Visitor Here From Africa

An interesting guest this week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Chester A. Downs is Mrs. Oury Hisey, who is visiting in Portland with her mother. The visitor has been making her home near Johannesburg, South Africa, where her husband is a consulting engineer for a British pulp and paper company. Mr. Hisey, who was here this winter, is now enroute back to South Africa and will be joined by his wife next fall. The Hiseys attended Willamette university and she was a Beta Chi and will be remembered as the former Margaret McDaniels. Mrs. Downs and Mrs. Hisey have kept up their friendship since college days and renewed their ties on several times in Europe, when both were living there. Mrs. Hisey's daughter, Ann, is now attending Middleburg college in Vermont and her son, Bob, is enrolled in a preparatory school in Massachusetts. This summer Mrs. Hisey and her children will live in Syracuse.

The covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. William Duncan of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Miss Margaret Newton, Miss Joan Lubyn of Portland, John C. Noble of Lake Oswego and the hostess.

Horner-Shinkle Vows Read

STAYTON — The Methodist church of Stayton was the scene of a candlelight service Sunday, January 4, at four o'clock when Miss Barbara Shinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shinkle, became the bride of Ted L. Horner of Portales, N. Mex. The Rev. Willard Buckner of Stayton Baptist church read the double ring ceremony. Mr. Shinkle gave his daughter in marriage.
A gown of ivory white satin, made with a sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves and having a slight train, was worn by the bride. Her full-length veil was held in place by white hyacinths and she carried a cascade bouquet of the same flowers centered by orchids. A pearl necklace, gift of the groom, was her only ornament.
Mrs. Margaret Horner, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Frances Shinkle, another sister, was bridesmaid. They wore similar dresses of blue and pink net, and carried colonial bouquets of pastel chrysanthemums.
Serving his brother as best man, was Ray Horner, and Vernon Short was usher. The candles were lighted by Nancy Shinkle, John Hickenbottom of Portland.
Preceding the ceremony, Morris Hickenbottom of Portland sang. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Betty Noble, also of Portland.
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shinkle chose a black dress with which she wore a small pink felt hat with black veiling. Her corsage was of pale pink carnations.
At the reception which followed the ceremony at the bride's home, the cake was cut by Mrs. Elinor Short, another sister of the bride. Mrs. Morris Hickenbottom poured and Mrs. Betty Noble and Miss Frances Shinkle served.
The bride is a graduate of Stayton high school and attended the Capital Business college in Salem. She has been employed at the Paris Woolen mills. The groom received his schooling in New Mexico and served in the South Pacific during the war.
For the wedding trip, Mrs. Horner wore a green suit with brown topcoat and accessories. She pinned her bridal orchids to her coat. On their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Horner will be at home in Toledo where he is employed.
