League Officers In Eugene

Unless congress approves a plan to aid Europe by the end of March there might as well be no aid program, declared Dr. Edna Landros before the League of Women Voters council of presidents in Eugene last week. She urged league members to bring pressure to bear should the European Relief Program bog down in party politics.

Ways of increasing membership and details of the publication of the Salem league bulletin were discussed by Mrs. Alden Bowes, local president. At the close the Salem league was congratulated by the council on its rapid growth to 44 members in nine months. Attending the council as delegates from Salem were Mrs. John Clutter, welfare chairman, and Mrs. Bowes.

State board meeting and luncheon of the University of Oregon mother will be held Friday noon at Godfrey's. Mrs. Howard Boyd of Eugene, president, will preside at the session. Attending from Salem will be Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Raymond Walsh and Mrs. John H. Carkin.

Guests Here For Dill-Winkle Rites

Mrs. C. W. Dill has been hostess to members of her family who came to attend the wedding of her son, Donald Dill, and Elaine Winkle Sunday. The guests included her sister, Mrs. Alice Simpson of Eugene; a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mason and their daughter Vera June; a brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hankins, Bruce and Gordon, all of Cottage Grove; another brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller and Bonnie Lou, Shedd; a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nelson of Brownsville; Glen M. Hankins of U of O and Miss Lydia Swafford of Monmouth were also at the Dill home. Mr. Dill is ill in a San Francisco hospital and was unable to be here for his son's wedding.

Miss Kirsch a January Bride

WOODBURN — The marriage of Miss Clementine Kirsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Kirsch of Woodburn, to Robert G. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Anderson of Silverton, took place at St. Luke's Catholic church on January 10 with the Rev. Francis Hanley officiating. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white chiffon designed with high neckline and a ruffle on the yoke. The waistline at the back of the dress was ruffled, ending in a long train. The sleeves were long with ruffle edging. She wore a fingertip veil held in place with a Juliet cap. Her bouquet was of pink and white bouvardia centered with green orchids.

Miss Virginia Kirsch, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her dress was of blue satin. Bridesmaids were identical dresses to the maid of honor and
