

Christening At Chapel Sunday

Christening services will be held Sunday afternoon for three months old Rebecca Jeanne Purvine, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The Rev. George H. Swift will officiate at the 3:30 o'clock ceremony.

Mrs. Stewart Johnson and Mrs. Robert J. Herrall will be the little girl's godmothers and Dr. Arthur A. Fisher will be her godfather. She will wear the white christening dress and robe which her mother and brother, Billy, wore at their christenings. The dress is trimmed in handmade lace and the robe is embroidered in blue.

A small reception for members of the family and a few friends will be held following the services at the Purvine home on Saginaw street. The little girl's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Raymond of Winona, Minn., and Dr. Mary B. Purvine and both grandmothers will be present for the occasion.

Two Dinner Parties

Several informal dinner parties are on the social slate this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Smith will be hosts at dinner Saturday night at their Center street home. The evening hours will be spent informally. Guests of the Smiths will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Slater entertained at dinner Wednesday night at their Rural avenue home for a group of friends. Bridge was in play during the evening.

This is the first in a series of dinner parties the hosts are planning.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Judge and Mrs. E. M. Page, Miss Dorathia Steusloff and Mr. and Mrs. Slater.

Marriage Announced

GERVAIS—Mr. and Mrs. Merritt E. Clapper are announcing the marriage of their daughter Kathryn to John Allen Baker, Jr., on January 13 at Vancouver, Washington.

A son, Wayne Frederick, was born on Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Gil Lieser of Eugene. This is the Lieser's second child, their elder being a daughter. The Liesers, former Salem residents, are now living in Eugene.
