Mills-Tycer Vows Read Saturday

At a pretty ceremony Saturday night in the prayer room of the First Presbyterian church Frances Purdue Tycer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. Noel of Newport, received her golden circlet from Charles Kent Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills. Only members of the family and a few friends witnessed the exchange of vows at 8 o'clock at which Dr. Chester W. Hamblin officiated.

Bouquets of acacia, snapdragons and forsythia banked with candles and woodwardia fern provided the setting for the nuptials. Miss Edith Fairham was the soloist and Mrs. A. A. Schramm played the wedding music.

Noel gave his tall, brunette daughter in marriage. Her full skirted ballerina gown was of winter white shot with a gold metallic stripe. The bodice was studded with brilliants and fashioned with short sleeves, a low neckline and a peplum effect at the waistline. She wore a small hat of the material of her dress and carried a colonial nosegay of paper white narcissus centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Elliott Price (Roberta Mills) of Camas, Wash., sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. She wore a ballerina dress of dusty rose bengaline and hat to match. She carried a nosegay of roses, narcissus and baby primroses. Edward Lambert stood with the groom as best man and showing the guests to their seats were John Griffith and John Copenhagen.

Mrs. Noel selected a black dinner gown for her daughter's wedding and a corsage of gardenias and roses. Mrs. Mills chose a fuchsia crepe gown and wore a soft pink carnation in her hair.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the home of the groom's aunt, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, on Court street.

Mrs. Charles A. Sprague served the ices and Mrs. Griffith presided at the coffee urn. Mrs. Leona Johnson cut the bride's cake and assisting were Mrs. Elliott Price, Mrs. John Copenhagen and Miss Jean Spaulding. Mrs. Kenneth Hanson was in charge of the dining room. Mingling with the guests in the living room were Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Robert W. Craig and Mrs. Clyde Kaiser.

Mr. Mills and his bride will be at home on Marion street following a short honeymoon. For traveling the bride wore a black ensemble with straight skirt and shortie coat lined with shadow plaid taffetas in shades of pink, wine and white. She had a blouse to match and her hat was black. Her shoes and purse were of wine.
