

Recently moved here are Mrs. Joseph A. Dodd and four-year-old daughter, Patricia Ann, who came here a few months ago from Portland. Mr. Dodd is district manager of the Portland Gas and Coke Co. The Dodds are residing at 1060 N. Cottage street. (Kennell-Ellis).

Wedding Plans Are Revealed by Maids . . .

Weddings will also take a spotlight on the calendar during the coming month. Several brides-elect are making known their wedding plans this weekend. Miss Wilma Noyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Noyes, will be married on February 8 to Newell Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Williams. The 8 o'clock ceremony will be performed at the Knight Memorial church with the Rev. Louis White officiating. Miss Gwendolyn Boyer will be the organist and Miss Patricia Kerber, the soloist. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Beverly McMillan and Miss Alice Adams.

Mr. Noyes will give his daughter in marriage and she has asked her sister, Miss Bonnie Noyes, to be her honor maid. Glenn Williams will be his brother's best man. Ushers will be Stanley Olson and Maurice Hunsaker. A reception will be held in the fireplace room.

A Home Ceremony

Miss Doro Lee Dunn and Russell Shaffer will exchange their marriage vows on February 15 at the Salem Heights home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert M. Dunn. The bride-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shaffer. Dr. Charles Durden will officiate at the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Mr. Dunn will give his daughter in marriage and her only attendant will be her sister, Miss Marjorie Dunn. Robert Reinke will stand with the groom as best man. Miss Shirley Gilkey will play the wedding music and Miss Armella Edler will light the tapers. A reception will be held after the nuptials.

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

February Dances Slated . . .

By Jerry English
Statesman Society Editor

February, always the popular month for dances, is no exception this year with large ones calendared each week-end, and two on some.

Always a highlight of the winter social season is the annual Military ball, sponsored by the Marion county Reserve Officers association. This year the formal affair will be held at the armory on Saturday, February 21. Guests will include all commissioned officers of the armed services and friends of the Reserve Officers' association. All officers will attend in uniform. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 o'clock with the grand march slated for 10 o'clock.

Major Harlan Judd is president of the Reserve Officers' association and Major Homer G. Lyon, Jr., is chairman of the ball committee. Adjutant of the receiving line will be Major Reginald Williams, assisted by Major Vinton Green, Captain Richard Chase and Lt. Roy Rice. Marshall of the grand march will be Colonel and Mrs. Douglas Wahl. Presentation of colors will be under the direction of Lt. Col. Howard Helleisen and Captain Richard Reynolds.

Assisting on the ball committee are Captain Don Gardner and Lt. Leonard Rowan, decorations; Lt. Col. Eugene Laird and Col. George Spaur, distinguished guests; Capt. Bud Woods, entertainment; Major Edward Dyck, check-room; Colonel Carl Nelson, invitations; and Captain Kenneth Potts, tickets.

The Salem Junior Woman's club annual Valentine formal dance will be Saturday, February 7 at the armory with Glenn Williams and his orchestra playing between 10 and 1 o'clock. A "sweetheart" dance will be a feature of the evening. Mrs. Lawrence Stoddard heads the directorate and tickets may be obtained from club members.

Clubs to Hold Dances

Most of the dancing clubs have slated parties for February. The Trotters club will hold their dance Friday night at Crystal Gardens with Claude Bird's orchestra playing from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jernigan head the host committee.

The Tillicum club will entertain with a formal dinner dance Saturday night at the Marion hotel. Sonny St. Clair and her orchestra will play for dancing. Valentine decorations will be used on the tables and about the rooms. Valentine's day is the date for the next Town club dinner dance at the Marion hotel. Walt Weber's orchestra from Oregon State college has been engaged to play for the formal affair. The Valentine motif will be used in decorating. The committee includes Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Drager, Clayton Foreman, Harold Olinger, Werner Brown, Vernon Perry and James Walton.

Subscription club members will hold their next dinner dance on Saturday, February 21 at the Marion hotel.

