

Sgt. White Weds in South

From North Carolina comes news of the marriage of a Salem man, T/Sgt. Loren J. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren R. White of Salem, to Miss Sarah Bernice Allmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob M. Allmon of Mt. Pleasant, North Carolina. The vows were exchanged at 7:30 o'clock in the Mt. Pleasant Lutheran church in Mt. Pleasant at 7:30 o'clock by the Rev. Edward Fulenwider.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in white slipper satin, fashioned on princess lines and designed with lace yoke and peplum and full skirt ending in a train. Her tiara, to which her veil was attached, was trimmed in seed pearls and white rhinestones. The bride's bouquet was of white carnations and lilies of the valley, with satin petals and tied with white satin ribbon. Her only ornaments were yellow gold star earrings centered with pearls and a necklace of pearls.

Mrs. W. Craven Almond was her sister-in-law of honor. She wore a gown of pastel blue tulle, patterned after that of the bride. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations and red roses, centered with wedgewood Dutch iris and filled with carnations and tied with wedgewood satin ribbon. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard H. Almond, sister of the bride, Mrs. Charles Almond, Mrs. Eric Clayton Smith, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Ralph M. Allmon, sister-in-law of the bride.

Mary Katherine Allmon, sister of the bride, was the ringbearer. Flower girls were Helen Blackweider, cousin of the bride, and Muriel Almond, niece of the bride. Serving as best man was S/Sgt. Joel G. Woodard of Fort Bragg. Ushers were Ralph M. Allmon, brother of the bride, and Howard H. Almond.

Mrs. Allmon, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of light blue crepe and a corsage of white geraniums. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. White, was unable to go south for the wedding.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Mt. Pleasant at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple left for a wedding trip and for traveling the bride wore a black dress with black accessories and a white topper. T/Sgt. and Mrs. White will make their home for the present in Fayetteville.

The new Mrs. White is a graduate of the Mt. Pleasant high school and attended Lenoir Rhyne college in Hickory. T/Sgt. White is a graduate of the Salem high school. He entered the service in June of 1944 and served for 20 months overseas with the 508th parachute infantry regiment, 82nd airborne division. He is now stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C.
