

Attractive young blonde daughters of the Ralph Hamiltons are Sharon and Norma. Sharon is a junior at Salem high school and an active member of the Crescendo club. Norma, who is in the ninth grade at Leslie junior high school, served as president of the Girls League the past semester. (Kennell-Ellis).

State President to Speak...

Mrs. William B. Chandiee of Hillsboro, president of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs will be the guest speaker for the Saturday, January 24th meeting of the Salem Woman's club. The executive board will meet at one o'clock and the meeting will begin at two o'clock. Mrs. Chandiee will tell plans for the annual convention of the General Federation to be held in Portland May 24-28. A special guest accompanying Mrs. Chandiee will be Mrs. Barney Twiford of Hillsboro, publicity chairman for the state federation.

Following a plan which has been the custom for the General Federation conventions, the clubs in Oregon will be hostess to state delegations. The Salem Woman's club will be hostess to the New York state delegation and Mrs. Estill Brunk, local president, will be hostess to Mrs. Kenneth S. Strayer, president of the New York state federation. The General Federation is the world's largest women's organizations and represents nearly three million women from every state in the union and thirty-one clubs in foreign countries.

Mrs. Ralph Coie, accompanied by Mrs. Russell Parmenter, will sing a group of songs. Mrs. George Alling heads the tea directorate for the day.

Four daughters of the Tinkham Gilberts are left to right, Ann and Bep, the twins, Alceita, standing, and Rosemary. There is much activity at the Gilbert's country place in Orchard Heights when all four arrive home from school each day. Alceita is a junior at Salem high school and the fourteen year old twins attend the West Salem junior high school. Rosemary, who is ten, goes to Mountain View school. (Kennell-Ellis).

The Winter Social Whirl...

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

The social calendar is marked with varied events, including dinners, luncheons and teas. Dean Melvin H. Geist was feted at a surprise party on his birthday Saturday night when a group of friends gathered for a no-host affair at the Geist home on West Leffelle street. Games were in play during the evening with a late supper following.

Au Revoir Party

Mrs. Theron Hoover and Mrs. Herman Jochimsen will be hostesses for a 1:15 o'clock luncheon on Monday afternoon at the former's home on West Myers street in compliment to Mrs. Leon Lassers. Dr. and Mrs. Lassers and their children are leaving next weekend for San Francisco to make their home, where he has accepted a position with San Francisco state college.

Covers will be placed for 18 guests and the afternoon hours will be spent informally. Arrangements of spring flowers will provide the decorative note.

Luncheons on Monday

Mrs. Lloyd Riches has invited a few friends to luncheon Monday afternoon at her North Summer street home in compliment to a former Salem resident, Mrs. Ralph Olson of San Francisco, who is visiting in the capital a few days.

Also a luncheon hostess Monday afternoon will be Mrs. B. F. Williams who has invited guests to her home on Lancaster Drive. Bridge will be in play following the luncheon hour.

Guests Bidden to Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lamport will be hosts for a dinner party Wednesday night at their Ben Lomand park residence for 12 of their friends. Cards will be in play during the evening.

For a Traveler...

A much feted traveler is Mrs. Custer Ross, who leaves February 20 for an extended trip to the orient. She will be accompanied by Mrs. L. G. Lewelling of Albany and the matrons will sail from Seattle on a luxury freighter. Their main destination is Shanghai, where they will be guests of Mrs. Ross's son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Douglas Ross. The travelers will visit other Chinese cities in which they are permitted and Hong Kong. From there they will go on to Manila and if they are able to get transportation will go to Australia before returning to Salem.

Tea at Rossmans

One of the larger affairs being arranged for the pleasure of Mrs. Ross is the tea for which Mrs. Rossman and Mrs. David Eason will be hostesses on Friday afternoon, January 23 at the North Capitol street residence of Judge and Mrs. Rossman. Calling hours are from 3 to 5:30 o'clock.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. George Schwarz and Mrs. Roy S. Keene of Corvallis. The hostesses and honor guest will receive in the drawing room. Mingling with the guests will be Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. Frank Burlingham, Mrs. George H. Swift, Miss Eleanor Stephens, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mrs. E. J. Scellars, Mrs. Karl Kugel and Miss Dorathea Steusloff.