A newcomer in the capital is Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, pictured here with "Patty." The Gerlingers moved here the past week from Grants Pass and have taken a house at 2075 Center street. Mr. Gerlinger is proprietor of a new industry here known as Gerwood Products Co. (Kennell-Ellis).

Being welcomed in the capital are Mrs. Earl T. Newbry and daughter, Shirley, who have come from their home in Ashland to join Secretary of State Newbry. Miss Newbry will enroll at Salem high school as a junior this week. Until they find living accommodations the Newbrys are domiciled at the Marion hotel. The Newbrys made many friends here while he served as a member of the state senate. (Kennell-Ellis).

Doris Dixon Selects Wedding Party . . .

A bride of next Sunday will be Miss Doris Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Dixon, who will be married to Donald E. Robins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Robins of Oregon City, at an afternoon ceremony at the Calvary Baptist church. Dr. Charles Durden will perform the 3 o'clock ceremony. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Gloria and Miss Barbara Clintock. Miss Lois Ragsdale will be the soloist and Mrs. D. B. Kleihage the organist.

Mr. Dixon will give his daughter in marriage. Mrs. William McBee will be the honor attendant and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Delmer Dewey and Miss Dorothy Boyes, who becomes the bride of James McKenzie on Wednesday. Walter Logston of Oregon City will serve as best man and ushers include Jerry Lewis, George Johnson, Richard Coleman, Robert Mathers, and Robert Sullivan. The reception will be held in the church parlors.

A Bridal Shower

Miss Gloria Myers will entertain with a bridal shower for the pleasure of Miss Dixon Tuesday night at her South Winter street home. A dessert supper will be served by the hostess with several hours of cards to follow. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be.

Honoring Miss Dixon will be Mrs. V. C. Dixon, Mrs. Clifford Robins, Mrs. O. J. Myers, Mrs. Clinton Kilgore, Mrs. Delmer Dewey, Mrs. Fred Olson, Mrs. Edward Salstrom, Mrs. Courtney Jones, Misses Suzanne Small, Betty Manoles, Dolores Clement, Joan Randall, Miriam Stollenberger, Barbara Causey, Cleo Eaton, Dorothy Boyes and the hostess.

Engagement Told . . .

Highlighting the romantic news today is the announcement being made by Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. Noel of Newport of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Frances Purdue Tyler, to Charles Kent Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills of Salem. The wedding will take place on Valentine's day in Salem.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Klamath Falls schools and attended the Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland. Her fiancé is a graduate of Salem high school and served in the army five and a half years, being released as a lieutenant. Mr. Mills is a junior at Willamette university and a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is a member of the student council and forensic manager. He is well known in forensic activities, being a member of the debate team, which has won many honors this year. He will continue with his studies and the couple will live in Salem.

A Bridal Party . . .

Miss Helen Shepard, popular spring bride-elect of George C. Alexander, will be the honor guest at a pre-nuptial party Wednesday night when Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr. and Mrs. F. W. Poorman entertain at the former's home on North Summer street. Twenty-four guests have been bidden to a 7:30 o'clock dessert supper, which will be followed by several hours of contract bridge. The bride-to-be will be presented with her breakfast set.

A trio of engaged girls includes Miss Desso Lee Holmes, at the above left, Miss Joan Van Dusen, at the right; and in the circle, Miss Elizabeth Nelson. Miss Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Holmes, is betrothed to Donald Scheelar, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Scheelar. Miss Van Dusen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Van Dusen, is engaged to Arthur Ciapponi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Ciapponi of Oakland, Calif. Miss Nelson is the blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Nelson and her fiancé is Irwin Scott Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Adams of Milwaukie. (Miss Nelson's photo by Kennell-Ellis, the other two by Jester-Miller).

Committee members making final plans at lunch one day for the annual Military ball to be given February 21 are left to right: Major Homer Lyon, chairman of the ball directorate; Major Harlan Judd, president of the Marion county Reserve Officers association; Captain Kenneth Potts and Lt. Col. Eugene E. Laird, who are working on the general committee. The formal ball will be held at the armory, which will be highlighted by a grand march. (Kennell-Ellis).