient. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Guy Lowelling of Albany and the main destination will be Shanghai where they will visit with Mrs. Ross' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ross.

Guests have been bidden to call between 3 and 5:30 o'clock to say au revoir to Mrs. Ross.

Shower Given at Bushnell Home

Mrs. Frank McLain Jr., of Brownsville was given a surprise shower Tuesday night by Miss Mary Gipson and Mrs. E. O. Bushnell at the latter's home.

Invited to the informal affair were Mrs. Leroy Bright, Mrs. Glenn Brown, Mrs. Adelia Mize, Mrs. Robert Callahan, Miss Virginia Gilchrist and Miss Genise Mize.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank V. Prime have returned from a three weeks stay in Eugene at the home of their son and family, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Prime, Jr. The Primes stayed with their grandchildren while the junior Primes went to San Francisco and Los Angeles. Dr. Prime took special work in oral surgery in the southern cities.

Mrs. Carl W. Emmons and Mrs. Gail Sanders entertained members of chapter BC, PEO at a luncheon in the recreation room of the Emmons home on Fawk street Tuesday afternoon. Special guests were Mrs. Stuart Compton and Miss Jo Anne Barton. Mrs. E. Kirk gave a report on the supreme PEO convention, which she attended in Long Beach, Calif. this fall.

Three circles of Florence Vail Mowbray society of Calvary Baptist church will meet Friday at 10 a.m. with a no-host luncheon at noon. Circle No. 1 meets with Mrs. J. P. Hunt, 120 E. Myers st.; Circle No. 2 with Mrs. Warren Lowery, 256 W. Miller st.; and Circle No. 3 with Mrs. T. H. Roens, 1896 N. Church st.

Salem Council of Women's Organization will meet at the chamber of commerce on Thursday at 2 o'clock. Leslie F. Smith, president of Salem College and Academy, will be the speaker. Mrs. F. M. Lobdell will talk on the "Youth Recreation Center," in connection with the city long range planning system.

The Kingwood Garden club held its regular meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. C. Heise. Luncheon was preceded by the business session. For roll call members responded with questions on house plants. A committee was appointed to visit the Cottage Home.

Clubs Are Honored

Bridge club gatherings are highlighting the social agenda this week.

The Morningside home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Paxson will be the scene of a no-host dinner and evening of bridge on Saturday night when members of her club entertain their husbands.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feike, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanders, Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barrick and Mr. and Mrs. Paxson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Schlaphohl were hosts for a dessert supper and evening of bridge Tuesday at their home on Pioneer drive for the pleasure of their club.

Mrs. Ward Davis will preside at a bridge luncheon Thursday night at her East Wilson street home in compliment to members of her club.

Mrs. Jack Price has bidden members of her club to her West Myers street home Thursday night for several hours of bridge and a late supper. Mrs. Douglas Chambers will be an additional guest.

Mrs. Dean Ellis entertained her club at bridge and a late supper Tuesday night at her Leffel street home. Mrs. Kenneth Sherman was a special guest.

Two Dances Are Slated

Two dances are on the weekend social calendar. The Bon Heur club will hold its regular formal dance Friday night at the Veterans' hall from 9 to 12 o'clock.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Baker, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wiscason and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Selander.

The Monday Night Dancing club will entertain with a dinner dance at the Marion hotel Saturday night. Dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock with dancing following to the music of Sonny St. Clair and her orchestra.
