Five Charged with Soliciting Subscriptions without Permit

Arrest of five persons by city police Thursday on charges of soliciting magazine subscriptions without a permit, brought a warning from Police Chief Frank Minto that book and magazine agents must secure permits to solicit in Salem.

"No one in the city now has a permit to solicit subscriptions to magazines, books or periodicals," Chief Minto revealed. "And no such permit can be given until Febru-

Gandhi's Death Compared to Lincoln's in Lions Club Speech

The death by assassin's bullets of Mohandas K. Gandhi was The battle of small lumbermen likened to the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln in a Linguist the government's longcoln day talk Thursday noon before Salem Lions club by Frank Neer, Salem high school social studies instructor.

The death of each immediately raised him to a pedestal, noted Neer who continued, "and in each case the people began immediately to forget the principles and ideals for which he had worked."

But Lincoln's stature as a national hero, also like Gandhi's, should not obscure the fact that he was outstanding in his time as does not mean, the speaker explained, that Lincoln fits the stereotype of a self-seeking politician which Americans have come to associate with the word "politician." Indifference to Lincoln's princi-
