

Miss Nelson Tells Troth At Sorority

Romance has come again to the Delta Delta Delta house on the University of Oregon campus. For Thursday night Miss Elizabeth Nelson, one of the "sisters," announced her betrothal to Irwin Scott Adams of Milwaukee. The coeds learned the news after closing hours when the bride-elect passed violet nosegays tied with the Tri Delta ribbons to the names of the engaged duo. No wedding plans have been made.

Miss Nelson is the attractive blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Nelson of Salem. She is a graduate of Salem schools and is a junior at the University of Oregon. She is also a member of Phi Beta, national music honorary. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Adams of Milwaukee. He is a junior at the University and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. During the war he served in the army.

Mrs. Nelson, accompanied by Miss Janet Kirk, a sorority sister, went down for the engagement party.

An information reception will follow the services at the Barclay home on Fairmount hill.

Salem Man Married

Miss Carole Jane Leigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leigh of Minot, North Dakota, became the bride of Gordon M. Penix, son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Penix of Salem, on Sunday, January 18, at 2 o'clock at the Leslie Methodist church with the groom's father officiating at the double ring ceremony. Miss Bernice Boyce was the organist and Miss Alice Adams the soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by Joe Nelson, wore a white brocade marquisette gown with elbow length sleeves and a train. Her fingertip length veil was edged in lace and fell from a coronet of roses. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a white Bible marked with red roses and white carnations.

Mrs. George Kelly, sister of the groom, was matron of honor and Mrs. Everett Dickens was bridesmaid. They wore pink taffeta gowns and carried gardenia bouquets. Merritt Larson was best man and Don Karstens was the usher.

The bride's parents were unable to come west for the nuptials. Mrs. Penix attended her son's marriage in a black gown and corsage of gardenias.

A reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. D. M. Hinchee, sister of the bride, cutting the cake. Mrs. Joe Nelson was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds will live at Port Angeles, Wash., where the groom, radar man second class, is chief of the radar staff on his ship, the U. S. coast guard cutter Winona.
