

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Gadwa are the parents of a daughter, Rita Ann, born at Salem General hospital Friday. They have an older child, Richard. The grandmothers are Mrs. Edith Cowden, Salem and Mrs. Bertha Gadwa, Pendleton.

Mrs. Frederick Hartung of Portland, province president of Alpha Chi Omega, will visit the Willamette university chapter Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. While in the capital she will be the house guest of Miss Dorathia Steustloff.

Betty Keith Will Wed Today

In a setting of pink snapdragons and calla lilies at the First Christian church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Betty Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan T. Keith, will become the bride of Earl Loe, son of Mrs. Wilma Loe. Miss Mary Evelyn Parks will sing and Russell Morrell will be the organist. The Rev. Dudley Strain will perform the ceremony.

The bride, who will enter on the arm of her father, will wear a white satin gown fashioned with a full, gathered skirt, long sleeves and a fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip length veil edged in lace, will cascade from a braided satin tiara. She will carry pink and white tulips and bouvardia.

Preceding the bride will be Miss Barbara Keith, her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Delores Ammann and Mrs. Ronald Bonney, as bridesmaids. Miss Keith will wear a pink taffeta gown and bridesmaids' dresses are of blue taffeta. The girls will wear matching shirley pants and carry arm bouquets of white tulips.

Ronald Bonney will stand with the groom as best man and seating the guests will be Jerry Hale, Milton Morey, and Paul Schmidt. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Keith will wear an azure blue suit with matching accessories and Mrs. Loe will attend her son's nuptials in a chestnut brown pin stripe suit and brown accessories. Their corsages will be of sweetpeas and white roses.

The couple will greet guests at a reception in the church parlors. Mrs. Emily Moore will cut the cake and Mrs. Eva Gearhart will preside at the coffee urn. Assisting will be the Misses Donna Dasch, Norma Holden, Barbara Tull, Shirley Keith, Peggy and Betty Meyers. When the couple leaves on the wedding trip the bride will don a mist grey suit with carnation green accessories and orchid corsage. The newlyweds will live in Salem at 735 S. 13th street.

Annual Tea Slated

The Salem Memorial hospital will meet at the hospital chapel at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. Mrs. Coble de Lespinasse will speak on "Children of Holland" and impressions gathered while on her recent trip to Europe. Hostesses will be Mesdames Mayme Hill, Marguerite Seely, Donald Upjohn, Clifton Ross, George T. Hewitt and Wayne Pettit. Plans will be made for the auxiliary's annual tea to be given April 23 at the Salem Woman's clubhouse. Old glass and hand painted china will be exhibited at the tea, to which the general public is invited.

Motoring to Portland Monday will be members of the fine arts department of the Salem Woman's club, who are sponsoring a Victorian table in the chingware department at Olds and King during the week. They will have luncheon at noon at the Roosevelt hotel and in the afternoon will visit the Portland Art Museum.

Junior Women to Be Club Guests

Members of the Salem Junior Woman's club will be special guests at the regular meeting of the Salem Woman's club Saturday afternoon at the clubhouse at 2 o'clock. A board meeting will precede at 1 o'clock with Mrs. Estill Brunk presiding.

The Junior women will present the program which is under the direction of Mrs. C. M. Collins. Colored slides of Alaska will be shown by Mrs. Oliver Mansfield. Special music will also be given. Mrs. Arthur Roethlin is president of the Junior club.

Mrs. Herbert Rahe heads the tea committee for the afternoon.
