

Au Revoir Parties Given

Several informal au revoir parties are being arranged in communities to Mrs. Ray A. Yocom of Chicago, formerly of Salem, prior to her departure next week for the east. She has been in Salem, Portland and Corvallis visiting with her family since mid-January.

Mrs. A. A. Schramm presided at a one o'clock luncheon Friday afternoon at her North 17th street home for the pleasure of Mrs. Yocom. Eight of the honor guests' intimate friends were bidden to the affair. Bridge was in play during the afternoon. The luncheon table was centered with an arrangement of daffodils, iris and freesias.

Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom will be a luncheon hostess Tuesday afternoon at her Center street home in honor of Mrs. Yocom. Covers will be placed for twelve of Mrs. Yocom's close friends. The afternoon will be spent informally. The hostess will use spring flowers in decorating.

Miss Omann Engaged

Another young woman of Salem has taken her place among the other engaged girls this week. Miss Lorraine Omann's engagement to Hal Fries is being announced. Miss Omann's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Omann of Manson, Iowa. The bride-elect came here this fall and is employed at the state highway department.

Mr. Fries, a boxer, attended Salem school and is now employed here.

The couple will live in Salem after the wedding which has been set for a Sunday in May.

Vows Exchanged At Church Rites

MILL CITY—The Mill City Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding Saturday at 8 p.m. of Mrs. Jessie Romilly, daughter of Mrs. Robert Saers of The Dalles, and Francis Bodeker, son of Ben Bodeker of Mill City. Dr. David Ferguson performed the nuptials. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merrill were soloists, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Sheythe.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother-in-law, Frank Merrill, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was of ice blue brocade satin, trimmed with white lace. It was fashioned with basque waist and sweetheart neckline. She wore a seed pearl cap with white lace. Her flowers were Calla lilies and white hydrangeas.

Mrs. Margie Asher, St. Helens, in pale blue chiffon attended her sister as matron of honor. She carried a fan shaped bouquet of yellow snapdragons and carnations.

Keith Salchenberger, brother-in-law of the groom was best man. Jack Haseman and Milan Weston were the ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony in the IOOF hall.

Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. Keith Salchenberger and Mrs. John Kunkle, sister of the groom. Mrs. Frank Merrill, sister of the bride, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Alex Bodeker, aunt of the groom, greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Darrell Anderson and Mrs. Wilbur Meinert were in charge of the gift table.

The bride's going away costume was a black dressmaker suit with red accessories and an orchid corsage.

After a honeymoon trip east of the mountains the couple will reside in Mill City.

The bride was honored Tuesday night with a bridal shower at the IOOF hall with Mrs. Frank Merrill, Mrs. Alta Bodeker, Mrs. W. Henderson and Mrs. Jack Duggan as hostesses.

Present were: Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood, Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mrs. Edna Jenkins, Mrs. G. Wells, Mrs. Lee Bassett, Mrs. James Reed, Mrs. Frank Barney, Mrs. Arbie Johnson, Mrs. William Brockman, Mrs. Millard Bass, Mrs. Milan Weston, Mrs. Darrell Anderson, Mrs. John Kunkle, Mrs. Clyde Bressler, Mrs. Keith Salchenberger, Miss Fanny Wilson, Mrs. Jack Haseman, Mrs. Rosa Berry, Mrs. Earl Hampton, Mrs. Teresa Ransom, Mrs. Esther Hickman, Mrs. Mildred Carr, Mrs. Myrtle Lyons, Betty Joan Bodeker, Mrs. Daisy Hendrickson, Mrs. Clayton, Baltimore, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Ed Chance and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley of Longview are spending the weekend here with their family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hadley. Sunday the visitors will be guests at a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McKay, who will entertain for Mrs. Wayne Hadley's birthday. The latter's sister, Miss Mary Lou McKay will be home from Oregon State college for the occasion.
