LEBANON, Feb. 5.—Otto Baetsch, Lebanon, route 3, (leaning on side of car), shot this six foot ten inch cougar last Sunday between Crabtree and Roaring River forks. Admiring friends look on. (Photo by Bill Logan.)

Lyons Lodge In Session

LYONS — Faith Rebekah lodge met at the hall Wednesday night. Newly elected officers presiding were Hazel Shields, noble grand; Ruth Morris, vice grand; Garnett Bassett, secretary; and Beulah Lewis, treasurer. Rosa Berry, who was unable to be present at the regular installation, was installed as chaplain. Committee reports were heard. Kenneth Morris, drill captain, held a short practice after which refreshments were served. The Three Links club sponsored a card party at Rebekah hall Saturday night, proceeds to go to the March of Dimes. High scores in 500 went to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allery, low to Mrs. Floyd Bassett and Elmer Hiatt. High scores in pinocle were held by Mrs. Chris Andersen and Clyde Lewis, low scores by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Keillon, and Mrs. Roy Heineck drew the door prize. Refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Clyde Lewis and Mrs. Albert Carr.

The Lyons Women's club met at the community club house Thursday with a no-host dinner served at the noon hour. Mrs. Floyd Bassett, vice-president, was in charge of the business meeting due to the absence of Mrs. George Huffman, president. Five dollars was voted to the March of Dimes and $25 to the linoleum fund.

The Altar society sponsored a card party at the Rebekah hall Sunday afternoon. High scores were held by Mrs. Roy Heineck and Francis Jungwirth, low by Mr. and Mrs. John McClurg. No-host supper was served at 6 p.m.

The Home Economics club of the Santiam Valley Grange held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Floyd Bassett Tuesday afternoon. Six members were present. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Bassett served refreshments. Cecil Bassett, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bassett, was surprised Wednesday evening when a group of his school friends came to help him celebrate his birthday anniversary. Games and refreshments furnished the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards of Fox Valley are the parents of twin daughters. Mrs. Edwards and babies returned home from the hospital Monday.

Mrs. Arthur Anderson left Saturday for Seward, Neb., because of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Sena Johnson.

The Boy Scouts with their scoutmaster, Floyd Johnson, and Chet Grimes, committeeman, held a party at the Paul Johnston cabin on the Santiam river Friday. Gordon Heineck was guest for the evening. Games were followed by refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Clippell are the parents of a seven-pound baby boy born at the Salem General hospital. This is their third child, second son, and has been named Martin Edward.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Humphries were business callers at Burns Monday. They reported the weather very cold there.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson have moved their variety store to a new building, across from the Heineck grocery store, and will open it Friday and Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have been here for some time but have been handicapped for the want of room where they were located.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Koffler of Woodburn have moved to Lyons. He has replaced Jack Powell, who had been here for the past three months in the barber shop.

Mrs. Wallace Power is spending two weeks in California, at Glendale and Los Angeles, where she will visit relatives. Charles Power also made a business trip to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Byers of California visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Berry. Mr. Byers is a brother of Mrs. Berry.

Kenneth Lewis who is attending trade school in Portland spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis.

Harry Elmer has been taken into the state police force and started his duties Monday morning. He will be located near the Albany territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Berry have moved into the Jack Johnston residence, formerly the Floyd Bassett residence.

Mrs. Paul Smith left Thursday for California, where she will spend a month with her two sons at San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Mrs. Summers and little daughter of Portland visited her mother, Mrs. Catherine Lyon.

Mrs. Fred Gooch of Lyons is convalescing in the Salem Memorial hospital following an operation Friday evening.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 — (AP) — Business loans by federal reserve member banks in the nation's leading cities declined in volume during the week ended January 28 for the first time this year, a federal reserve board report showed Wednesday.

The drop was $34,000,000. It carried total commercial, industrial and agricultural loans down to $14,727,000,000.

Real estate loans, however, increased $8,000,000 to a new record high of $3,514,000,000.

RADIO CLUB TOPIC FOR INDEPENDENCE — Frank Coffin of Salem spoke at the Women's club meeting Tuesday on commercial radio and television and the part that radio plays in daily life.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. C. A. Fratzke, Mrs. Paul Dodd, Mrs. H. N. Mattison, Mrs. W. A. Wiest and Mrs. Flavia Branch.

Mrs. Daniel Schriber has taken the position as secretary to W. J. Swift of the Independence Lumber and Manufacturing Co. Her husband is manager of the J. C. Penney store here.

Mrs. H. N. Mattison and Mrs. Swope were to be hostesses for the Delphian Book club Thursday at Mrs. Mattison's home.

Mrs. Mockmore Guest Speaker

DALLAS — Mrs. Buena Maris Mackmore, dean of women at Oregon State college, was the guest speaker when the Dallas Woman's club met at Library hall Tuesday at 2 p.m. for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Mackmore, taking as her topic "Words," told of the importance of careful choice of words and our understanding of them in the communication of ideas, whether used in international or local relations.

Musical selections were given by the high school girls' trio composed of Alice Nallinger, Marcel Burr and Jean Lambert. Nancy Kirpatrick, director of music in the Dallas schools, was the accompanist. Mrs. Allie Hannagin, a club
