

Rites Read At Church Ceremony

At an 8 o'clock ceremony Saturday night at the First Congregational church Miss Patricia Berryhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Berryhill, became the bride of Lauren H. Kuebler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kuebler. The Rev. Seth Huntington performed the nuptials before a setting of pink and white snapdragons and candles. Mrs. Grover Ferguson sang and Jean Hobson Rich was the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Evelyn Forman and Mrs. Donald Dougherty, who wore pink dresses.

The bride, who walked down the center aisle on the arm of her father, wore a white taffeta period style gown fashioned with hooped paniers, long sleeves and a full train. The fitted bodice was enhanced with insets of lace and tiny buttons from neckline to waistline. Her fingertip length tulle veil was embellished with lace in back and cascaded from a duch cap of starched lace to match the lace on her gown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and pink bouvardia.

Mrs. Charles Flegel was the bride's honor matron and wore a blue taffeta frock and Miss Nadine Zaniker, bridesmaid, had a pink taffeta dress. They were designed identical with full skirts, Peter Pan collars, cap sleeves and buttons down the front of the bodices. Both wore contrasting net headresses with coronets of white hyacinths. They carried heart shaped bouquets of white net with clusters of pink tulips and blue iris in one corner with chains of hyacinths.

Donald Dougherty was best man and ushers were Gary Kuebler, Donald Berryhill and Eugene Richter.

The bride's mother chose a wine suit with pink hat and blouse and black accessories for the nuptials. Mrs. Kuebler wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories and a fuchsia hat. Their corsages were of gardenias and pink roses.

A reception was held in the fireplace room. Mrs. Charles Krauger cut the cake and pouring were Mrs. A. K. Steinbruck and Mrs. George Richter. Serving were Miss Mildred Steinwart and Mrs. Leonard Howe. Mrs. Kenneth Hewitt was in charge of the gifts and Miss Esther Lenaburg passed the guest book. Sally Ann Kuebler passed the dream cakes.

The newlyweds went south to California on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride donned a burgundy suit with long jacket, teal blue blouse, black felt derby and black accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Kuebler will return to Salem and will be at home at the Hoover apartments.

The University of Oregon Mothers and Dads will hold a joint meeting Monday night at the American Legion hall. A covered dish dinner will be served at 8 o'clock. All mothers and dads of University of Oregon students are invited to attend. Special guests will be Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand and Mrs. Brand will speak on her experiences in Europe following the dinner hour.

Reception Follows

At a quiet double ring ceremony Saturday night in the study of the Rev. Dudley Strain, pastor of the First Christian church, Miss Wilma Dunigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Dunigan of Salem, became the bride of Royce M. Linhart of Salem.

Attending the couple were Miss Doris Mae Lappin and Glen Kelly. Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors at 8 o'clock to which additional friends and relatives were bidden. The newlyweds will make their home in Salem.

Miss Dixon To Marry Today

Calla lilies will bank the altar of the Calvary Baptist church this afternoon for the wedding of Miss Doris Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Dixon, and Donald E. Robins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Robins of Oregon City. At 3 o'clock Dr. Charles Durden will perform the ceremony. Miss Lois Ragdale will sing and Mrs. D. B. Klehege will be the organist. Lighting the tapers at the altar and in the windows will be the Misses Gloria and Barbara McClintock. They will wear identical frocks of white marquisette with tiered skirts.

Of white satin is the bridal gown fashioned with a fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline and net yoke inset edged in satin quilted design. The sleeves are long and full, extends from a low waistline and ends in a train. A tiara of orange blossoms will hold her fingertip length tulle veil in place. She will carry a crescent shape bouquet of gardenias. Mr. Dixon will give his daughter in marriage.

Preceding the bride to the altar will be Mrs. Delmer Dewey and Miss Gloria Myers as bridesmaids and Mrs. William McBees the honor matron. The latter will wear a champagne crepe gown with gathered waist enhanced with lace and a full skirt. She will carry a crescent bouquet of daffodils and bouvardia. The bridesmaids will wear frocks of spruce green made with ballerina skirts, cap sleeves and round necklines. They will carry crescents of camellias and wear short yellow veils caught with silver braids.

Walter Logston of Oregon will stand with the groom as best man and seating the guests will be Jerry Lewis, George Johnson, Richard Coleman, Robert Mathers, Robert Sullivan and Kurt Wilkerson.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Dixon will wear a suit of ashes of roses with pink accessories and black hat with pink trim. Mrs. Robins will attend her son's marriage in a grey suit with pink hat and accessories. Their corsages will be of gardenias.

At the reception in the church parlors Mrs. Emmett Logston of West Linn will cut the cake and pouring will be Mrs. Walter Dixon and Mrs. Lester Bailey. Assisting will be Miss Joan Randall, Miss Peggy Fargher, Mrs. Clinton Kilgore and Miss Dolores Clement. Miss Miriam Shellenberger will pass the guest book and at the gift table will be Mrs. Violet Fulinene and Mrs. John Wiles.

When the couple leave on their honeymoon the bride will don a navy blue suit with grey accessories and navy blue felt hat. Mr. Robins will take his bride to Oregon City to live, where he is in business.
