

Portland Man Given Corvallis Recruiting Post

M. Sgt. Frederick J. Phillips, Portland, has been assigned to the Salem office of the U. S. army recruiting station for duty at the Corvallis sub-station.

M. Sgt. Phillips is a veteran of nine years in the army, having served as a 1st lieutenant in Africa, Sicily and Italy with the 3rd division, 7th infantry. He is the holder of the silver star medal with one oak leaf; purple heart with two oak leaves; good conduct, victory and American defense medals; American theater and European theater, with five combat stars and one arrowhead, ribbons.

M. Sgt. Phillips was awarded the silver star medal when he was a mortar platoon leader and went into open ground on the battlefield in Italy to repair communication lines under heavy machine gun and artillery fire. Result of this action permitted artillery observers to direct American fire on enemy positions which aided the battalion to gain its objective, according to Phillips' citation.

"Mr. Penney, I have a problem..."

"I've just started housekeeping, and I notice that so many young brides soon get careless about their appearance. I'm determined to keep looking fresh and dainty, even at my household chores and morning shopping, yet I can't buy a lot of dress-up things, and the ordinary house dress doesn't seem quite smart enough to make me feel well-groomed. What to do?"
