Scouts, Parents at Middle Grove Meeting

EAST SALEM - Scout troop 42 sponsored by the Middle Grove Community club held annual open house Monday night at Middle Grove school for parents and friends. Guards presented the national and troop colors.

Following the introduction of those present, John Van Lannen introduced Claude Graham, chairman of the organization committee of the Cherry City district of the Cascade council. Two new scouts, Lewis Patterson, jr. and Deam Way, were received into the troop.

Emory Goode, representing the community club in the absence of Mrs. William Kaufman, club president, presented the troop with its charter for the coming year. The troop has been organized seven years.

Scout certificates of registration were presented by Graham to Robert Pickerell, scoutmaster, and Gordon Wyatt, assistant scoutmaster; John Van Lannen, Institutional representative, and committeeman, Robert Wagers. Committeemen were Ted Kuenzi, William Kleen, Cleo Keppinger, Jack Wikoff and Lewis Patterson. Registration certificates were presented to the scouts by their scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster. At the court of honor which followed, Jimmy Kuenzi, Wayne Goode and Donald Bassett received the dairying merit badge and Jack Wikoff, jr. merit badges for dairying, hog and poultry production, community farming and carpentry.