Mrs. Harry V. Collins will invite guests into the dining room. Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. L. G. Lewelling of Albany, Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, Mrs. D. R. Ross and Mrs. Frank H. Spears. Assisting will be Mrs. George Weller, who is in charge of the dining room, Mrs. P. H. Schnell, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Virgil Golden, Mrs. James C. Stone, Mrs. Asa Lewelling, Mrs. John Hughes and Mrs. George S. Rossman.

Twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers are Janice and Jeanne Myers. After graduating from Salem high school the girls attended Willamette university and then took art work at the University of Oregon. Jeanne is interested in fashion designing and is working at the Smart Shop. Her sister is busily engaged in farm work at the Myers' country place at Eola, and her hobby is photography. (Kennell-Ellis).

The Sister Act...

Look at a group of young girls and you have the latest thing in fashion. This week our sisters unanimously selected shirtwaists when they appeared before the camera. They have definitely taken on the "new look" with the Gibson Girl blouses and bows. Sister combinations, whether two, three or four, or from grade to college age, have a lot in common, even though their activities and interests are wide and varied.

The Ohling sisters, Sara Ann and Alice Louise, are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling. Sara Ann is a senior at Willamette university and will receive her sheepskin in June. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Her younger sister is a junior at Salem high school and an active member of the Vikesettes and many of the school's clubs. (Kennell-Ellis).

WOMEN'S SECTION

Three daughters of the Elmore Hills are left to right, Shirley, Marilyn and Kathryn. Shirley is a graduate of the University of Washington, previously having attended Oregon State college. She is an Alpha Gamma Delta. She is now receptionist at the Oregon Employment service. Kathryn graduated from Oregon State college and the University of Oregon Medical School of Nursing. She is now supervisor of the medical surgical ward at the Oregon State hospital. She is also an Alpha Gamma Delta. Younger sister, Marilyn, is a freshman at Oregon State and a pledge of Gamma Phi Beta. Last year she was worthy adviser of the Rainbow Girls. (Kennell-Ellis).

Coed daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Bates are Laura Jean and Barbara. Laura Jean, the eldest, is a senior at Willamette university and secretary of her class. She interrupted her college career to become a registered nurse. Barbara is a freshman at Willamette and is treasurer of her class. Both girls are members of Alpha Chi Omega. Barbara is interested in interior decoration. (Kennell-Ellis).

Brides-Elect to Be Honored...

Brides-elect are sharing in much of the entertaining during the mid-winter months.

Announcement is being made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Florence Wallace to James Sewell of Lewiston, Idaho. The couple will be married in Lewiston in early February. The bride-elect attended schools in Portland and is a dental assistant to Dr. K. K. Adams. Her fiancé served in the army during the war.

Miss Wallace will be feted at a buffet dinner party Wednesday night at 7 o'clock when Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Frank H. Spears and Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod entertain at the former's home on Chemeketa street. A miscellaneous shower will honor the bride-to-be. Thirty guests have been bidden to the affair.

Showers for Brides-elect

Miss Marilyn Townsend, March bride-elect of Donald Yocom, will be honored at a pre-nuptial party when Mrs. Wayne Yocom, mother of the prospective groom, and Mrs. Leo Graber entertain at the latter's home on the Garden road Thursday night. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be and a late supper will be served by the hostesses. The valentine motif will be carried out in the decorations.

Bidden to honor Miss Townsend will be Mesdames Thomas Hannon, Lee Long, Calvin Keuscher, George Sundlie, Gene Hoxie, Sidney McNeil, Deyann Miller, Seth Huntington, Don Fox of Portland, Bruce W. Carlin, Corvallis, James Rand, Ralph Yocom, John Johnson, H. M. Dowd, and Miss Lois Hamper.

Miss Dorothy Boyes, who will be married to James McKenzie on February 4, will be honored at a party Wednesday night when Miss Phyllis Fisher and Miss Ruth Squier entertain at the Earl Fisher home on State street. The guests will present the bride-elect with a gift and after an informal evening a dessert supper will be served.

Honoring Miss Boyes will be Mesdames Paul Smith, Alys Caviness, Joseph Himmel, Julie Murphy, Fred Olson, Misses Ruth Stover, June Johnson, Marjorie Mason, Rosemary Billings and the hostesses.

Mrs. Ivan Lowe (Helen Myers), a December bride, will be the honor guest at a shower Monday night when Miss Bessie Smith and Mrs. Fred Kruse entertain at the Smith home on North 21st street. Twenty have been bidden to the party. A late supper will be served by the hostesses.
