Judge Felton Married in Portland

Highlighting the romantic news on Valentine's day was the marriage of Miss Virginia McAllister, daughter of T. H. McAllister of Cheyenne, Wyoming, to Judge Joseph Felton, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Felton of Hillsboro. The rites were quietly solemnized Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in Portland in the office of the Multnomah county district judge with Judge Frank Day, a friend of the groom, officiating. For her wedding, the bride chose a grey tulle with black hat and red accessories. Pinned to her suit was a corsage of red roses. Miss Ruth Felton, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant. The newlyweds left immediately after the ceremony for a trip along the Oregon coast. They will be at home in Salem at 563 Court street. The new Mrs. Felton attended schools in Cheyenne and has been in Salem the past year. She is with the Salem Title Co. Judge Felton is a graduate of Willamette university law school. During the war he served in the army for fifteen months. Prior to being appointed judge of the Marion county district court he served as justice of the peace and deputy district attorney. Judge Felton is an active member of the Oregon Republican club and other civic and fraternal orders.

Nuptials at Church

Miss Lorene Palmateer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Palmateer, became the bride of Wayne Kunze, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kunze, at a 2 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon in the prayer room of the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Chester W. Hamblin officiated in a setting of pink snapdragons and white carnations. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin wedding dress with fitted bodice, bustle back, full skirt and train. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible. Clyde Kunze, jr. was best man for his brother. Ushers were Walter Palmateer and George Zurlinden. Miss Mavis Eggens, her maid of honor, wore an aqua satin gown with fitted bodice and full skirt. Miss Pauline Miller, lighting the tapers, wore an identical frock of peach satin. Glennis Allen was the soloist and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs played the wedding music. The bride's mother wore a royal blue dress with brown accessories and the groom's mother chose an aqua gown with black accessories. Their corsages were gardenias and rosebuds. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Winifred Palmateer, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Roger Moe poured and Mrs. Clyde Kunze, jr. (Betty Anglin) was at the punch bowl. Mrs. Forrest Moe had charge of the gift table and Beverly Plant passed the guest book. Assisting were Misses Jean and Joy Moe, Mary Ann Fisher, Gloria Parker, Darlene Swanson, Mrs. Leonard Kunze and Mrs. Helen McLeod. For traveling the bride wore a brown wool tailored suit with light cocoa brown accessories and white orchid. After a wedding trip to San Francisco the newlyweds will make their home at Orchards, Wash. Mrs. Robert Drager will entertain the Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae at her home on Shipping street Monday night for an 8 o'clock dessert supper. All Kappas in the city are invited to attend. Centralia Temple No. 11, Pythian Sisters will entertain Oregon's grand chief Quintella DeSpain of Pendleton on Wednesday night at the KP hall at a covered dish supper at 6:30 o'clock. A meeting will follow the dinner at 8 o'clock. Mrs. DeSpain will be accompanied by Mrs. Wanda Van Cleave, district deputy of Silverton. Several visiting past chiefs are expected to attend.
