

Miss Fair, Mr. Olinger Married

At an 8 o'clock ceremony Saturday night at the First Christian church Miss Jane A. Fair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fair, became the bride of James C. Olinger, son of Mrs. Earl Tidd of Walnut Creek, Calif., with the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating. The altar was decorated with roses and greenery. John Schmidt, Jr. was the soloist and Mrs. Schmidt the organist. Lighting the candles were Miss Darlene McKeever and Miss Beverly McRae. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a powder blue wool crepe suit for her wedding. She wore a pink hat and gloves and her accessories were white. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Donna Hudson was the bride's only attendant and wore a grey suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses. Jack Fair stood with his new brother-in-law as best man. Ushers were Mack Larson and Benny Colebath. Mrs. Fair attended her daughter's wedding in a grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Tidd, who came north of the rites, wore an indigo blue suit and accessories and corsage of roses. The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception in the church parlors. Mrs. Charles Fair and Mrs. E. L. McRae presided at the bride's table and Miss Brenda Glass cut the cake. Mr. Olinger and his bride have gone to California on their honeymoon, after which they will return to Salem.
