

Soprano at High School Thursday

Lucille Cummings, dramatic soprano, who will appear in concert on the Salem high school auditorium platform at 8:15 Thursday night, will sing the first full length recital in Salem, her home town, for several years.

She appeared at the Cherry Festival in several numbers last summer and received many plaudits for her fine singing.

Aurora Potter Underwood of Portland university will accompany her.

Since graduating from Salem high school she has gone far in her profession in Radio City and on the concert stage. She recently came from San Francisco to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Cummings of Salem.

Miss Cummings' program will include members by Handel, Scarlatti, Brahms and Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, assisted by members of the Salem Crescendo club, sponsoring group, will be hosts at a reception for friends of Miss Cummings following the concert. The reception is to be at the Spaulding home, 219 West Lincoln street. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Brydon, Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnett and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Brinkley will assist about the rooms.

Mrs. E. A. Carlton, Mrs. Reuben Hilfiker and Mrs. Deena Alma Davis have been asked to pour.

"Berkeley" Coming

The costume play, Berkeley Square, which will be presented by the Willamette university workshop in two performances February 13 and 14 and directed by Lloyd Jones, head of Willamette university's drama department.

All seats are reserved and may be obtained at Miller's, at Willamette student body office or by calling 3088.

The play by John L. Balerston offers the cast an opportunity to act against the backgrounds of two centuries. To achieve this, the hero, an American of English ancestry leaves America to claim a house he has inherited in London. While there he discovers old papers and books about the lives and experiences of his ancestors. He becomes so engrossed in reading about their world that through some strange medium he is allowed to trade places with an ancestor for a month. Complications arise however when the hero falls in love with the sister of his ancestor's fiancée.

The central character is played by Robert Scott, supported by a cast comprised of Marion Sparks as the Lady Anne Pettigrew and Barbara Burrier as Helen Pettigrew. Harriet Ness, John Kooy, Joe Power, Harry Ryan, Margaret Guice, Addy Lane, Lloyd Hanson, Eleanor Loveless, Gloria Nandie and Tom Grimm complete the cast.

Aside from the directing the production of the play is being handled by the students. Publicity manager is Harriet Ness, assisted by Jean Carico and Virginia Weeks. Polly Pollock prompts the cast, who will act in sets which will be authentic reproductions of 1784 furnishing designed and constructed by Carl Ritchie. Sheila Ryan is in charge of properties and Beth Tedford and Reid Shelton are handling make-up.

Zonta Postpones

Zonta club has cancelled its program meeting set for February 12, next Thursday, because of conflict with other activities on that date. The regular business meeting will be February 26 at the home of Mrs. Karl Becke.

Rainbow Girls will hold their birthday dinner Tuesday night at the Masonic temple at 6 o'clock. A covered dish dinner will be served, to be followed by a meeting and formal initiation. The grand deputy of Oregon and the grand officers will be honor guests. Miss Joan Smith, worthy adviser, will preside.

Lucille Cummings, dramatic soprano who appears in concert at 8:15 Thursday night at Salem high school auditorium. Her recital is the highlight of the Crescendo club's winter series.

Dream Girl Stars Ex-WU Student

February 27 has been set for the date of the first of three 20-30 club sponsored plays for the benefit of the Salem Memorial auditorium association. "Dream Girl" will star Terry Clemes, a graduate of Willamette university. Miss Clemes, after studying at Pasadena playhouse, was in the casts of several plays headed by Eve La Gallienne in New York.

Reserved seat tickets for the three plays, "Dream Girl," "Made in Heaven" and "Kiss and Tell" will be on sale a week previous to the first production.

The plays are being presented here by the Civic Drama Guild of New York and are directed by Stanley Woolf.

Young Girls in Recital Today

Two young musicians, Arlyne Hilfiker, soprano, assisted by Dorothy Pederson, pianist and Gladys Edgar, accompanist, will be presented in recital at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Roberts studio.

Friends and musicians are invited. Miss Hilfiker is a pupil of Lena Belle Tartar.

The program includes:
ADD Young Girls - 21
Se tu m'am, se sospiri - Pergolesi
