

Ericksens to Be Hosts

The South Cottage street home of Mr. and Mrs. Bjarne Ericksen will be the scene of two informal parties this weekend.

The Ericksens will entertain a group of friends at a dessert supper party tonight preceding the Wisteria club dance. The Valentine motif will be carried out in the table appointments.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull, Dr. and Mrs. Estill Brunk, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Seawater, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Beutler, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Majek and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kleinke.

Sunday night the Ericksens will be hosts for an au revoir party in compliment to the Robert Bowmans, who are soon leaving for Portland to make their home. A dessert supper will be followed by an informal evening.

Honoring the Bowmans will be a group of neighbors including Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Berry, Mr. and Mrs. James Barrick and Mr. and Mrs. E. Brayden Daggett.

Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand are leaving today for Coos Bay where they will fulfill speaking engagements and be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Powers, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McInturff. Mrs. Brand will remain a week and her husband will return the first of the week. The Brands made their home in Coos Bay prior to coming to Salem.

Miss Anne Beam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beam of Mt. Angel, whose engagement to Dale Each, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Esch, was revealed at a party for which the bride-elect's sister, Miss Mary Beam, was hostess on February 9. No wedding plans have been made. (Kennell-Elis).

LESLIE JUNIOR HIGH Queen Named

Norma Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton, 210 East Lincoln st., was chosen Queen of Hearts at Leslie school Thursday and reigned as queen of the annual Valentine party held from 4 until 8:30 in the gymnasium. Norma was selected by student vote from a group of 15 girls nominated for their beauty, personality and popularity. Runners-up in voting and named princesses were Leadell Davis and Colleen McNeill.

The party included relay games, dancing, free movies and refreshments. The queen and her princesses were dressed in formal gowns and seated on thrones decorated in red and white at one end of the gymnasium. A false ceiling of red and white and red hearts carried out the decoration scheme.

Seventh Grade Wins

The seventh grade walked off with the annual yell contest held Wednesday during the noon hour at Leslie. The eighth grade came in second and the ninth grade third. Trevor Tauske and Harry Mohr were the advisors for the winning class and Donald Agnew the yell leader. Yells had to be written in red and white and were judged on presentation and adaptability. Three teachers, Miss Amanda Hargis, Miss Alplhid Wahl and Miss Ida McCullough, acted as judges.

Assembly for Club

A special assembly for the Bush school mothers and dads club was held Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium, featuring a talk by Superintendent Frank B. Bennett on the coming bond issue sponsored by district 24 to improve Salem schools. Miss Lenore Headley of the Marion county health department spoke on the care of teeth and announced a dental clinic to be held next Tuesday and Friday mornings. A talent show, featuring Bush students, completed the program.

Minor Revolt In Costa Rica

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Feb. 12 (AP)—A policeman was killed and several persons wounded last night in post-election demonstrations by members of the government republican national party, apparent loser in last Sunday's balloting.

Shooting continued sporadically up to midnight. Four ambulances loaded with wounded were seen going to the General hospital.

One officer of the presidential guard said the firing was started by Ulatistas, supporters of Otilio Ulate Blanco, apparent winner of the presidency.

Services for D. B. McKnight Slated Friday

LEBANON, Feb. 12 (Special) Funeral services will be held at Fortmiller chapel, Albany, at 2 p.m. Friday for D. B. McKnight, pioneer Linn county resident who died on his 88th birthday Monday in his Sandridge home. Interment will be in Sandridge cemetery.

Mr. McKnight, who had been ill since January, served as Linn county judge and county assessor between 1902 and 1919. He was a widely known stockman and breeder of light harness horses. At one time he organized an orchestra which played for early pioneer celebrations.

Born near Lebanon in 1860, he was the son of the James W. McKnights who were pioneer settlers of 1852.

His wife, Julia Ann Millhollen McKnight, preceded him in death 12 years ago. He leaves four daughters, Gladys, Mayme and Mildred in Lebanon and Edna in New York City, and three sisters, Ida and Roma McKnight of Portland and Mrs. Millard Armstrong, Linn county.

For the funeral Lloyd Gilson of Lebanon will be soloist, accompanied by organist Mrs. J. C. Booth. Honorary pallbearers are Dr. J. C. Booth, Albert Wilson, Earl Fisher, Salem, R. M. Russell, W. L. Jackson and Frank Steelmacher, all of Albany. Active pallbearers are Carl Porter, Will Glasser, Herman Gasser, Dayton Holloway, Albert Wheeler and Herbert Reidy.

Two Silverton Masonic Groups Conduct Dance

SILVERTON — L. C. Eastman, old-time violinist, and Mrs. Allen Gribble, pianist, furnished music for the county club Masonic dance Friday. Decorations combined rural and St. Valentine, with bales of hay used for seating and Valentines matched for the box supper partners. Dancers came in costume, also a combination of the "hard time" and St. Valentine.

Felix Wright and Mrs. Clinton Weiby were joint chairmen. Assistants were Mrs. Hal Fischer, Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riches and R. A. Fish.

Ramona club met Tuesday with Mrs. R. A. Fish, Mrs. Charles Leonard, Mrs. Harlan Loe and Mrs. Weiby were co-hostesses.

Social Planned By Two Women's Groups of Lyons

LYONS—Mrs. Albert Ring was hostess for the meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at her home Tuesday. Mrs. Alex Bodeker conducted the business meeting and Mrs. George Clippell led devotions.

Plans were made to have a tamale social jointly with the Women's club at the community club house Thursday evening February 19, with the following committee in charge: Mrs. R. T. Cookingham, Mrs. Albert Julian and Mrs. Glen Julian from the society, Mrs. Roy Huber, Mrs. Earl Allen and Mrs. Lawrence Walforth from the Women's club.

Tamales will be on sale in the afternoon and evening, to be served with pie, crackers, bread and butter and coffee. Proceeds will go to the luncheon fund for the club house and kitchen. At the Tuesday meeting Mrs.

Ring served refreshments to Mrs. Albert Julian, Mrs. Catherine Julian, Mrs. Lawrence Walworth, Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Roy Huber, Mrs. Guillian, Mrs. Daisy Johnston, Mrs. R. T. Cookingham, Mrs. Alex Bodeker, Mrs. Monroe Walker, Mrs. George Clippell and Mrs. Fannie Wilson.

Elfstrom's Have Made Our House Just Like a Pretty Picture . . .

Quality painting not only gives your home new beauty, but protects it from time and weather. This matter of protection is doubly important today, for rising prices mean costly repairs and replacements and shortages mean the possibility of not being able to secure what you need at all. Dependable, first quality painting and decorating as practiced by all our craftsmen costs no more than unskilled, haphazard painting — for you are assured of a paint job that will look excellent when finished and one that will endure. Telephone 9221 and we can make arrangements to estimate your work and give you a definite date that will work out to the advantage of all concerned.
