NEW YORK, Feb. 7 -(AP)- The stock market enjoyed a modest recovery shift today after the second sharpest week's tumble since last May.

The biggest commodity break in many years received the principal blame for the recent lapse in securities. There was the feeling that falling staples might mean that a business recession was in the offing. Persistent doubts regarding taxes, labor and international affairs, including unsettlement of European currencies, prompted selling from Monday on. Today's comeback was credited mainly to professional short covering and other bidding for a technical correction. Most customers still held all of or trimmed accounts. Improvement in cotton and some grain futures helped prop sentiment in the short' session although demand was notably timid. Transfers for the two hours

Aircraft 511/2, Santa Fe 90 and Youngstown Sheet 70%. Elsewhere advances were mainly in fractions. FUNERAL SHIPS TO ARRIVE SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7-(AP)-The funeral ship USAT Cardinal O'Connell will arrive Thursday
