

For a Visitor . . .

Mrs. J. Bothwell Avison will be a party hostess Monday night at her McNary street home in honor of her mother, Mrs. C. O. Rinehart of Pendleton, who is visiting here at the home of her daughter and family. Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge to follow. The Valentine motif will be carried out in the decorations.

Valentine Social Whirl . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Always a festive time for entertaining is the valentine season. Red heart shaped invitations were in the mail this last week to a valentine tea for which Mrs. Karl G. Becke and her daughter, Mrs. William Shinn, will be hostesses on Valentine's day at the Becke home on North Summer street. The affair is being arranged in compliment to popular spring bride-elect, Miss Helen Shepard, who will be married on March 20 to George C. Alexander.

Guests have been invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock. At the door will be the bride-elect's sisters, Sydney and Susan Shepard. Receiving in the living room will be the hostesses, Miss Shepard and her mother, Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard. Those who have been asked to preside at the tea urns during the afternoon are Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. George H. Swift, Mrs. Edward O. Stadter, Jr. and Mrs. Harry V. Carson, Jr. of Silverton.

Hostesses to Give Luncheons

Mrs. Lester Carter and Mrs. Robert DeArmond will be hostesses for two valentine parties on Friday at the former's home on Park avenue. In the afternoon 12 guests have been invited to a one o'clock bridge luncheon and in the evening the hostesses will entertain at bridge and a late supper for 16 of their friends. The valentine motif will be used in decorating.

Mrs. Homer L. Goulet and Mrs. Reynolds Allen will entertain with two luncheons this week at the former's country home in compliment to a group of their friends. The hostesses have invited guests to one o'clock bridge luncheons on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons.

Au Revoir Party

Mrs. A. A. Rogers will preside at a one o'clock luncheon on Friday afternoon at her North Summer street home for the pleasure of Mrs. Custer Ross, who is soon leaving for an extended trip to the orient. Bidden to the au revoir luncheon are members of Mrs. Ross' club and a few friends. Covers will be placed for 16 and bridge will be in play following the luncheon hour. The hostesses will use the Valentine motif in her table and card appointments.

To Welcome Newcomers

Mrs. Charles Barclay has bidden a group of friends to luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her Fairmount Hill home to welcome Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Jerome Lillie and Mrs. Arthur Burton, wives of new Willamette university faculty members. Bridge will be in play during the afternoon and the hostess will be assisted by her sister, Mrs. James B. Haley.

Covers will be placed for Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Jerome Lillie, Mrs. Arthur Burton, Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Mrs. Charles Heitzel, Mrs. James B. Haley, Mrs. Wallace Hug, Mrs. Edward O. Stadter, Jr., Mrs. Vincent Davis, Mrs. Wayne Loder and the hostess.

Hi-Y Sweetheart Dance . . .

Always a highlight of the year for the high school set will be the Hi-Y Sweetheart dance on Valentine's day at the high school gymnasium. Dancing for the formal affair will be to the music of Glenn Williams and his orchestra between 9 and 12 o'clock. The three sweetheart candidates will be announced this week with the "Sweetheart" not to be revealed until intermission at the dance. The entire student body is invited to attend and hosts for the affair are members of the three Hi-Y chapters. Arthur Cotton, Abel Gregg and Harrison Elliott.

Ladies Dinner Night . . .

The annual Rotary ladies night dinner will be an event of Wednesday night in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel. The 7 o'clock dinner is informal and presiding will be the president, Gardner Knapp. Covers will be placed for over 200 members and guests.

The guest speaker will be a former Salem resident, the Rev. W. Irwin Williams of Long Beach, Calif., with Mrs. Williams, has come north for a visit with Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom. His subject will be "Hi Neighbor, Hi." Special features on the program will include organ numbers by Wayne Meusey and solos by Dean Melvin Geist. Harry B. Johnson heads the committee and assisting are Melvin Millett, Paul Heath and Dean Geist. Corages will mark places for the guests.

WOMEN'S SECTION

Formal Dances Slated . . .

Dances highlight next weekend's social calendar. The Town club will entertain with a formal dinner dance Saturday night in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel at 9 o'clock with Walt Weber's orchestra from Oregon State college playing for the affair. St. Valentine's decorations will carry out the theme of the day. Hosts greeting guests on arrival include Dr. and Mrs. William Lidbeck, Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Lancelfield, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Paulson and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Davis.

Several pre-dance parties are being arranged before the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Busick have invited a group of their friends to call at their South High street home before the dance. They will have as their out-of-town guests for the evening, Dr. and Mrs. William Ott of Dallas.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Tupker and Dr. and Mrs. Horace McGee have sent out invitations to a pre-dance party at the Tupker home on East Center street. Calling hours are from 7 to 9 o'clock. The hostesses will use the valentine motif in decorating with red carnations for the buffet table centerpiece.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevens for the dance and weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis of Portland. Coming from Seattle for the dance and to be weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts will be his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Potts.

Wisteria Dance

The Wisteria dancing club will hold a Valentine dance on Friday night at the Veteran's hall with Guy Albin's Top Hatters playing from ten to twelve o'clock. Decorations will include hearts hanging from the lights and large lace edged hearts at the windows. A feature of the evening will be a "sweetheart dance" with the men receiving the ladies as they step through a large heart, framing the doorway, into the spotlight on the dance floor. After the dance the partners will escort their ladies to supper.

The directorate includes Messrs. and Mesdames Floyd Seamster, David Dunaway, George Nopp, John Graham, Harold Shogren, H. M. Lucas and Joseph Matujec.

Our Album of Sweethearts . . .

These sweet young things take on the "new look" of half century ago, as we turn the pages of the family album. Posing above for our Valentine pictures are left to right, Catherine Siegmund, daughter of Floyd Siegmund; Sue McElhinny, daughter of the Charles McElhinny and Paulie Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace.

Below are pictured left to right, Nancy Snyder, daughter of the Walter Snyders; Beulah Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Arnold; Jean Pickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pickens and Dorothy Polanski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Polanski. (All photographic work by Kennell-Ellis).

