

Forks Folks On the Move

MARION FORKS — Mr. and Mrs. Scott Young made a business trip to Stayton the past week. Robert Jones took his brother Calvin to Portland on Wednesday. He has been working for the Jostre Lumber Co. here.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Morgan visited at McMinnville over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith, formerly of Idanha.

Robert Young operated the ski tows at Hoodoo Bowl this week end during the absence of Ed Thurston, who made a trip to Mt. Hood to enter Kathy in the races there.

Visitors over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goodwe, Vern Fallhaves, Idanha, Otto Russell of Detroit, Vickie Laubach, Virginia O'Brien and party, Henry McIntire, R. A. Heider, Willamina; R. D. Blair, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Patterson, Redmond; Charles Mathis, Alice Smith, Bend; Bill Bunkley, Salem.

Enjoying the snow on the summit and at the Bowl were George Baine, Jr., Dick Haseman, Shirley Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Palmerton, Noyes Whitten of Idanha, Beverly Larson, Frances Zohler, Sheldon Johnson and Roger E. Lee of Silverton. The skiing was reported good, new snow having fallen.

At Marion Forks, six inches of new snow fell and a temperature of 19 degrees was reached today.

Rudeen Smith, son of Vaughn Smith, has returned home from the hospital. He suffered a broken ankle in a car wreck near Willamina.

Rally Night at Independence

INDEPENDENCE — A Sunday school rally night will be held at the Baptist church at 8 p.m. on February 6. Reverend Haslam, who has been giving a series of sermons for the past two weeks, will present approximately 65 youngsters in group singing. The junior choir will also sing.

Reverend Haslam will complete his sermons Friday night and will leave for a new location.

WALKING ISN'T CROWDED — Cologne, Germany, folk walk to work after tramway operators struck, asking for more food. Spire of Cologne cathedral is in background.

Woodcrafters Elect, Initiate

ALBANY — Highlighting the meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft Monday night was the election of officers, and initiation of a class of new members, with luncheon served after the business meeting.

Mrs. Ruth Curry was elected guardian neighbor to succeed Mrs. Mary Ochs who has served the past year. Other elective officers are Mrs. Maybelle Abraham, advisor; Mrs. Virginia Goltra, musician; Mrs. Alice School, banker; Mrs. Florence Kutach, attendant; Mrs. Bernice Hammond, flag bearer; Mrs. Edna Karstens, captain; Mrs. Lola Junkin, musician; Mrs. Dorothy Tabor and Mrs. Julia Borders, sentinels; Mrs. Florence Voss, Mrs. Alice Fiesler and Miss Anna Sexauer, managers; and Mrs. Anne Lake reporter and senior juvenile guardian.

Mrs. Edna B. Warner, who has served as Circle clerk for more than 40 years, was recommended for the same office to succeed herself, and Mrs. Ochs was recommended for installing officer. The new officers will be installed in April.

OLD FRIENDS HAVE BIRTHDAYS — Following a custom which was established some 48 years ago when both Walton Worrell and Frank Powell were fellow workers in the Albany postoffice, the two men met for their usual birthday dinner here Sunday. Powell now makes his home in Silverton where he has resided for many years. The birthday dinners are reversed each year, one year the Powells being the hosts and the next year Mr. Worrell. They have only missed one year of celebrating together since 1900.

This year Mr. Worrell entertained at the Greyhound Tavern, with his sister, Mrs. Bertha King, Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. Powell being present.

JEFFERSON COUPLE LEAVE FOR SOUTH — Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phelps left Saturday night for Long Beach to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hitt and family and at Wilsonville they will visit Phelps brother and family. They plan to be gone two weeks.

Mrs. Fred Wied and Myrtle Myers left Sunday for Los Angeles to visit their sister, Mrs. Mary Williams, and will be gone a month.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phelps celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary. Those present were their two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Phelps and children and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Phelps.

Mrs. Sam McGee has traded her house on Main street, known as the Humphry house, for the ten room house of V. B. Vallick in Marion. Mr. and Mrs. McGee are moving to Marion where he expects to open up a blacksmith shop.

Valley Obituaries

John H. Starns — Funeral services for John H. Starns, 87, who died in a local hospital Saturday were held from the Fisher funeral home at 2 p.m. Wednesday, February 4. Interment was in Riverside.

Born on March 8, 1860, at Waco, Texas, Starns had lived in Leavenworth, Kan., previous to coming to Oregon 71 years ago. After arriving here he lived in and near Eugene and Junction City, and for the past 44 years near Albany. He was a retired farmer, and was a member of the Free Methodist church.

On Oct. 5, 1881, Starns married Katherine Rickard in Corvallis, and in 1946 they celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Starns survives, as do two daughters, Mrs. Anna B. Gates of Harrisburg and Mrs. Rose A. Koenig of Salem; a son, Cleva T. Starns of Junction City; three sisters, Mrs. Kate Starr of Portland, Mrs. Belle Cochran of Sherwood, and Mrs. Birdie Giezantner of Yakima; a brother, O. B. Starns of Union; 16 grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren.

Sophronia Fyburn — Mrs. Sophronia Fyburn, 75, who came to Oregon from Salt Lake City, Utah, where she was born March 9, 1872, died at the family home here Tuesday night, February 3, following a short illness. Funeral services will be held from the Fisher funeral home at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, February 7, with Rev. Orville Mick conducting the services. Burial will be in Willamette Memorial park.

Sophronia Engberg was married to R. H. Fyburn at Brownsville in February, 1894. He died in 1941. Surviving children, Richard, Eugene, Leighton and Pete of Albany, Mrs. Martha Leach, also of Albany, Mrs. Belle Montgomery of San Leandro, Calif., Mrs. Jessie Clinton of Portland, and Mrs. Bertha Keeney of Horton. Two brothers, Walter Engberg of Medford and Horace Engberg of Portland were grandchildren and five great grandchildren also survive.

J. Fred Emmett — AMITY — J. Fred Emmett, formerly of Amity, late of Ashland, died January 19 at Community hospital at the age of 72 years. Born at Bethel, Polk county, Nov. 12, 1875.

He married Ethel Putman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Putman of Amity, on Sept. 2, 1900. He is survived by the widow, at Ashland, three daughters, four grandchildren and one brother, E. W. Emmett, Salem.

Emmett had been in business here for nine years, was a member of the Methodist church where he sang in the choir and was a member of the Amity Thirty Year club.
