Miss Cook Now Mrs. Sawyer

The First Christian church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Donna Jane Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Guy Cook, and Ellis Rex Sawyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sawyer, Thursday night. The Rev. Dudley Strain officiated at the 7:30 o'clock nuptials. The altar was banked with baskets of acacia and white snapdragons flanked by white tapers. Mrs. John Van Satten was the soloist and Mrs. John Schmidt, jr., the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a mist blue ballerina suit with short, double breasted jacket for her wedding. She wore a navy blue straw hat and navy accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a light pink orchid.

Miss Louise Campbell was the honor maid and wore a burgundy suit to which was pinned a pastel pink carnation corsage. Gaff Osborn stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Merrill Carpenter and Richard Wallace.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Osborn, on Maple street. Mrs. Osborn and Mrs. Dale Mauk presided at the urns and Mrs. Ernest Wekander, aunt of the bride, cut the cake.

Both Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Sawyer selected grey suits for the wedding and their corsages were deep pink carnations.

After a trip at the Oregon beaches the couple will be at home in Salem.

Mrs. Lauris Miller of Mitchell, S.D. is stopping in Salem visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Devers, sr., en route home after spending six months in southern California. She will visit other relatives in Yakima and Seattle, and expects to be home by March 1.

Mrs. Armprist A Hostess

Mrs. Donald Armprist entertained with two parties this week at her home on North 24th street. Wednesday night she was hostess for a bridge party, followed by late refreshments. Guests were Norval Edwards, Mrs. Frank Earnest, Mrs. A. C. Newell, Mrs. William DePew, Mrs. George Fletcher, Mrs. Wayne Smith and Mrs. Ardell Peterson.

Tuesday night Mrs. Armprist entertained members of her bridge club at a dessert supper. Additional guests were Mrs. William Bush and Mrs. Ridgley Miller.

Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren and children, Sally and Doug, have returned from a stay in Portland with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Hollingworth, and her brother-in-law and sister, the Edwin McWains.

Visitors in Salem Wednesday were Mrs. W. D. Watson and her daughter, Mrs. Harry Stepp of Portland. Both formerly resided in the capital.

Travelers Return

The winter months are definitely travel time for many Salem people. As many return home each day as leave for sojourns in the south.

Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans is being welcomed home from a six weeks stay in Long Beach and Pasadena, Calif. She went south before Christmas with her sister, Miss Frances Hodge, of Portland and they spent the holidays with Miss Gertrude Eakin in Long Beach. Miss Eakin is a former Salem resident. Miss Hodge returned north after the first of the year, but Mrs. Rosecrans went on to Pasadena to spend a month with her cousins.

Mrs. George Waters is home from a two months stay in the south. She visited in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Palm Springs and other southern resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stacey have returned from a trip south to San Francisco and Los Angeles, where they have been visiting relatives and friends for a month. Robert E. Shinn and his son, William Shinn, returned Wednesday to the capital after a month's business trip which took them to New York City, Boston, Washington, D.C., Baltimore and home by way of San Francisco.
