

Three-Act Comedy Tonight

Students of Willamette university present John L. Belderston's three-act fantasy tonight and Saturday in the high school auditorium.

The play starts at 8:15 with tickets on sale at Miller's department store or at the door.

Heading the list of characters is Peter Standish, portrayed by Robert Scott, the young man of the twentieth century whose love for the glorious days of Queen Anne is required when he is allowed to change places with his ancestor.

Completed the cast are Eleanor Loveless, John Kooy, Joe Power, Harriet Ness, Gloria Nandie, Harry Ryan, Margaret Guice, Addy Laps, Lloyd Hanson and Carl Ritchie.

The students have tried to make every item of the play as authentic as possible, importing costumes from Seattle for the production. Carl Ritchie designed and executed the stage scenery.

Music will be provided by a quartet from Willamette's music school composed of Geraldin Schmoker, Katherine Schisler, Betty Kuhlmann and Wallace Bjork.

Lou Hartke arranged for the costumes, and Glennis Allen contacted the musicians. Harriet Ness doubled as program designer and as publicity manager. Assistant publicists were Jean Carico and Virginia Weeks.

The aim of all productions given by the university is to train students by actually completing sets, casting, publicity, and musical performance to prepare them to enter the world of business in their chosen profession.
