

Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

CAUGHT ... in the New York snow storm were the Benjamin Whisenands and year-old son, Jimmy, who are living in Georgetown, Va., while Benny attends George Washington university medical school. They had gone to New York to spend Christmas with his relatives. Their car was parked on a side street when it began snowing. Thus it was several days later before Benny was able to dig his car out. However, after they left New York the roads were fine enroute to Washington and they were mighty glad to get back to their apartment, small as it is. The Whisenands have hopes of obtaining a larger apartment this spring. In June they will head for the coast for the summer. During the winter her mother and sister, Mrs. James Mott and Beverly, are occupying their apartment at the Royal Court.

WELCOME BACK for the Wilbur Berrys, who have been in Rhode Island for several years. A week ago the John B. Powell entertained at their country place "Firlands" at Turner for the Berrys. Guests calling during the late afternoon. Lovely views overlooking the creek from the spacious windows. A touch of spring about the rooms. Bouquets of quince here and there.

The honor guest ... smartly dressed in a black, crepe gown with draped skirt and turquoise jewelry. The hostess in a handsome long-sleeved brown satin gown. Mrs. Otto Meschan and Mrs. Roy Bishop of Portland and Mrs. Carlton Spencer up from Eugene.

TIDBITS OF NEWS ... Soon to arrive from Chicago will be Mrs. Ray A. Yocom, who comes by train on the 20th. She plans to be here two months visiting her family and friends. She will make her headquarters at the Wayne Yocom home. In Corvallis she will visit her daughter and family, the Bruce Carkins, and in Portland with her youngest daughter and son-in-law, Roberta Jean and Don Fox, and in Salem with her three sons, Raymond, Ralph and Richard.

Following the sun ... Richard and Marian Nelson are driving south this weekend to San Francisco and other bay points for a ten day sojourn. While they are away her parents, the senior Carl Hultenbergs of Pacific City, will be here to be with the three children.

Also headed south on Monday will be the A. C. Haags, who are driving down for two months. They will make stops in Fresno, Palm Springs and Phoenix. Enroute home they will visit in San Francisco and San Jose with their daughter and family, the Dale Woods, who came north for a short visit during the holidays. New assignment for the Edward Busicks and young son, Jimmy, who arrived last week at March Field, Calif., where he reported for army duty. They will live nearby at Riverside and hope to enjoy the sun in their new convertible. Ed, who is with the regular army, has been at Fort Lewis.

An revoir ... will soon be said to the Wilson Siegmunds and their children, Jimmy and Martha, who will be moving to Astoria. Wilson, who has been a CPA with the secretary of state's office, has accepted a position with the Columbia River Packers association. He plans to leave next weekend and his family will follow as soon as living accommodations are obtainable.

New address ... for the junior Paul Hausers, who live in Portland. They are moving this weekend to their newly purchased house at 2426 N. E. 35th. Her mother, Mrs. Richard Robertson, is up there this weekend helping pack and move. The Gordon Wellers are now settled in their new home high up on a hill on the Dallas road with a grand view overlooking the Willamette river. Their attractive cottage is finished in knotty cedar.

Home again ... Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Myers (Evelyn Haag) and small son, Carl, who have been living in California since their marriage, have returned to Salem. They have purchased a home in Manbrin Gardens and he is now in business with her father.

IN SCHOOL ... John Weller, son of the George Wellers, and Don McAllister, son of the Lee McAllisters, are now enrolled in the California School of Fine Arts in San Francisco. The boys are enjoying the city as well as their art work. They have a grand apartment in one of the many host houses in the city, which provide board and room for the men. From their apartment they can look out over the bay, Golden Gate bridge and Fisherman's Wharf.

China Book Reviewed

Woman's Guild of the first Congregational church will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. to hear Mrs. Vera Shattuc review "Doctors East, Doctors West," one of the new books on China. Also on display will be other books on China, arranged by the Salem public library. Devotions will be led by Miss Eula McCully. Hostesses are to be Mrs. S. R. Huntington, Mrs. F. L. Van Booser, Mrs. Max Flohrer, Mrs. David Rhoda and Mrs. E. G. Ricketts.

Singers to Be Here Thursday

The Crescendo club's next concert is that of Sigurd Nilssen, bass baritone and Eloise O'Connell soprano at Salem high school auditorium on Thursday night, January 22 at 8:15.

Nilssen, a native Oregonian, is a graduate of Whitman college and later studied in Europe. For many years he was internationally known in opera. Nilssen later taught voice at University of Oregon and is now teaching in Portland.

His 1948 concert tour includes many cities in the northwest, California and Mexico. Miss O'Connell, a pupil of Mr. Nilssen, is also a native of the northwest. She attended Oregon schools and has appeared as a soloist on the east coast. Tickets will be on sale at the door of the auditorium Thursday or may be obtained from Crescendo club members.

Lucille Cummings will be the final artist on the Crescendo series and will appear here on February 12.

Mrs. Melvin Geist will be hostess for a one o'clock dessert luncheon at her West Leffelle street home Tuesday afternoon for members of the Theatre Arts group. The program will be a musicale, to be presented by Mrs. Bruce Spaulding.

Mrs. Ralph Cooley will preside at a one o'clock luncheon on Monday afternoon at her North Summer street home in compliment to the Women of Rotary board members. Plans will be made for the club's monthly luncheon meeting on January 28.

Mrs. Maurice H. Saffron and son, John, are spending the week in Portland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Golby.

Don't Look Now...

But ... all has not been quiet in the newsroom this week. One of the boys is to be married today, and another became the father of a 10 lb. 6 ounce baby Friday! Yes, it's been a very hard week for all of us.

The car may deceive ... We feel self-conscious when we have to ask the names of encores for music reviews but will not feel that way in the future. After Kathleen Broer's violin concert Thursday we asked three musicians for the name of the Kreisler number she played as an encore, each gave a different answer, and all were wrong. They knew it was Kreisler, but missed on the name.

Knitting for Brittain ... Seems that a Massachusetts woman started a drive for knitted shawls for Britons. This item was selected as good because easy to make, would be used for any size person and might be passed around in the family. Women who knit, it seems are blessed with a desire to do something for someone. Did you ever know a knitter who didn't spend most of her time knitting for someone else?

Time for change ... Personally, we pine for a nice warm rain, especially now that the gas bill has gone up.

In the week's news ... We sometimes hear a portion of a Saturday morning adventure on the radio, which glamorizes a very German sounding professor. This hero is exactly the same fellow who a few years ago was the world's worst scoundrel, even to his use of the word "schwein!" ... We were no epd amused to read in the paper that the ship which is carrying many supplies to Europe to endear the U.S. to European hearts and to help overcome the menace of Russia, is named "The Golden Bear." Wonder if any Europeans are colorblind. ... Maxine Buren
